No paper discontinued until all arrearages are paid, unless at the option of the publisher.

Summer Laurines. Ah! my heart is ever waiting, Waiting for the May— Waiting for the pleasant rambles, Where the pleasant hawthern brambles, With the woodb ne alternating, Scent the dewy May.

Ah! my heart is weary waiting,
Waiting for the May. Ah! my heart is sick with longing,
Longing for the May—
Longing to escape from study,
To the young face fair and ruddy,
And the thousand charms belonging

To the summer day!

Ah! my heart is sick with longing,

Longing for the May. Ah! my heart is sore with sighing, Sighing for the May—
Sighing for the sure returning,
When the summer beams are burning,
Hopes and flowers that, dead or dying,
All the winter lay.
Ah! my heart is sore with sighing,
Sighing for the May. Ah! my heart is sore with sighing,

Ah! my heart is pained with throbbing, Throbbing for the May— Throbbing for the sea-side billows, Or the waters-wooing willows, Where in laughing and in sobbing Glides the stream away.

Ah! my heart, my heart is throbbing,
Throbbing for the May.

> For the Argue. Mr. Logan.

- Dublin University Magazine.

MR. EDITOR: The nomination of Mr.

Logan was not declared unanimous by the Republican convention, as per statement of the minutes published. My vote to the contrary was perhaps mistaken for the 'no' of some 'outsider,' as I was in the back part of the room. I correct the error for the reasons which appear: 1st, If votes are good for anything, they should be correctly counted, whether given judiciously or not. 2d. At times, nominations are, no doubt, declared unanimous in consequence of the reluctant silence of some, and the hearty approbation of others, who vote with a view to policy and personal advancement by the same means. Believing this to be so, I will the more promptly vote my sentiments on such occasions. I voted against Mr. Logan's nomination because I thought his Republicanism doubtful, and his acceptance of the platform dictated by the prospect of office. Under these impresslons, I also decided to vote against him at the coming election, or stay at home, where my vote would not stand recorded against my sense of duty. If any one thinks such a thought treasonable to Republicanism. the answer is, I owe nothing to the Republican party; the party owes nothing to me. We all owe service to the country .-Party should be used as a means, and not regarded as an end. So long as a convention keeps within the limit indement pro scribes as the proper range of duty, so long will I abide the decision of the same, whether I have my choice or not. But I differ slightly from a friend who said to some of the delegates on the 20th, 'Whatever you fellows do to-morrow, I will agree to.' Such a pledge is rather know-nothing in its character, because given to support platform and candidate about which he could have said 'I know nothing, except by

3d. Mr. Coffin of Portland and Dr. McBride inform me that Mr. Logan is a man of decided political character-that he is too much of a man to deceive community by taking a false position for the sake of office. Others, personally acquainted with him, say as much. As I now have before me a Mr. Logan more nearly allied to the lofty character of Logan the Mingo Chief, who would not turn upon his heel to save his life, it becomes my duty to support him-to make him strong, and 'Stout' weak.

inference.'

4th. I suggest to the State committee and the several county committees that they invite, in behalf of Republicans, all those persons who are known to be sound and espable to canvass the State, or such parts it to the attention of the faculty, and gave of it and at such times as may contribute most to forwarding the Republican cause. There are numbers of persons, no doubt, who would willingly assist in calling out the minds of the people, were they properly invited to do so; as few modest persons wish to be accused of working to attain political notoriety. Let none be invited for mere courtesy: that spoils the practical value of any measure. I suggest a few names: Pengra, Holbrook, Adams, Starkweather, W. C. Johnson, Applegate, Dr. M'Bride, Hare, Curry, Denny, Davenport, J. R. M'Bride. Respectfully,

C. HOEL. P. S .- Some of these months, after the election, I intend to offer a better way of nominating candidates-one that will more clearly indicate the wishes of the whole people of any party, than by the common

SALEM, April 27, 1859.

"Plain," says Punch, "is the stronger word in the feminine vocabulary to express ill looks. Some think it mild, but it is powerfully shough delicately expressive. That which is plain aspicuous. It meaus, therefore, remarkably
A lady never calls a bull-dog plain, or a
m. That would be too severs."

"Wonderful things are done now-a-days," aid Mr. Timmins. "The doctor has given lick's boy a new lip taken from his cheek!"

"Ah!" said the old lady, "many's the time I have known a pair taken from mine, and no very

The Oregon Argus.

