For the Argus.

Republicans of Marion--Rally!

The eyes of those opposed to the present Administration are turned upon you. The two Democratic parties of Oregon, becoming weakened from their sectionalism, dispirited from their corruptions, and disorganized from the vices of their leaders, are now, if possible, to be fused for a great battle against the Republicans. Steeped with slavery-extension, reeking with wrong, and stained with corruption and profligacy, the Black Democracy has no claim for support from the people.

The fight of the Republicans is with sectionalism, which must be met and rebuked. Stand firm, then, you who are good and true freedom-loving men, and opposed to the further spread of the accursed institution of American slavery. Let us not entangle ourselves by any compromises, but, with the proud motto inscribed in blazing letter upon our banner, 'NO MORE SLAVE TERRITORY,' fight for the UNION and the good of the country. Be not deceived by misrepresentations of your strength or numbers. Let each man work—work from now until the day of election—work until every Republican vote shall be deposited in the ballot-box. Work for the over-throw of reckless politicians—for the prostration of sectionalism—for the defeat of slavery-extensionists. Remember the day of our County Convention (April 16), and turn out one and all—spare one day to aid in the advancement of our glorious cause.—Leave us not, as many of you did last year—you can gain nothing by so doing.—Bring your friends with you to the Convention, and let us nominate a ticket, a full one, and vote for it at the June election, and let us show to our enemies that if beaten once we are still alive and kicking and ready for the contest again. W. R. D.

For the Argus.

MR. EDITOR: Q. M. Gen. Drew was not so anxious to conceal from the public what he did with the money he received for the the public property, as to resort to the disgraceful expedient of purloining a paper from the Clerk's table of the H. R. to conceal it, because it would expose his peculation in office, for his party is accustomed to such offenses and would defend him in it.—But the paper shows that by bribery he has been building up a personal party for himself, an offense against the party which Bush seems at present to regard as one of a heinous character. It also shows to the rank and file that those who gave their personal services and exposed themselves to the inclement weather and balls of the enemy in the field, or furnished the means to carry on the war, and thus rendered services most meritorious, are left to the long-deferred and uncertain assumption of the war debt by Congress. Gen. Drew secures to himself and his myrmidons, at rates highly inflated, immediate payment in cash for services rendered in comfort and security—if indeed they rendered any service at all. If, according to Gen. Wool's view, the late Rogue river war was a speculation on the Treasury, and men of no high moral rectitude could take part in it, yet it seems to me those embarked in the same enterprise should share alike in the venture, for it is proverbial that even thieves and brigands practice this amount of honesty. I think after this exposure Bush might tell him in the language of Falstaff that 'his thefts were too open: his filchings was like an unskillful singer, he kept not time.' K.

For the Argus.

MR. EDITOR: I see in your paper of February 12th a communication from Mr. M. P. Owen, in which I find the following: "There is not one" (Sunday school) "throughout Marion and Linn counties to my knowledge, outside of Salem, and I am acquainted with the greatest portion of these counties." I have no doubt from Mr. Owen's letter he will be glad to learn that he is mistaken. We have a Sunday school on French Prairie, at Oakland school-house, sixteen miles north of Salem, near the road to Oregon City, with a library of over seven hundred volumes. Our school has not been supended a single Sabbath during this unusually bad winter.—This is not all we have here. We have a literary society of about forty members, which has connected with it a library which cost some five hundred dollars. And still again: we are going to build the ensuing summer a two-story house, 34 by 54. The lower story for a Cumberland Presbyterian church, and the upper story for a district and high school. We sincerely hope Mr. Owen will make in his way to call and see how we are trying to do things here, and lend us a little needful aid in our religious and literary enterprise.

NEILL JOHNSON.

EDITOR OF THE ARGUS: Allow me very briefly to reply to your correspondent M. P. Owen, so far as his remarks refer to me personally. He says: "One Lear has been so goaded by the narration of stubborn facts penned by Xenittie, that he has undertaken to defend himself by—what? good argument? No; he could find no argument—so he resorted to ridicule and burlesque, after the manner of Czapkay's Agent at Salem." I wish to inform Mr. Owen that Lear is neither a husband, a widower, nor a man divorced, but simply a bachelor; and consequently Xenittie's 'stubborn facts' could have no such effect on him as Mr. Owen supposes. Lear has also the misfortune of being the last member of a large family, and therefore cannot be guilty of not attending properly to his mother and sisters; consequently Xenittie's remarks did not apply to him; and therefore he had no occasion to 'defend himself' at all; and therefore Mr. Owen is in error: Q. E. D. I hope this approaches so near an argument as to satisfy even the fastidious critic Mr. Owen. As to Lear's 'arguments,' I have only to say that Lear honestly tries to meet argument with argument; not otherwise. This may serve to show Mr. Owen why Lear does not examine and answer his late article in the Argus at greater length. When Lear ascertains that Mr. Owen is capable of committing slander, he will perhaps prosecute him for the defamation implied in being compared to Czapkay's Agent.

Mr. Owen, in a postscript, expresses a desire to know the names of the 'male writers for the Argus, if they are not ashamed of their productions.' I am not ashamed of my productions, or of my name; but I will suggest to Mr. Owen a reason for not obliging him with my name, which I think will be entirely new to him. Some men there are who have not the vanity of being known as authors of newspaper articles.—Such is the case with Lear; but whenever he is satisfied that Mr. Owen or any one else has any business with his name, it shall be forthcoming. As I know no one who is a 'champion for the farther oppression and degradation of woman,' I can not indulge Mr. Owen with any further notice. LEAR.

Clackamas Republican Convention.

There will be a meeting of the Republicans of Clackamas county at the Court-house on Saturday, April 9, at one o'clock P. M., for the purpose of choosing five delegates to represent this county in the general convention to be held in Salem April 21, as also to transact such other business as may come before the convention. All such citizens as have patriotism enough to love their country, respect the constitution, cling to the Union, desire a wholesome Government, who regard freedom as national and slavery as sectional, and who are opposed to the Administration and the Salem clique, are most respectfully invited to participate in the meeting. Let no lukewarmness deter any man from coming. The gathering storm of sectional rage, political fanaticism, disunionism, and national bankruptcy, evoked by the party falsely called Democratic, ought to stir up an enthusiasm in the breast of every patriot that will result in immediate and determined action. Come along, friends, and let us have a rousing convention.

W. L. ADAMS,
J. S. RINEARSON,
C. W. BRYANT,
Co. Com.

Benton County.

There will be a mass meeting of the Republicans, and those opposed to the present administration, held at the court-house in Corvallis on Saturday, the 9th of April, at 1 o'clock P. The friends of the cause are urgently requested to attend.

Washington County.

There will be a convention of the Republicans of Washington county at Hill-boro on Saturday, April 2, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Territorial convention, and to transact such other business as may be brought before the convention. It is extremely desirous to have a full attendance. All persons opposed to the present Administration are requested to meet with us.

The committee would recommend as a basis of representation that each precinct send one delegate, and an additional one for every twenty-five voters.

WM. H. BENNETT,
A. HILL, Rep. Co. Com.

Linn County.

There will be a mass Republican convention of Linn county held at Albany on Friday, April 15, for the purpose of selecting six delegates to attend the Territorial convention to be held at Salem April 21, and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may come before the convention.

Republicans of Polk.

There will be a convention of the Republicans of Polk county on Saturday, April 16, 1859, at Dallas, to nominate county candidates and appoint delegates to the Territorial convention, etc. It is recommended that precinct meetings be held on Friday, April 15, for appointing delegates to the county convention, and that each precinct be entitled to five delegates. By order of the county committee. WM. W. BOONE, Ch'n.

Yamhill.

The Republicans of Yamhill county, and all those opposed to the present Administration and the domination of the Salem clique, will have a meeting at the court-house in Lafayette on Tuesday, March 29, 1859, to choose delegates to the Republican convention at Salem April 21. Turn out, and let us have a full attendance!

Republican Mass Convention.

The Republican county committee of Marion county deem it expedient to call a mass meeting of the Republicans and all others of the county who repudiate the present Administration, at the court-house in Salem, on Saturday, April 16, to nominate candidates for county officers, and appoint delegates to the Territorial convention.

