

The Grain of Musk. I dropped a single grain of musk. A moment in my room; When years rolled by the chamber still Retained the same perfume. So every deed approved of God, Where'er its lot be cast, Leaves some good influence behind That shall forever last.

JOHN NEWTON IN HIS OLD AGE.—I have now almost reached my seventy-third yearly milestone; what dangers have I escaped or been brought through! If my heart would jump to be within three miles of you, why does it not jump from morning till night, to think that I am probably within three years of seeing the Lamb upon the throne, and joining in the praise of the blessed spirits of the redeemed, who behold him without a veil or a cloud, and are filled with his glory and love!

REUNION IN HEAVEN.—"I am fully persuaded," says Baxter, "that I shall love my friends in heaven, and therefore know them; and this principally binds me to them on earth. If I thought I should never know them more, nor love them after death, I should love them comparatively little now, as I do all other transitory things."

The following were the last words of Bishop Doane:

"I die in the faith of the Son of God, and the confidence of His One Catholic Church. I have no merits—no man has; but my trust is in the mercy of Jesus."

A Great many people gain credit for wisdom on the ground of what they never say, who shake their heads doubtfully, and say with a wise air: "There's a great deal to be said on both sides of the question,"—and possess the reputation for judgment because they never give judgment.—Bishop Clarke.

If the sun is going down, look up to the stars; if the earth is dark, keep your eyes on heaven. With God's presence and God's promises, a man may be cheerful.

A FINE THOUGHT.—A Greek poet implies that the height of bliss is the sudden relief of pain. There is a nobler bliss still, the rapture of the conscience at the sudden release from a guilty thought.—Baker Linton.

Youth is a glorious invention—while the girls chase the hours, and you chase the girls, the months seem to dance away with you upon their feet. What a pity our summer is so short. Before you know it, lovers become deacons, and romps, mothers.

Women have more power in their looks than men have in their laws; and more power in their tears than men have in their judgments.

"Mary, my love," said a not very attentive husband to his wife, at the dinner table, "shall I help you to a piece of the heart?" "I believe," said she, "that a piece of a heart was all that I ever had."

A pretty girl and a wild horse are liable to do much mischief; for the one runs away with a fellow's body, and the other runs away with his heart.

PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS
SEPT. 11, 1859.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS,
Manufacturers, and Farmers.
THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstract work on theoretical science; on the contrary, it deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any part of his machinery, or how to improve his substance employed in his business,—if the housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements,—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business,—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, railroads, telegraphs, steamships, machines and appliances, both of science and art, and all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form adapted to the comprehension of minds untrained in the higher branches of science and art.

TERMS.—One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $1; ten copies, six months, $1; ten copies, twelve months, $15;

BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFER,
Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine,
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal!

To all with bad or failing health.
Are you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscretion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthful part of this climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brain—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful.

My respectable friends who have been benefitted by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, most satisfy all but the self-doubt, and ignorant sceptic—bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium
