

For the Argus.
Mr. Editor: Although not believing that editors of newspapers ought to know everything, I have no doubt, nevertheless, that you can afford me and others such information as will oblige me under the following circumstances:
Let us suppose that a citizen had settled on a quantity of land in this State sufficient for his purpose, and in accordance with the donation law, to wit, filed his notification in due time, lived on his claim and improved it during four successive years, made final proof, &c., and is now desirous of obtaining his patent from Washington, and goes to the Land Office, but finds on inquiry there that, before forwarding the necessary papers, it is indispensable that the claim of his next neighbors be surveyed in consequence of a misunderstanding about the boundary between them. This survey, however, the said neighbor peremptorily refuses to have made.
Now, Mr. Editor, this is exactly my case. I would, therefore, feel grateful to you for any or such information as may enable me to obtain my patent for my land according to law, and not have me subjected to annoying delays arising only from the capriciousness or delinquencies of others.
Yours, &c.
We would refer "Civis" to some lawyer, who will probably advise him as to the proper course to pursue.
It's a great pleasure to be alone—especially when you have your sweet-heart with you.

To Political Rogues.
Office-holders, stand under,
For the people are awake,
Long enough you've lived by plunder,
Now the "Union" is at stake.
Delazon, he joined the slaves,
So that he could lead the clan:
If he stoop to gain such favors,
He is not the people's man.
In convention, by their scheming,
"Lame men" nominated Stout;
But the people are not dreaming,
They have found the business out.
They expected L. F. Grover,
Fittest one to lead the van;
Politicians tread him over,
'Cause he was an honest man.
Now the party's gone to Texas,
Rent by vile intestine bug;
'Tis enough, I'm sure, to vex us,
Fighting thus about the spade.
And to think, with all their striving—
'Tis the truth, though spoke in rhyme,
Honest men by votes depriving—
Rogues get office every time.

Lyon's Magnetic Powders, or Flea Powder,
Will destroy Garden Fleas, Cockroaches, Bed-Bugs, Flies, Ants, Moths, and all vermin pests of the vermin kind.
The importance of a reliable article of this kind is inestimable. In warm weather all nature teems with these annoying foes. This powder is the only article ever discovered which will exterminate them. A company of botanists, from the Horticultural Society of Paris, while amidst the ferns of Asia, observed that all insects lighting upon a certain kind of plant very soon dropped dead.—This fact was made use of to guard their night camp from these intruders. Quantities of the plant were brought home by Mr. E. Lyon, and found a positive insect destroyer in every experiment. It is simply a powdered leaf, chemically prepared to resist the effect of age and climate.—Medals and Letters Patent have been obtained from the governments of England, France, Germany and Russia, from the World's Fair, and numerous medical and horticultural colleges and societies.
Letter from the President of the United States.
"EXECUTIVE MANSION, WASHINGTON, 31st Jan. 1853.
Mr. E. Lyon.—Dear Sir: I have the pleasure to inform you that the Royal Commission of the World's Fair, at London, have awarded you a Medal and Certificate for the great value of your Magnetic Powders, &c."
MILLARD FILLMORE, Chm.
The above was accompanied by a certificate of Prince Albert.
IT IS FREE FROM POISON.
New York, October 1, 1848
Enmanuel Lyon, Dear Sir:—We have analyzed and tested your Magnetic Powders, and find them perfectly harmless to mankind and domestic animals, but certain death when inhaled by bugs, ants and insects.
J. R. CULTON, M. D., Chemist,
L. Reno, Prof. Chemistry, N. Y. Hospital.
Mr. John L. Rome, Superintendent of the N. Y. Hospital, says "he has expelled all the bugs, ants, roaches, moths, &c., with Lyon's Powder, and find it of immense value."
Every gardener and housekeeper must have a direct interest in an article of this kind. Reference can be made to the Astor, St. Nicholas, and Metropolitan Hotels; to Judge Meigs, President of the American Institute; James Gordon Bennett, Gen. Winfield Scott, Cyrus W. Field, L. M. Pease, of the Five Points Number, &c., &c.—Judge Meigs says, "This discovery of Prof. Lyon is of national importance. The Farmers' Club have tested it thoroughly. It will destroy locusts, grasshoppers, ants, moths, bugs, and all vermin. Garden plants can be preserved, and houses made pure."
Rats and mice cannot be reached by a powder, and are killed by a MAGNETIC PILL. Order them through any merchant.
The Lyon's Powder kills insects in a trice, but Lyon's Pills are mixed for rats and mice. Follow directions. Use freely and thoroughly.