W. WARREN, Ch'n.

Clatsop Co. Republican Mass Meeting.

The electors of Clatsop county, who are in favor of the great cardinal principles of the Republican party, the non-extension of slavery, as opposed to the great overshadowing dogma of the Democratic party—the universal extension of slavery, even against the sovereign will of the people, as exemplified in the decision of the Dred Scott case, and in the Lecompton Kansas policy of the present administration—are requested to meet in mass meeting, at the Court House in Astoria, on Saturday, the 9th of April, 1859, at 1 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of electing a delegate to the Territorial Republican convention, to be held at Salem on Thursday the 21st day of April, 1859, for the purpose of nominating a delegate to Congress, and a Territorial Prison Inspector, to be elected at the ensuing June election. Other business of the nature of more fully organizing the party may be transacted.

SALT.—The most extraordinary chemical discovery of modern times is the Antiphlogistic Salt. It acts upon the blood precisely in the same manner as the vaccine matter operates in the prevention of malignant diseases. It cures only diseases which are inflammatory in their nature.—First, inflammation of the head and throat, such as brain fever, fits, headache, neuralgia, erysipelas, and catarrh. Second, cases of inflammation in the chest and abdomen, viz.: inflamed lungs and liver, pleurisy, dyspepsia, asthma, gravel, piles, &c. Third, inflammation of the extremities and skin, to wit: rheumatism, scrofula, ulcers, scarlet fever, venereal and cutaneous affections. This chemical combination is so powerful and instantaneous in its effects, that the dose is only what will adhere to a quill dipped in the Salt and held to the tongue for one minute. The most astounding results have invariably followed its use in the Atlantic States, and thousands of testimonials as to its virtues can be furnished, if required. The proprietor asks not, however, for Faith, but is willing to let the Salt abide by its works, confident that it will never fail. It is put up in drachm packages, price Two Dollars, and will be forwarded by mail, post paid, to any part of the country, upon receipt of that sum, addressed to REDINGTON & CO., San Francisco. Full directions accompany each package. As soon as a sufficient supply can be obtained, it will be for sale by Druggists generally.—F. Coggswell, M. D., discoverer and proprietor.—Sole Agents for California and Oregon, REDINGTON & Co., Wholesale Druggists, San Francisco. DR. A. H. STEELE Agent for Oregon City.

Rheumatism.

In all cases of Inflammatory Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, the Antiphlogistic Salt, discovered by Dr. F. Coggswell, of Boston, is a sure and infallible result. In New England, where this disease is very prevalent, the Salt has never been known to fail in effecting a radical cure, and of giving permanent relief. Rheumatism is almost invariably caused by inflammation and colds, and the peculiar effect of this medicine, as its name (Ant phlogistic or Anti-inflammatory) signifies, is to reduce inflammation, and balance the circulation of the blood, and the fluids of the body. It does not profess to be a grand panacea, but is calculated expressly for all diseases of an inflammatory nature, and is thus a perfect substitute for blood-letting in all its forms. It is for sale by all Druggists. General Agents, REDINGTON & Co., Wholesale Druggists, San Francisco.

Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh.

These diseases, and others of a similar character, caused by colds and inflammation, yield readily and certainly to the effects of the Antiphlogistic Salt. It is peculiarly beneficial in all diseases of this nature, as they are invarably caused by a tendency of blood to the head and throat, and the certain result of the use of this medical salt is to reduce inflammation and equalize the circulation of the fluids of the body. It is also remarkably efficacious in all inflamatory diseases of the chest and abdomen, such as Piles, Gravel, Venereal, Dyspepsia, Pleurisy, &c. No better evidence of the value of this medicine can be given than the fact that, although it is now two years since it was first offered to the public, the discoverer has been able to answer but a small portion of his orders, and it is only within the last two months that it could be obtained at any price in this State. For sale by all Druggists. General Agents, REDINGTON & Co., Wholesale Druggists, San Francisco. Agent for Oregon City, DR. A. H. STEELE. 47m3
