NOR TO LABOR .- Two men I honor, man, that with earth-made implement is, sale ted with the greatest care (as to prices and borio. It commers the earth, and manes her man's. Venerable to me is the hard hand-crooked, coarse--wherein, notwith standing, lies a cunning virtue, indefeasibly royal, as of the scepter of this planet. A second man I honor, and attl more highhim who is seen toiling for the spirit ually indispensable, not daily bread, but the bread of life. These two, in all their degrees, I honor; all else is chaff and dust, which let the wind blow wherever it listeth .- Carlyle.

THE CHARITY OF SPEECH -Can a higher compliment be paid to a man than to say he speaks ill of no one? And is any man better spoken of by all than him who never opens his mouth to the detriment of his fellow-creatures! And does any one in the long run live more happile than he? The charity of a much almost surpasses that of giving: the latter, even if it be the widow's mite, is rewarded by the feeling the donor experiences, but the former waits for its reward. The impulse that prompts one to look kindly upon his brother's sins of omission or commission, even while li 'no as he would if he were dead; that prompts to suppress all mention of the evil within him, and readily to reknowledge his good traits; to speak of men with the sama delicacy as of women; to remember there is no existing creature without some redeeming trait—this topulse is one of the noblest that actuates the mind and dwells within the heart.

How MUCH SHE IS BELOVED .- Such were the words that escaped the lips of a woman in speaking of another woman yesterday. Well, the secret of her being so is, that she drops sweet words and pleasant smiles as she passes along -she hate kind word of sympathy for every person she meets in trouble, and a disposi tion to help them out of difficulty-she take the friendless by the hand, sympathizea will those in affliction, and everywhere diffuses around her sunshine and joy. Dr. Doddridge one day asked his little girl why it was that overybody loved her. 'I know not,' the replied, 'unless it is that I love erybody.' She was truly a little phi-

READING THE BIBLE .- I will answer for it, the longer you read the Bible, the more you will like it; it will grow sweeter and awreter; and the more you get hate !! spirit of Christ .- Romaine.

Beautiful things are suggestive of and higher life, and fill us with mingred love and fear. They have a graciousnee that wins us, and an excellence to which we involunturily do reverence

An exchange paper, under the head of Good Advice, advises you men to wrap themselves up in their virtue. A cotemporary well says: 'Many of them would freeze to death next winter if they had no Dry-Goods,

True friends are like true diamondsscarce and precious. False ones, like the leaves of the forest-without number.

A PANACEA .- To make people quiet, just give them what they want. If a damsel loves, it shows that she wants to be loved in return-love her. If folks are hungry, give them chops, brown stout, beef and plum pudding. If they want cash, hand it out, If they are blue, flood them lory, 'picter books,' sunshine, and lke. What though the sun in beauty shine, And you have countless hourds of wealth; What though the world—all, all was thine. If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal To all with bad or failing health.

A RE you languid, inammate, resiless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the items-body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwritingly or, in seven cases out of hea, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, india retion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unheat-thy part of this climate—many of the awful, vio-ient, and such in deaths that occur here must be attributed to the. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure thes causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefit-ed by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dys pepsia, or indigestion, loss of causenter or bodil strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; theumatic, neuralgo, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium troin constant intemperance, and where delifium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufficer is half an hour from the most horible state to calmness and placidity.
