Reflected on the lake, I love
To see the stars of evening glow,
So tranquil in the heavens above,
So resites in the wave below.
Thus heavenly hope is all serene,
But earthly hope, how bright soe'er,
Still fluctuates o'er the passing scene,
As false and flexing as "lis fair. -Bishop Heber

MINOR MORALS .- By their Petite Morale the French mean politeness, and that has its place in a Christian home. The cordial desire to please, a sensitive shrinking from whatever would hurt or offend, and similar things, tend to sweeten all the intercourse of life. Parents should artend to them with care as the inlets of much home happiness, and where they are negleated the Savior's truth has not free course in a household. If politeness be morality in little things, and if life be commonly made of such things, no more is needed to show how much our happiness depends upon them. The kindliest, purest pature will cultivate this habit with greatest care, and the Word of God contains the principle which should guide us here as in all beside -it teaches each to esteem others better then himself.

THE LOVE OF STRIFE,-I never love those salamanders that are never well but when they are in the fire of contention. I will rather suffer a thousand wrongs than offer one. I will rather suffer a hundred than inflict one. I will suffer many ere I will complain of one, and endeavor to right it by contending. I have ever found that to strive with my superior is furious; with my equal, doubtful; with my inferior, sordid and base; with any, full of unquietness. -Bishop Hall.

How to GET RID OF SUNDAY VISITORS .--The editor of the Louisville Presbyterian Herald, in reply to a subscriber who inquires how he should prevent young men from calling to see his daughters on Sunday, says:

"Call your daughters in and make them recite the Catechism, and politely invite their visitors to come and see how well they can do it. In a month you will not be any more approved in that way."

FORGIVE, TO BE FORGIVEN -Of him that hopes to be forgiven, it is indispensably required that he forgive. It is therefore superfluous to urge any other motive. On this great duty eternity is suspended; and to him that refuses to practice it, the throne of mercy is inaccessible, and the Savior of the world was born in vain.

ger One man falls by his ambition, another by his perfidy, a third by his avarice, and a fourth by his lusts. What are these but so many nets, watched, indeed, y the fowler, but woven by the victim.

Re We cannot all of us be beautiful but the pleasantness of a good-humored look is denied to none. We can all of us iderense and strengthen the family affec-

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

PROSPECTUS. VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS

SEPT 11, 1859. MECHANICS, INVENTORS,

Manufacturers, and Farmers. THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstruse work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical science; ical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make, any substance employed in his business—if the house-wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—If the manufac-turer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war-all these desiderate can be found in the Scien-TIPIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art. BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFIER, Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countloss hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine.
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal! To all with bad or failing health.

A RE you languid, inanmate, restless, appetite poor, digestion had, and pains in the limbs back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscre-tion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unheal-thy part of this climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental an bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its oxtraordinary qualities in euring any of the following diseases, must soisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dysan out the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dys-pepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; forer, ague, or chills; theomatic, neuraline or extension rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debils; from discuse, dissipation, too much doctoring, de-bauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientisusly recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is neces-sary thus to advertise ii, in order that its merits may be known.
