

"Nothing but Leaves!"
Nothing but leaves; the Spirit grieves
Over a wasted life;
Sin committed while conscience slept,
Promises made but never kept,
Hated, battle, and strife;
Nothing but leaves!

Nothing but leaves; no garnered sheaves
Of life's fair, ripened grain;
Words, idle words for earnest deeds;
We sow our seeds—'tis tares and weeds;
We reap with toil and pain
Nothing but leaves.

Nothing but leaves; memory weaves
No veil to screen the past;
As we retrace our weary way,
Counting each lost and mispent day,
We sadly find at last
Nothing but leaves.

And shall we meet the Master so,
Heating our withered leaves?
The Savior looks for perfect fruit—
He stand before him humbled, mute;
Waiting the word he breathes—
"Nothing but leaves."

Allan and Jamie.

"Need I say my prayers to night, mamma?" said Allan to his mother, when she came to his room to give him his good night kiss; "I'm so sleepy, mamma!"

"Too sleepy to thank God for taking care of you all day, Allan! Who kept you from falling, when your foot slipped while you were crossing the brook on the log today?"

"Oh, mamma! do you suppose such a big boy as I am can't keep himself from falling, just because his foot happens to slip?" Allan said this very contemptuously, adding: "I hope I'm strong enough to hold myself up—now I'm almost eight years old!"

"Allan, come with me," said his mother. —And she led the way to his grandmother's room. Here Allan's mother whispered a few words to a sweet looking old lady, who arose, and taking a bunch of keys from her pocket, gently unlocked a drawer in an old-fashioned bureau. Grandmother's hand trembled as she softly lifted from the drawer a parcel, wrapped up very carefully in a white towel. Seating herself in a large arm chair, she called Allan to her side, and commenced removing slowly the pins, one by one, from the towel. Allan's curiosity began to be much excited. What could it be? Now the parcel is opened, and Allan is rather disappointed to see nothing more wonderful than a suit of little boy's clothes.

Worn and patched, and old-fashioned they are; the once bright buttons dim and dusty; certainly there was no beauty in them; yet grandmother wiped the tears from her eyes, as she tenderly smoothed the folds of the little garments. Her voice was very soft and sweet when she said: "These little clothes have lain here thirty years, Allan!"

"Thirty years, grandmamma! Why, whose were they, so long ago?"

"Yes," repeated the old lady, more as if speaking to herself than to Allan, "thirty years since that sad day, when the bright waters closed over my Jamie. I remember all about it as if it were yesterday—how they brought him into this very room, and laid him on my lap, in this very chair—how still and cold he was! They said he had fallen from the log while crossing the brook. His fair curls were wet, and tangled with gravel and weeds; his clothes were torn by the stones, yet how beautiful he was, though his blue eyes were closed, and the color gone from his lips! He was eight years old the day before!"

"I shall be eight next week," whispered Allan.

"I took the clothes from my darling—the little wet clothes in which they laid him on my knee—and here they have rested thirty years. Thirty years my Jamie has been in heaven; and I shall soon go to him, though he shall not return to me," said grandmamma, raising her eyes.

"Come, Allan," said his mamma, speaking very softly, "say good-night to grandmamma! Allan kissed her cheek, and looking once more at the little old clothes, went out gently, and on tip-toe.

"Oh, dear mamma!" said he, when he was in his own room again, "was Jamie really your brother?"

"Yes, Allan, he was two years older than I, and the only brother I ever had—My heart was almost broken when he died."

"Mamma," whispered Allan, "why did God keep me from drowning, and not little Jamie?"

"Perhaps, my dear, he saw that Jamie was better prepared for heaven than my Allan is. He was always a sweet, obedient child, and loved nothing so much as to hear of the blessed Savior."

"Oh," said Allan, "I am sure he was never so wicked as I have been to night. I was very proud because I thought I saved myself from falling off the log; and I didn't want to think that it was God who took care of me."—Standard Bearer.

TO PREVENT CLOTHES FROM CATCHING FIRE.—Add one ounce of alum to the first water used to rinse children's dresses, and they will be rendered so nearly incombustible that they will not flame. Be certain or other articles may be treated in the same way. This simple precaution may save serious accidents.

TO CLEAN SILK, SATIN, OR COLORED WOOLLEN DRESSES.—The following receipt is very highly recommended:—Four ounces of soft soap, the white of an egg, and a wine-glassful of gin. Mix well together—scour the article with a hard brush—afterward rinse in pure cold water; let it drain; iron when quite damp.

Black-eyed ladies are most apt to be passionate and jealous. Blue-eyed, soulful, truthful, affectionate and confiding. Gray-eyed, philosophical, literary, resolute, cold-hearted. Hazel-eyed, quick-tempered and fickle.

