True prayer is not the noisy sound That classes selected for the deep silence of a soul
That classes Jehovah's feet.

— Mes. Sigourney.

WE'LL ALL MEET AGAIN IN THE MOR-NING. - Such was the exclamation of a dying child, says the New York Mercury, as the red rays of the sunset streamed on him through the casement. "Good bye, papa, good bye! Mamma has come for me tonight; don't ery, papa! we'll all meet in the morning! It was as if an angel had spoken to that father, and his heart grew lighter under the burden; for something assured him that his little one had gone to him who said "Suffer little children to come unto me, for of such is the kingdom of There is something cheerful and inspiring to all who are in trouble in this, " We'll meet again in the morning." It rouses up the fainting soul like a trumpet blast, and frightens away forever the dark shades thronging the avenues of purer life. Clouds may gather upon our paths-disappointments gather around us like an army with banners, but all this cannot destroy the hope within us, if we have this motto upon our lips: "All will be right in the and edging, hosiery, &c. morning."

Time. - What a blessed order of nature it is that the footsteps of time are inaudible, and noiseless, and that the seasons of life, like those of the year, are so indistinguishably brought on in the gentle progression, are so blended, the one with the other, that the human being scarcely knows, except from a faint and unpleasant sensation, that he is growing old.

So day steals into night through the crimson curtains of twilight. So the goldon gates of dawn awing around noiseless as the portals of heaven. Even the heat of the earth is muffled, that we may not know how fast it struggles out. From the building of the oak to the rolling of the world, there is no clink of the machinery. There is no noise save the helpless waves, or the rent air groaning with the lightning's bolt, or now and then the play of volcano's valves, or the puny cries of insects or of men in all this world of ours. The past is dumb—the future is silent, and the pres-ent makes but a slight ripple, like the trailing of a steamer on a quiet sea.

WHAT A WOMAN IS WORTH .- A woman is either worth a great deal, or nothing. If good for nothing, she is not worth getting jealous for; if a true woman, she will give no cause for jealousy. A man is a brute to be jealous of a good woman—a fool to NEWFIRM: double fool to cut his throat for either of

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN. PROSPECTUS.

VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS SEPT. 11, 1859. MECHANICS, INVENTORS.

Manufacturers, and Farmers.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation is all the States of the Union. It is not, as some in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstrase work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the house-wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c ,-if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements-if the manufacon in the way of improvements—if the minume-turer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, construction of telegraphs, steamship railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art. TERMS:-One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $1; ten cop-

BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFIER, Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine, And you have countloss hoards of wealth; What though the world—all, all was thine. If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal! To all with bad or failing health. RE you languid, inammate, restless, appetite A RE you tangua, mandatte, resitess, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscre-tion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unheal-thy part of this climate—many of the awful, vio-lent, and sudd a deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefit-ed by and certified to its oxtraordinary qualities in enring any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wase and ignorant skeptic-dys-pepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or boddy strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or child; the matter, neuralgue, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debanchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscentiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is necessary thus to odvertise ii, in order that its merits may be known.

Intemperance and Debauchery,

OF THE FUNCTIONS, NER-VOUSNESS, WEAKNESS, CONSTIPATION,

WAKEFULNESS AND EXHAUSTION: Dr. Webber's Sanguister is a divine remedy. See affidavits & certificates.

A case of Chills. Ague Tremors, general debility & ill health soon cured. Mr. Uriah Weeks, who arrived from Pauama March 2d, completely prostrate, weak, and scarce-ly able to move; had the Panama fever three months; had pains in the bones, chills, no appetite, strength or energy; he used Webber's Contial two weeks, and felt so strong and well that on the 17th he went to the mines, where he is now working.

SARSAPARILLA AND BITTER DRINKERS, READ! DEER STR. AND GOOD FRIEND .- I berewith inform you that I have taken in seven months over sixty bottles of Sarsspardia, Bitters, and other remedies for confirmed Dyspepsia, Weakness of the chest, indigestion, and a general feebleness of my system, without getting any particular relief.— Two bottles of your Cordial have benefitted me so much that I am a different being. Please to send two bottles more, which I feel sure will effect a perfect cure. If this will benefit you or the afflicted, you are at liberty to publish it.
