

CHRIST, THE WAY, THE TRUTH, AND THE LIFE.
O, thou great friend to all the sons of men,
Who once appeared in humblest guise below,
To rebuke, to break the captive's chain,
And call thy brethren forth from want and woe.
We look to thee! thy truth is all the Light,
Which guides the nations, groping on their way,
Stumbling and falling in disastrous night,
Yet hanging ever for the perfect day.
Yes, thou art all the Life, thou art the Way,
The holiest name: Light, Life, the way of heaven!
And those who dearest hope, the deepest pray,
Told by the Light, Life, Way, which thou hast given.
—Theodore Parker.

AN INCIDENT.—A touching case was presented yesterday to the consideration and charity of one of the good Samaritans who now take care of the sick, relieve the destitute, and feed the starving. A boy was discovered in the morning, lying in the grass of Claiborne street, evidently bright and intelligent, but sick. A man who has the feelings of kindness strongly developed went to him, shook him by the shoulder, and asked him what he was doing there. "Waiting for God to come for me," said he. "What do you mean?" said the gentleman, touched by the pathetic tone of the answer, and the condition of the boy, in whose eye and flushed face he saw the evidences of the fever. "God sent for mother, and father, and little brother," said he, "and took them away to his home, up in the sky; and mother told me, when she was sick, that God would take care of me. I have no home, nobody to give me anything, and so I came out here, and have been looking so long up in the sky for God to come and take care of me, as mother said he would. He will come, won't he? Mother never told me a lie." "Yes, my lad," said the man, overcome with emotion, "he has sent me to take care of you." "You should have seen his eyes flash, and the smile of triumph break over his face, as he said, 'Mother never told me a lie, sir; but you've been so long on the way.'" "What a lesson of trust, and how this incident shows the effect of never deceiving children with idle tales! As the poor mother expected when she told her son 'God would take care of him,' he did, by touching the heart of this benevolent man with compassion and love to the little stranger."
—New Orleans Delta.

STORING A NEWSPAPER.—A certain man is said one day to have struck his head against a wall, and thereby fell headlong to the ground. He was vexed, and under the influence of anger and self-sufficiency, he kicked off his mother's right heel. With imperious gravity, he looked to see the globe come to naught. But the earth remained, and only his foot was injured by the counter. "This is the way with man. Let an article appear in a newspaper touching him in a tender spot, and he straightway reaches to his paper stopped! With great self-complacency he looks to see a crash follow, when the object of his wrath shall cease to exist. Poor fellow! he has only struck his toe against an imaginary world, which does not perceptibly feel the tremendous blow."

IT is very rare to find ground which produces nothing; if it is not covered with flowers, with fruit trees and grains, it produces briars and thorns. It is the same with man; if he is not virtuous, he becomes vicious.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FOURTEEN BEGINS
SEPT. 11, 1858.

MICROSCOPES, INVENTORS,
Manufacturers, and Farmers.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its fourteenth year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, technical work on scientific science; on the contrary, it deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial world, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business, or if the inventor wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements,—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business,—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unaccustomed to the higher branches of science and art.
Terms.—One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $4; ten copies, six months, $8; twelve copies, twelve months, $15; fifteen copies, twelve months, $22; twenty copies, twelve months, $28, in advance.
Specimen copies sent gratuitously for inspection. Postage stamps sent for subscriptions.
Letters should be directed to

Moore, Meow & Co. are an entirely new and improved patent for new inventions, and will make inventors, without charge, in regard to the novelty of their improvements.

In Paddock's Book of Plates and Illustrated Counterfeit Detector for 1858, he says: "Hostetter's Bitters are really what their name implies, a tonic and gentle stimulant, calculated to act upon the system as a medicine, and not, as is too often the case, a mere invention under which to indulge in tipping. We would not venture to make this statement, did we not feel sure it would be corroborated by the willing testimony of thousands all over the United States, and especially throughout the western and southern parts, where certain disorders prevail, which require such a prescription. We are assured by a gentleman of large experience, who is a 'traveled man' and whose judgment and impartiality may be relied upon, that 'Hostetter's Bitters' are a sure thing on Fever and Ague, that scourge of our newly settled regions; which, indeed, has within the past year, prevailed to an alarming extent in sections generally exempt."

THE GREEN MOUNTAIN OINTMENT.
Invaluable for burns, wounds, sprains, chilblains, sores, swellings, scrofula, &c. As a pain extractor, it cannot be excelled, affording immediate relief from the most excruciating pains.
THE GRAEFENBERG
DYSENTERY SYRUP.
This extraordinary article is a speedy and infallible remedy in dysentery, cholera, morbus, cholera infantum, and the Asiatic cholera, if taken with the first symptoms of the disease. It is purely vegetable in its composition.
Graefenberg Children's Panacea.
For summer complaint, and most diseases to which children are subject. Its true worth can never be set forth in words, but it can be felt and appreciated by parents whose children have been saved. No mother should be without it.
Graefenberg Pile Remedy.
Warranted a certain cure for this painful disease. With the Ointment, there are very few cases which cannot be radically and permanently cured. A surgical operation for Piles and Fistula should never be resorted to until this ointment has been thoroughly tried. It never fails.
GRAEFENBERG EYE LOTION.
For diseases of the eye, this Lotion has no equal. It is a speedy and positive cure for inflammation of the eyes, weakness, dimness and falling of sight. It will always be beneficial in acute inflammation of the eyes, and also as a wash on inflamed surfaces.
GRAEFENBERG
FEVER AND AGUE PILLS.
A speedy and positive cure for this distressing complaint. These Pills are composed principally of Quinine, with other vegetable tonics, anti-spa-smic and febrifuge articles. Thousands have been permanently cured by their use.
Graefenberg Consumptive's Balm
Sovereign in all Bronchial and Pulmonary Diseases. It is, beyond all question, true that consumption is a curable disease, and the Consumptive's Balm is the best curative ever used.
Graefenberg Health Bitters.
These Bitters are shrewdly and elegantly prepared from a number of invigorating, healthy roots, barks, herbs, and vines. An invaluable tonic and health restorer.
Graefenberg Manual of Health.
A handsomely printed volume of 300 pages, containing concise and extremely plain descriptions of all manner of diseases, their symptoms and treatment. Every family should have one. Price only 25 cents. It will be sent, post paid, to any post office in California or Oregon, on the receipt of 25 cents by mail or express.

New Arrangements.
I HAVE bought out the BAKERY establishment of Charman & Warner, which I have now opened under the most favorable circumstances to all old patrons, and as many new ones as may choose to give me a call. My shop will be well supplied with Bread, Cakes, Pies, Crackers, Nuts, Candies, Raisins, Figs, Cigars, Toys, and almost every other variety of kitchen-knack yet invented by Yankee ingenuity—all of which will be afforded
AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE RATES!
I shall occasionally receive supplies from the tropical latitudes, which will be duly announced upon arrival. All are invited to give me a call.