-A Weekly Newspaper, devoted to the Interests of the Laboring Classes, and advocating the side of Truth in every issue-

VOL. V.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, MAY 7, 1859.

Mr. Botts' New York Speech.

The very elaborate and able speech of Hon. John Minor Botts, of Virginia, in New York a few days ago, is deservedly attracting the attention of political circles throughout the North and East. political circles throughout the North and East.

More heed is given to his opinions and positions from the fact that it is understood that he is the mouth-piece of the able and influential, if not numerous, party to which he belongs-the Whig-American party of the South and Southwest. He American party of the South and Southwest. He is supposed to re-echo the views of such men as Crittenden of Kentucky, Bell of Tennessee, Rayner of South Carolina, and less distinguished but hardly less powerful leaders in the organizations of the past, as well as the views of journals like the Richmond Whig, the Louisville Journal, and the St. Louis Evening News-influential exponents of South—that everissing slavery question—might make his way easy and his triumph certain. The North will demand of him and his co-laborers, if we understand the position of Northern Republicans, the following: 1. An admission of the power of Congress over there is, by virtue of the Constitution, and in defi-ance or lack of local law, property in man.

These points conceded, the union which Mr.
Botts desires is easy. They embody all the prine ples to which the anti-slavery, anti-Democratic feeling of the North has, since the subsidence of the wild excitement raised by the repeal of the Missouri Compromes, fallen back. They carry us back to the days in which the North and South, Whigs and Democrats, were substantially united in their views of the proper political treatment of this slavery question—to a time anterior to the rise of the pernicious heresies by which the North rise of the permicious necesses by which the Countries and South have been drawn asynder, and the integrity of the Republic seriously threatened. The principles which once commanded the devotion of Virginia and Kentucky, and which have given renown to their most emment statesmen and patriots, may be re-established in those States. The fires kindled by Jefferson and Ciay may be made to burn up a ew and g ve light to the path and hope to the hearts of tens of thousands who now, iscouraged, group their way in the dark.

Mr. Botts will find that at the North conservatism is the center of the R-publican organization. We do not misrepresent the principles of our party friends of the Northwest when we say they will meet h m in the kindly and patriot espirit in which he approaches the Republicans of the East. They new States into the Union, it their constitutions of the Party; 7, It is an Extravagant, rupt Party; 7, It is an Extravagant, hey may contain.

Republicanism will demand no more, concede no more, than what we have indicated above, for union and victory. If Mr. Botts and those who think with him are content with the terms, his journey North will not be fruitless. But if he and they indulge the hope that Republicans are pre-pured to forego their cherished convictions on a question which in importance transcends all mere easures, and patch up a bargain on a commercia or monetary basis, Mr. Botts is wasting his breath. by either a Tariff or a Bank, or both.—Chicago

Specific for Removing the Tape Worm. -The Boston Journal says: We have been requested to publish the following specific of the worst ills that the human system is subjected to. The names, residences, &c ... of a number of persons who have been cured by its use have been communicated to us, together with the peculiar circumstances of each case, but we do not deem it essential to publish them. There can be no reasonable doubt, with the evidence before us, that the remedy has proved efficacious in This is the Dred Scott Decision." many cases, not only in this, but other countries. The recipe was published in the Boston Medical and Surgical Jonrnal when that periodical was under the control of Dr. J. V. C. Smith, who repeatedly commended publicity to instances where the specific had produced the desired effect. In all the cases communicated to us but a single apbeen necessary, although some remarkable

"Procure sufficient seed of the pumpkin and add half a pint of water; pound them up well and make a liquid orgeat of them, which strain through a cloth. Drink this mixture in the morning on a fasting stomach. If it does not operate in the course of an 000,000. The State debt is $4,150,000. hour and a half, take an ounce of castor oil. Drink all the time as much fresh, cool water drench yourself with water. After taking the orgeat, if the stomach is well rubbed with ether, and an injection of about sixty drops is taken, you will find it an assistant to the orgent, but this may not be necessa- the money was claimed, it was refused, on ry. Should the first application of the rem- the ground that a husband could have no edy not answer, repeat it the next morning, insurable property interest in the life of and there is no doubt your complaint will be removed. The worm will leave the patient all at once, and probably entire. This was a mere bet-a gambling transaction, can be ascertained by finding the small end and as such illegal and void. The company point." It has been found that the seeds of the marrow squash answer the purpose nearly The loss in fruit trees in Illinois as well as those of the pumpkin. They were within the last three years is estimated at So with entire success.

tions were continued in Italy.

