be wages.

Fort may be pronounced, or contrasted with the

This is an interesting aspect of the situation, but it is not the subject of this report.

The report also mentions the presence of reporters who are covering the event.

The report concludes by stating that the situation is under control and that the authorities are doing everything possible to ensure public safety.

The report also notes that the authorities are taking measures to prevent any further incidents and that the public is being urged to remain calm and avoid any unnecessary gatherings.

In summary, the report highlights the seriousness of the situation and the measures being taken by the authorities to ensure public safety and maintain order.