a want of muscular and mental energy, a want of animation, and have fearful forebodings for the future, poor appetite, nervous irritability, and sleep-lessness; their skin is dry, and occasionally flushed and heated, thin, palid, and yellow.

Now sudden deaths, huney, and universal debility is too, too prevalent here; and who wonders, when combined with a climate like this, a dry air impregnated with electricity and galvanism? We have many who have passed through sickness, whose life is intemperate and debauched, or lave seen others who have been nearly doctored to death by quark medicines, or by the advice of "The Faculty," who have impregnated them with mercury, calomel, &c.

For all such cases is Dr. Jacob Webber's Invigorat ag Cordial Sanguiñer most especially adapted, in usuuch as the above cases and symptoms did Dr. Webber minutely study in adapting his cordial to their curs. It enlivens the torpid liver, ejects all billions matter from the system, causes sudation, or free perspiration (so necessary to health), purifies