WAR PROSPECTS .- The Paris correspondent of the New York Courrier des Etats Unis recently wrote to that journal as folpoleon III. will command in person the principal body of the army; this is one of wishes also to show that he has inherited his military genius. A Bonaparte ought No one wanted war yesterday, everybody will wish it to-morrow."

cratic party: "1, It is essentially a Disungle,' we must say-"Gentlemen, it can't be cessful. he approaches the reputational assurances, will give him and the world assurances,

I. That they will not be parties to any attempt to deprive the South of any constitutional right

Purty, having one aspect at the North and ion Party; 2, It is a Disorganizing, De-did!" Party, having one aspect at the North and Wasteful Party." The address takes strong ground against the Cuba scheme and the re-opening of the African slave trade, and does not indulge in any reflections upon the opposition party at the North.

PRO-SLAVERY PROGRESS .- The Albany

cal advance of slavery in this country; the slavetrader, 'Thus far you may go, but farther.' This was the Jeffersonian Proviso. Thirty years ago they rubbed mise. Five years ago, they rubbed out the flag shall protect you, and the national troops shoot down whoever resists you.' of the inferior schools.

population of 538,000 persons. There are Hon. Silas Wright at his house in Canton, and in grazing 1,159,813 acres. The leave on the Sabbath. Mr. Wright, alplication of the remedy appears to have past year. The crop of wheat for the year situation ought to set a better example 1858 is set down at 3,568,669 bushels, and than to travel on the Sabbath." cures were effected. The recipe is as fol- that of barley at 5,382,717 bushels. This is 218,798 more bushels of barley than the amount raised in the whole Union in 1850, (those in the West Indies are the best) to according to the census. Three hundred make two ounces after removing the outside and eighty-five thousand gallons of wine shell of the seed; put them into a mortar and ten thousand gallons of brandy were made a law that no person shall serve oft- jurisdiction of the wife in New York, and manufactured in the State last year. The ener than once a year upon a jury. gold yield in 1858 was $65,550,000, and the total yield since the discovery, $600,-

SINGULAR DEFENCE.-A Life Insurance wife for the benefit of her husband, and continued for five years to receive the premium therefor. When the wife died, and his wife, and that such a policy, therefore, or head of it, which tapers off almost to a evidently did not believe that gambling debts were debts of honor.

as well as those of the pumpkin. They were within the last three years is estimated at some area of used in a recent case at Plymouth, Mass., about $3,000,000. The retentive nature of "Oh," she replied, in utter innocease, so the entire success.

[A clay subsoil is supposed to be the cause.]

Hoops .- Every now and then we notice We have dates from Liverpool to the 5th a paragraph going the rounds of the press, New York Courier and Enquirer, the exof March. The war question remains un- announcing on the authority of some pud- ports from that city for the first eight altered in aspect. The French government ding-headed correspondent, who avers that months of the present fiscal year, exclusive organs are getting more belligerent, but he gets his information from the best and of specie, were $35,000,000, while the imwarlike preparations at Marseilles are most authentic source, that Eugenie, the ports were $129,000,000-an excess of somewhat relaxed. From Austria it is an- Empress of the French, and consequently uinety-four millions at one port in eight evidence; nounced that the Emperor had become de the head and front of the fashionable world, months. Well does the editor ask: terminedly warlike, and embittered against from whose prolific and ingenious brain terminedly warlike, and embittered against from whose prolific and ingenious brain emanate the edicts by which woman is governed, has officially and formally discarded tons were continued in Italy.

"If we do have good crops, can such an enormous expenditure of the 'vitals' of the country, namely, capital and raw material at low prices, be continually made for the St. Lous Even in News-influential exponents of the political opinions of the day. The speech is to be treated as an overture of the minority party of the South—the opposition, no matter how designated—to the majority, the Republicans of the North, for a union by which the Democracy may be disposed of the power in the nation which it has a valuaciously abused. The pivet upon which Mr. Botts turns toward his would-be Northern allies, is his inextinguishable hatred of the Sham Democracy, which blares out in every paragraph of his lengthy harangue. With that, and with the conviction which most enlightened men share with h.m. that there must be a speedy change in the management of our national affairs, or an end of our attempt at self-government, he comes before a Northern audience, and indirectly, though not in terms, asks their co-operation in the work of national regeneration which he proposes to commence. Mr. Botts, with less obscurity on that vared subject which divides the North from the North from the St. Louis Even in the work of national regeneration which most enlightened men share with hard and with the conviction which most enlightened men share with h.m. that there must be a speedy change in the management of our national affairs, or an end of our attempt at self-government, he comes before a four attempt at the war. The Austrian army in Italy that there never was as much the restent and the war and the richest as a natural result, the kingdom of crinoline is about to collapse. Now, we do not propose to collapse the wearing of hoops, and that as a natural and it is doubtful whether the redoubtable as will be raised. But never had we as consort of the Empress, backed by his half many idle nonproducers, never before did million of gen d'armes could reduce the re-volted divinities to their primitive skeleton dimensions. If Eugenie has done anything Il. A concession of the power of Congress over all the Territories.

