THE IMPORTANCE OF LIFE.-The importance of this life as a season of probation steadily increases as we come in sight of the end, and see a vast eternity not far before us. The interests at stake grow larger and larger. Those things which ordinarily occupy the attention of mankind dwindle almost to nothing. The earth, as it moves in its orbit from year to year, maintains its distance of ninety-five millions of miles from the sun; and the sun, except when seen through a hazy atmosphere, at its rising or its setting, seems at all times to be of the same magnitude-to human view an object always small, as compared with our own world. But suppose the earth should leave its orbit, and make its way in a direct line toward the sun. How soon would the sun seem to enlarge its dimensions! How vast and bright would it become! How soon would it fill the whole field of vision, and all on the earth dwindle to nothing! So homan life now appears to me. In earlier years eternity appeared distant, and small in importance. But at the period of life which I have now reached, it seems to me as if the earth had left the orbit of its annual movements, and was making a rapid and direct flight to the sun. The objects of eternity, towards which I am moving, rapidly enlarge themselves. They have be come overpoweringly bright and grand. They fill the whole field of vision, and the earth, with all which is the common object of human ambition and pursuit, is retiring in the distance, vanishing away .- Albert Barnes' Sermon on Life at trhree score

DISOBEDIENCE TO PARENTS .- The parents of young Crowningshield, who mur-dered a venerable citizen of Salem, ordered his teacher never to correct him. A man acquainted with Spencer, who was executed on board the Somers, says, "he was al-ways disobedient to his parents." The biographer of Arnold, the traitor, says, "he was headstrong, disobedient, and often painfully wounded a mother's heart." fifth commandment makes honoring parents the condition of continuing long in the land, or long a prosperous nation. To save the Jewish commonwealth, the disobedient were to be killed off by this law: "If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that when they have chastised him, will not hearken unto them -then shall his father and mother lay hold on him and bring him out unto the elders of the city. And all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die; so shalt thou put evil away from among you."

THE HYPOCRISY OF DAILY LIFE .- Mr. Brown called in at a neighbor's and was urged to take supper, which he did, the old lady all the while saying : "Iam afraid, Mr. Brown, you will not make out a supper; you have eaten nothing -do cat some more,"

After he had stepped out he heard the old lady say to her husband ;

Why I do declare, I should think Mr. Brown had not eaten anything for a month.'

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS SEPT. 11, 1859.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS,

Manufacturers, and Farmers. THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its fitle, a dry, abstruse work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechan-ical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business-if the ho vife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand othe machines and appliances, both of peace and war-all these desiderate can be found in the Scien-TIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFIER, Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countloss hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine.
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal! To all with bad or failing health.

RE you languid, inanomate, restless, appetite A po r. digestion bad, and pains in the limbs body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscre-tion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unheal-thy part of this climate—many of the awful, vio-, and sudd-n deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives and brains—it strengthens the herves, and pro-to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefit-ed by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wee and ignorant skeptic—dys-pepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or hodily strength and mental energy; force, ague, or chills rength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debuity from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, de-banchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirum tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placedity. It can, indeed. be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is neces-sary thus to advertise ii, in order that its merits may be known. KEEP always on hand STEEL PLOWS. Intemperance and Debauchery, DECLINE OF NATURE, PREMA-
