This life of ours, these lingering years of earth, Are briefer, swifter, than they seem;
A little while, and the great second birth
Of time shall come, the prophets' aucient theme And for this desert, where we sadly roam, Shall give the kingdom for our endless home— The Land of which I dream!

RARITY OF A TRUE GENTLEMAN .- Perhaps a gentleman is a rarer specimen than some of us think for. Which of us can point out many such in his circle; men whose aims are generous, whose truth is constant, and not only constant in its kind, but elevated in its degree, whose want of meanness makes them simple, who can look the world honestly in the face with an equal, manly sympathy for the great and the small? We all know now a hundred whose coats are very well made, and a score who have excellent manners, and one or two happy beings who are in what they call the inner circles, and have short into the very centre and bull's eye of fashion; but of gentlemen, how many! Let us take a little scrap of paper and each make out his list .- Thackeray.

LT I don't care what a man professes -how does he live? There is a volume in this question. Profession is nothing .-Men should be measured by their actions Deeds are more eloquent than words. 'I feel five dollars for the man; how much do you feel I' was the practically expressed sympathy of the kind hearted Frenchman, when a neighbor was in trouble. That's the test. How much do we feel when we talk ? Talking is easy. Words cost noth ing, and furnish the warp and woof of some most glorious friendships! Such friendships are like some men's libraries, beautiful in gilt and to be admired, but not for

TRIBULATION .- Trench, in his "Study of Words," gives tribulation as an example of one word containing a concentrated poem. It is derived from the Latin tribulum, the thrashing instrument of the Romans, and tribulatio was the act of separating the corn from the husks. "Some Latin writer of the Christian Church appropriated the word and image for the setting forth of a higher trath; and sorrow, distress, and adversity, being the appointed means for the separating, in men, of their chaff from the wheat-of whatever in them was light, and trivial, and poor, from the solid and the true; therefore he called these sorrows and griefs 'tribulations'-thrashings, that is, of the inner spiritual man, without which there could be no fitting him for the spiritual garner."

A church may have a creed that shall be like Jacob's ladder, uniting earth and heaven, and angels of exposition may run nimbly up and down upon it before the congregation; and yet, if there is no love in that church, unlike the patriarch, it will never wake from its sleep, or lift its head from the pile of stones on which it lies.

Too many persons grow to use their religion as a diver doth his bell-to venture down into the depths of worldliness with safety, and grope for pearls, with just so much of heaven's air as will keep them from sufficating and no more; and some, alas! as at times is the case with divers, are sufficiently with the experiment.

To cure a pain in the breast-procure a well made calico or delaine dress with an equally well constructed woman inside of it, and press closely to the part affected. Repeat the application till the pain ceases. Said to be a kill or cure re-

Re To wash hair brushes, never use soap. Take a piece of soda, dissolve it in warm water, place the brush in it, taking care that the water covers only the bristles -it will almost instantly become clean. Place it in the air to dry with the bristles downward, and it will be firm as a new

We have heard of cool things, but never anything cooler than the following: The landlord of a hotel in Columbia call ed a border to him one day and said : 'Look here, I want you to pay your board bill, and you must. I've asked you often enough and you don't leave my house till you pay "Good,' said his lodger, 'just put that in writing, make a regular agreement of it, and I'll stay with you as long as I live!"

THE EARLY DEAD .- Some one has said of those who die young, that they are like the lambs which Alpine shepherds bear in their arms to greener pastures, that the flecks may follow.

WANT OF LIBERALITY. - One always receiving, never giving, is like the stagnant pool, in which whatever flows remains, whatever remains corrupts.

CAREFULNESS OF SPRECH .- We should

Woman's 'Empire State' is matrimeny. Here, she is always in the majority, always reigns, and sometimes storms.

Men do not measure a woman's soul by the size of her hoops, or the depth of her brains by the number of frills.

The surest way to hit a woman's heart is to take aim kneeling.

CANINE ORGAN OF SPEECH. - What an absurd as well as barbarous act to cut off a dog's tan! With is tail a dog expresses not only gratitude, as Filo did, but hope, entreaty, complaisance, affection, love, obedicuce, wrath, shame, defiance, four, and frolic. It is clear, then, that in depriving the dog of his tail, you deprive him of an organ of speech -Blackwood

It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the house-wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—If the manufac-turer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of lesure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, respers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war-all these desiderate can be found in the SCIEN-