Il. A concession of the right of the majority in Congress, when fairly constituted, to exercise its power in any way not meanistent with the constituted a high office in the Palace of the Tuileries tut onal rights of the North or South.

Ill. A denial of the Dred Scott dogma, that the constituted is said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries and the Crimoline is said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emperitude in the Palace of the Tuileries said to me: 'The resolution of the Emp place in a month or two at the latest. Nathe presiding goddess can be accused. That neatness and rotundity of figure, so pleas- Two years ago two splendid locomotives his aspirations, the oldest and most ardent. He has already shown that he possesses withal—to say nothing of the convenience, the genius of his uncle as a politician; he under numerous circumstances, which the Mason & Co., in this town, for the Alexaninstitution of crinoline affords-cannot be dria and Suez Railroad, in Egypt. The to be a soldier. The determination of the abolished without shocking the feelings of Pasha, who is President, Director, Stock-Emperor is well known, and matters are so every man and woman of taste in the civil- holder, and something else of his own road. far advanced that all opposition is hence- ized world. The result of such an order also ordered two engines of English couforth abandoned as useless and dangerous. from headquarters, so momentous in its con-struction, and Yankee and English engin-

TURKISH FEMALE SCHOOLS .- Quite a The Minister of Public Instruction, some time back, presented to the Sultan a complete system of education for males, in which were introduced a number of ameliorations adopted from European establishments. At present, the Minister's attention has been directed to the education of girls, and Journal thus gives the essence of the politi- he has proposed to extend very considerably the range of instruction given to females in "Seventy years ago the Democrats Turkey, as a preparatory step towards the drew a line around the States, and said to intellectual emancipation of the Mussulman women. The Sultan has given orders to have the proposed plan carried into execuout part of the line and said to him, 'You tion with as little delay as possible, so that for eradicating the tape worm, which is one may go into lands south, but not into lands henceforward Turkish girls will not only This was the Missouri Compro-learn all the works executed with the neerest of the line, and said to him. "We will dle, but reading, writing, arithmetic, geogleave it to the settlers to decide whether you raphy, and history. In each of the 13 secshall come in or not.' This was the Ne- tions of the Turkish capital, six primary braska Bill. Now they turn humbly to schools are to be established at once; and him, hat in hand, and say, 'Go where you at a later period, one superior establishment in each section, to complete the education RESPONSIBILITY OF PUBLIC MEN. -- Mr California .- According to the Govern- Van Buren, formerly President of the or's Message, the State of California has a United States, was at one time visiting 756,734 acres of land under cultivation, New York, and had made up his mind to sheep in the State number 650,000; horses though not a professor of religion, urged 43,000, cattle 120,000. The export of him to stay over the Sabbath and attend hides was over half a million of dollars the church with him, adding, "Men in your

HON. JOHN BELL.-This distinguished citizen of Tennessee was sixty-three years of age on the 18th of February last.

The Legislature of Illinois has

In Italy, a lover at a ball places two fingers on his mouth, which signifies to the lady 'You are very handsome, and I wish to speak to you.' If she touches her check with her fan, and lets it gently drop, that signifies, 'I consent'; but if she turn her head, it is a denial. At a ball in Paris, as the stomach can bear or contain; that is, Company of New York insured the life of a to take a lady out to dance with her, is only in difference; to place yourself near her, is interest; but to follow her with your eyes in the dance, is > man—perhaps more so, because it is not so ekly beating and elastic—and its emotions sold be treated with due respect. Young ladies should not tamper with it any more than men with theirs. True—nor would they, if man did not them. True—nor would they, if man did not first set the example. This is so much the fashion of the day, and deception so much abroad, that the sex hardly know whom to trust.

