To All Who Desire to Get Rich,
OR TO LIVE COMFORTABLY!
THE undersigned, desiring to leave the world in a better condition than he found it, is happy to have it in his power to offer an opportunity to quite a large number of his fellow-citizens on the western coast not only to make a fortune but to live comfortably and leave the same blessing for their children and grand children. To this end, I offer for sale, at reduced prices, at the WALNUT GROVE NURSERY, on the road from Salem to Oregon City, 16 miles from the former and 21 from the latter, a large lot of two-year old FRUIT TREES, of thrifty growth, warranted to be the variety I sell them for; and should any one purchase, and his trees when they come into bearing not produce the fruit they are sold for, I will refund him his money and he may keep the trees. I have all the best varieties that have ever been offered for sale in Oregon; so that you may have fruit the next year after purchasing, and may continue to have fruit after that ripening "every season in the year." Orders accompanied with the cash addressed to me at Blueville, will be punctually attended to, and trees shipped to any point from Corvallis to Astoria. The majority of my trees are winter varieties, among which is an abundance of White Winter Pearmain, Es Spitzenberg, Y. & G. Newtown Pippin, Golden and Rox. Russell, Smith's Cedar, and Wassip, M. H. Pippin, Baldwin, &c. NEILL JOHNSON, October 2, 1858. 25w3

JUST LOOK HERE.
WE have on hand one of the largest and best assortments of FANCY DRY GOODS, MILLINERY, straw goods, embroideries, bonnets, ribbons, jewelry of all kinds, boots, shoes, and all kinds of fashionable clothing, such as the ladies need. We have an agent in San Francisco constantly buying goods for us, and any man of some known that can undersell those who buy in Portland. Our stock is heavy, and we expect a new supply of every steamer. What is the use of spending money with those who sell high under the delusion that they are "selling off at cost?" Don't make a mistake and get into the French store, which has long been selling off to "go to France for its health," and still don't go, but be sure you are right when you make for our store between the Bakery and Post-office. DANNEBAUM & JACOB. Oregon City, Sept. 18, 1858. 23w2

LETTER PAPER—$3 per team at CITY BOOK STORE.

ANY one having Prince's MELODEONS with broken reeds, can have them replaced by sending to CITY BOOK STORE.

For Sale.
THIRTY-THREE acres of LAND adjoining Oregon City, on Wm. Holmes's claim. It is a beautiful location, and considerable clearing has been done on it. I will sell low. In my absence, apply to A. Holbrook. THEO. WYGANT. Oregon City, Aug. 28, 1858. 20

GREAT INDUCEMENTS!
I HAVE now at my old stand in this city a pretty heavy assortment of DRY GOODS, consisting of Ready-made Clothing, Ladies' Dress Goods, such as French merinos, delaines, alpacas, &c. I keep all kinds of goods that may be called for in my line, which will be sold very low for cash. Before you make a final purchase, be sure to call and examine my stock, and save money—for I am determined to beat the Jew's selling goods, and so make. To those who are such as to require economy in all business, and if you can economize by making your purchases of such as sell the most and best goods for the money paid, why not do it? Don't make a mistake and get into a Jew store (that don't advertise), but inquire for EUGENE LA FOREST. P. S.—Those indebted to me are earnestly solicited to pay up, as I am still human, and cannot get along without money. E. L. F. Oregon City, Aug. 28, 1858.