The common fable of women who have been handsome, is to forget that they are no longer so.

Life is a romance of which a Coquette never tires of turning over a new leaf.

Be kind even in your reproach, and reserve them till morning. No one can sleep well who goes to bed with a flea in his ear.

Family Medicines

The Graefenberg Company.
THIS INSTITUTION (incorporated by the Legislature of the State of New York, capital $100,000), was founded for the purpose of supplying the public with the celebrated GRAEFENBERG MEDICINES. The series comprises remedies for nearly every disease, adapted to every climate. For families, travelers, seamen, and miners' use, they are unequalled. All the medicines are PURELY VEGETABLE, and warranted to cure the diseases for which they are severally recommended.

The Graefenberg Company does not profess to cure all diseases with one or two medicines. Our series consists of ELEVEN different kinds, adapted to the various diseases incident to the temperate and tropical climates. The following comprise the series of Graefenberg Medicines:
The Graefenberg Vegetable Pills
Are considered the standard Pill of the day, and are infinitely superior to any Pill before the public. They operate without irritation on all the excretions, purging the blood by the bowels, liver, kidneys, and skin.
Marshall's Uterine Catholicon.
An infallible remedy for all diseases of the womb and urinary organs, weakness in the back, pain in breast, nervousness, debility, etc. In California and Oregon, out of more than a thousand cases, where this medicine has been used, it has in no single instance failed to give permanent relief or to effect a certain cure.
GRAEFENBERG SARSAPARILLA.
A powerful extract. One bottle equal to ten of the ordinary sarsaparilla for purifying the blood. A sure cure for syphilis, rheumatism, ulcers, dyspepsia, salt rheum, mercurial diseases, cutaneous eruptions, &c.
The Green Mountain Ointment.
Invaluable for burns, wounds, sprains, chilblains, sores, swellings, scrofula, etc. As a pain extractor, it cannot be excelled, affording immediate relief from the most excruciating pains.
THE GRAEFENBERG
DYSENTERY SYRUP.
This extraordinary medicine is a speedy and infallible remedy in dysentery, cholera, cholera morbus, cholera infantum, and the Asiatic cholera, if taken with the first symptoms of the disease. It is purely vegetable in its composition.
Graefenberg Children's Panacea.
For summer complaint, and most diseases to which children are subject. Its true worth can never be set forth in words, but it can be felt and appreciated by parents whose children have been saved. No mother should be without it.
Graefenberg Pile Remedy.
Warranted a certain cure for this painful disease. With the Ointment, there are very few cases which cannot be radically and permanently cured. A surgical operation for Piles and Fistula should never be resorted to until this Ointment has been thoroughly tried. It never fails.
GRAEFENBERG EYE LOTION.
For diseases of the eye, this Lotion has no equal. It is a speedy and positive cure for inflammation of the eyes, weakness, dimness and falling of sight. It will always be beneficial in acute inflammation of the eyes, and also as a wash on inflamed surfaces.
GRAEFENBERG
FEVER AND AGUE PILLS.
A speedy and positive cure for this distressing complaint. These Pills are composed principally of Quinine, with other vegetable tonics, anti-spa-smic and febrifuge articles. Thousands have been permanently cured by their use.
Graefenberg Consumptive's Balm
Sovereign in all Bronchial and Pulmonary Diseases. It is, beyond all question, true that consumption is a curable disease, and the Consumptive's Balm is the best curative ever used.
Graefenberg Health Bitters.
These bitters are skillfully and elegantly prepared from a number of laboring, healthy roots, bark, herbs, and vines. An invaluable tonic and health restorer.
Graefenberg Manual of Health.
A handsomely printed volume of 200 pages, containing concise and extremely plain descriptions of all manner of diseases, their symptoms and treatment. Every family should have one. Price only 25 cents. It will be sent, post paid, to any post office in California or Oregon, on the receipt of 25 cents by mail or express.
Address Redington & Co., San Francisco.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FOURTEEN BEGINS SEPT. 11, 1858.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS, Manufacturers, and Farmers.
THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its fourteenth year, and will enter upon its 15th volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is, in some respects, more than its title, a dry, abstract work on technical science; on the contrary, it deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any machine employed in his business—If the house-keeper wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—If the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—and if the desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.
Terms:—One copy, one year, $1; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $4; ten copies, six months, $8; ten copies, twelve months, $15; fifteen copies, twelve months, $22; twenty copies, twelve months, $28, in advance.
Specimen copies sent gratuitously for inspection. Postage stamps taken for subscriptions.
Letters should be directed to
MUNN & CO.,
128 Fulton st., New York.
Messrs. MUNN & Co. are extensively engaged in procuring patents for new inventions, and will advise inventors, without charge, in regard to the novelty of their improvements.