Bill Tompkins says that "a wilder is married woman as has got no husband, kos dead; a widower is a man as runs after

(3 A young man kiming a pretty girl, down

OUR FOREIGN TRADE .- According to the AMERICAN LOCOMOTIVES TRIUMPHANT .sequences, and so dubious in its results, can-eers went out to run their respective manot be anticipated without a shudder. We chines. The rivalry has not been trifling, KENTUCKY POLITICS.—The Opposition hope those gentlemen who write from Paris but the result is another triumph for Jon-State convention, held at Louisville on the will say no more about the abomination of athan. The English engineers, through 22d February, adopted an address and res- hoops. Crinoline, like truth and cheese, is their Consul, undertook to flatter their olutions, very spirited, but very fair and mighty and will prevail. In the words of patrons, and to disparage Yankee workjudicious. The former amplifies the fol- a distinguished Western orator, in clipping manship, and tried every method to get rid of lowing charges against the modern Demo- the wings of the everlasting "Merican ea- their competitors. At first they were suc-

The Americans were told by the railroad company that their engines were not going the she may possess.

Party, having one aspect at the North and I. That they will carry out for her benefit all another at the South; 4, It is a party with progressive step has been taken by the north and progressive step has been ta II. That they will carry out for her benefit all obligations which the Constitution imposes.

III. That they will carry out for her benefit all another at the South; 4, It is a party with obligations which the Constitution imposes.

III. That they will carry out for her benefit all another at the South; 4, It is a party with obligations which the Constitution imposes.

III. That they will carry out for her benefit all another at the South; 4, It is a party with no Common Policy or Fixed Principles; and seem taken by the Sultan of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough to haul the heavy trains. One of the object of the sultant of the cause for hauling them one of the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough to haul the heavy trains. One of the object of the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough to haul the heavy trains. One of the object of the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough to have the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough to have the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough to have the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough to have the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and that they were not strong enough the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and the sultant of Turkey. He has ordered a reorganization of the Turkish schools, and the sultant of Turkey. The sultant of Turkey is the sultant of Turkey. The sultant of Turkey provision be made for the education of girls. to haul the heavy trains. One of the abjured whatever he was called upon to abto speak with the Pasha, told him he could haul as many loaded cars as would reach from one end of the road to the other. Accordingly, seventy-five heavily loaded cars, which was all they could muster, were put in a train, the Pasha's own car attached. and the whole taken through to Suez-a distance of two hundred miles-in twelve hours, making stoppages for fuel and water. The Pasha exclaimed in Egyptian-" God is great, but a Yankee is very near perfection!" On his return he discharged the English engine drivers, and now uses Taunton engines altogether .- Taunton Gazette.

Out of one hundred and twentythree thousand, five hundred and forty-seven children between the ages of ave and fifteen years, in the city of New York, forty-one thousand eight hundred and ninety-eight, more than one-third of the whole number, go to no school, public or private, and receive no sort of education but that received in the streets.

The Courier de Lyone says that a few days ago people crowded to the railroad station to see two enormous wagons belonging to Mr. Lees Wilson, of New York, and containing a complete assortment of ancient and modern instruments of execution, which this American has taken it into his head to collect in his travels, and among the rest, the first guilotine that appeared in Paris in the year 1793.

DIVORCES .- Judge Davies, of New York. has decided that Indiana divorces, in which the wife had no opportunity to be heard, are not to be regarded as legal in other States. The court in Indiana never had its proceedings in regard to her were deemed to be void. We think this is quite right, and we hope it will put a check upon the If shameful proceedings constantly taking place in regard to divorces obtained in distant States

VERMONT .- A Vermont paper says: There is but one city in the State, and not soldier. We have no police, and no murder has been committed within the State during the past ten years. We have no museums or crystal palaces, but we have homes, for which the father works, votes and talks-where the mother rears men, scholars, and patriots."

SOUND JUDGHENT .-- Lord Burleigh, a great English statesman of the time of Queen Elizabeth, used to say, "I never will trust any man whose religious principles are not sound; for he that is false to God can never be true to man.'

True worth, like a rose, will blush

ADVERTISING RATES. " two insertions, 4,00 Each subsequent insertion, 1,00 Reasonable deductions to those who advertise by

JOB PRINTING. THE PROPRIETOR OF THE ARGUS IS HAPPY to inform the public that he has just received a large stock of JOB TYPE and other new printing material, and will be in the speedy receipt o additions suited to all the requirements of this ke-cality. HANDBILLS, POSTERS, BLANKS, CARDS, CIRCULARS, PAMPHLET-WORK and other kinds, done to order, on short notice.

