GREAT INDUCEMENTS!
I HAVE now at my old stand in this city a pretty heavy assortment of DRY GOODS, consisting of

Ready-made Clothing,
Ladies' Dress Goods, such as French merinos, delaines, alpaca, &c., &c. I keep all kinds of goods that may be required for my line, which will be sold very low for cash.

Before you make a final purchase, be sure to call and examine my stock, and save money—I am determined to beat the Jews selling goods, and not mistake. I am sure you will find it to your advantage to buy of me, and you can economize by making your purchases of such as sell the most and best goods for the money paid, why not do it? Don't make a mistake and get into a J. W. store (that don't advertise), but inquire for

EUGENE LA FOREST,
P. S.—Those indebted to me are earnestly solicited to pay up, as I am still human, and cannot well get along without money.

L. DAY.

HOLLAND & DAY
HAVE just opened a new and splendid assortment of GOODS

At the Old Stand of F. S. & A. Holland, opposite Geo. Abernethy's brick store, where they can be found at all times ready to wait on customers. They are now permanently located, and hope by strict attention to business to merit a liberal share of patronage.

Their stock in part consists of the following articles: Ginghams, lawns, delaines, prints, merinos, flannels, alpaca, bleached domestic, wool plaid, damask silk dress goods, homery, white shirts, check do., hickory do., over & under do., boots & shoes of all kinds & sizes, shawls, fine & coarse, satinet, silk, brown & white linen thread, Coste's special cotton, ribbons, artificial flowers, &c., &c.

Also, East Boston syrup, California refined syrup, sugar of all kinds, tobacco, coffee, tea, nails, salt, lead, and a thousand other things, too numerous to mention, all of which they will sell as low as any other house in Oregon City.

They will pay cash or goods for all kinds of produce, such as butter, eggs, chickens, or almost any thing the farmers have to sell. There is nothing like trying. So give them a trial.