NEWTON AND THE FALLING OF THE APPLE. Biot, the French scientific writer, in his Melanges, lately published in Paris, gives countenance to this story, which Brewster rejects. A writer in Blackwood, for December, reviewing Biot, thus notices the "Except as a biographical anecdote, it is utterly indifferent whether the story be true or mythical; for it is quite clear that the fall of ten thousand apples could have led to no discovery of gravitation, unless observed by a mind already so prepared to make the discovery, that any falling body would have served as a starting point. But is it true? Dr. Brewster declared that the circumstance was not mentioned by Dr. Stukeley nor by Conduit, and that 'no authority could be found for it.' In his review of this work, M. Biot replied that Pemberton positively said it was in this very garden, where the apple tree stood, that the idea occurred to Newton, and that Conduit expressly says the idea of gravitation 'was hit upon by observing an apple falling from a tree.' One would imagine this was authenticity enough, especially as Dr. Brewster claims Conduit's silence among his chief reasons for denying the story; yet, after Conduit had been cited by M. Biot expressly in favor of this story, Sir David, in his recent biography, sticks to his incredulity, and furnishes this very equivocal evidence: 'Neither Pemberton nor Whiston, who received from Newton himself the history of his first ideas of gravity, records the story of the falling apple.' Perhaps not; he might have thought it beneath his gravity to mention such a detail. But his niece told the story, and Conduit told it. We think, on such testimony, it may be accepted, and rhetoricians may still refer without misgiving, if also without much eloquent effect, to 'Newton and the falling apple."

"AND YET THE EARTH DOES MOVE!" or Galileo.-The same reviewer, discussing Biot's critical account of Galileo's ca-

" If the lovers of rhetoric have had their commonplace about Newton and the apple restored to them by M. Biot, they lose forever the still more famous e pur si mnove—
'and yet the earth does move,' of the silenced but not persuaded heretic; and they lose all pretext for considering Galileo among the martyrs of science. The epigram, e pur si muore, is one of those mote de circonstance, invented after the occasion, which tradition eagerly adopts because it so admirably expresses the general sentiment; but as M. Biot remarks, not only is this epigram mentioned by none of the best informed contemporaries, it is also in flagrant contradiction to the whole demeanor of He offered to prove that he had never held the doctrine of the mobility of the earth, and declared himself ready to show, by fresh arguments, the error of that doctrine. In the final examination, when asked if he now held, or had ever held, the doctrine, he replied, 'Formerly, before the decision of the Church, I remained indifferent between the two doctrines of Copernicus and Ptolemy, both seeming disputable, because both might be true; but since the Church has decided, all ambiguity has disappeared from my mind, and I have maintained, as I now maintain, the doctrine of Ptolemy respecting the immobility of the earth and the mobility of the sun to be true and indisputable.' We may pity Galileo, and find ample excuses for him. man aged seventy is in the presence of the Inquisition, knowing that a formal retraction is all that is demanded of him, and that his refusal will be punished by torture, he may be excused for descending even to such transparent falshood to escape so odious and terrible an enemy, but he cannot be made a hero; a martyr showing such reluctance to martyrdom is surely a strange spectacle."

A BOLITION OF THE GRAND JURY IN MICH-IGAN.—The Detroit Free Press says the act providing for the trial of criminals by information goes into effect sixty days after Feb. 12, at which time it became a law .-This law virtually abolishes the Grand Jury, which has so long exercised its inquisitorial functions, reserving for the Circuit Judge power to call it into session whenever special cases need its aid. All cases are to be examined before a justice of the peace, and by him committed directly to the higher courts, instead of for indictment as has previously been done.

Iron, nearly pure, has been discovered in Texas, about twenty miles west ef McKinney. It admits of a fine polish, and it is supposed will yield about 90 per cent. of pure metal.

The fact that the name of Franklin Pierce is suggested as a probable nominee of the Charleston Convention is the severest comment on Buchanan's administration that could be imagined, says Prentice.

A Long Countship.-Married, in Iredell county, N. C., by Jacob Fraley, Esq., on the 20th of January last, after a close courtship of 23 years, Mr. Reulea Bas-bour and Miss Sarah Thompson, beta aged about 60 years.

Socrates, being silent in company, was requested to join in the conversation He replied, "What I know, would be improper here; and what would be proper here, of that I am ignorant."

He who knows how to study and be silent, to harden himself against his faults and how to all events, to believe his heart and distrust his eyes, knows how to