A Prayer.

Help me to bear, my Father! lift me up
Above the snares that compass! If my cup
Should prove a draught of bitter, and the way be rough
Thou choosest I should go in,—'tis enough
That Thy love ordereth;—let it be for me
The cup to drink, the way to walk in cheerfully.

THANKFULNESS.—My honest scholar, to incline you the more to thankfulness, let me tell you that, although the prophet David was guilty of many deadly sins, yet he was said to be a man after God's own heart, because he abounded more in thankfulness than any other that is mentioned in Holy Scripture, as may appear in his book of Psalms, where there is such a commixture of his confessing of his sins and unworthiness, and such thankfulness for God's pardon and mercies, as did make him to be accounted even by God himself to be a man after his own heart. I will tell you, scholar, that I have heard a grave divine say that God has two dwellings—one in heaven, and the other in a meek and thankful heart.—Walton.

THE DIVINE HUMANITY.—We find the Son the pattern of our humanity. His bosom was to mankind what the ocean is to the world. The ocean has its own mighty tide, but it receives and responds to, in exact proportion, the tidal influences of every estuary and river and small creek which pours into its bosom. So in Christ; his bosom is heaved with the tides of our humanity; but every separate sorrow, pain, and joy gave its pulsation, and received back influences from the sea of his being.—Robertson.

SINFUL HABITS.—Be not too slow in the breaking of a sinful custom; a quick, courageous resolution is better than a gradual deliberation; in such a combat he is the bravest soldier that lays about him without fear or wit. Wit pleads; fear disheartens; he that would kill Hydra had better strike off one neck than five heads; fell the tree and the branches are soon cut off.—Quarles.

A FATALIST.—A Western paper publishes the following: "I knew an old man who believed that 'what was to be would be.' He lived in a region infested by very savage Indians. He always took his gun with him, but this time found that some of his family had taken it out. As he would not go without it, his friends tantalized him by saying there was no danger of the Indians; that he would not die till his time came any how. 'Yes,' says the old fellow, 'but suppose I was to meet an Indian and his time was come, it wouldn't do not to have my gun.'"

☞ "Woman, lovely woman," said Brown, "what is the world without woman? Yes, if there were no women in the world we should all be miserable! They are the primeval cause of all happiness!" "No doubt," put in that cynic Robinson, "for they are the prime evil themselves."

AGRICULTURAL.—It is exceedingly bad husbandry to harrow up the feelings of your wife.

☞ A beautiful woman is like a great truth or a great happiness, and has no more right to cover herself with a green veil, or any similar abomination, than the sun has to wear green spectacles.

☞ As perfume is to the rose, so is good nature to the lovely.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.
THE ORIGINAL AND GENUINE ARTICLE,
EVERYWHERE CELEBRATED
FOR THE REMOVAL AND PERMANENT CURE OF ALL DISEASES ARISING FROM AN IMPURE STATE OF THE BLOOD, OR HABIT OF THE SYSTEM.

Since the first introduction of this Medicine, numerous imitations have sprung into existence, founding their claims to the confidence of the community on the curative powers contained in Sarsaparilla Root, the great reputation and extended use of which has been mainly attributable to the many wonderful cures effected by the Use of this Preparation.

While Sarsaparilla Root forms an important part of its combination, it is, at the same time, compounded with other vegetable remedies of great power, and it is on the peculiar combination and scientific manner of its preparation, that its remarkable success in the cure of disease depends. Other preparations imitate it in the style of putting up, and in bearing the name of one of its ingredients, and here ends their resemblance to it. Those needing a remedy and purifier like this, are requested to note where this difference exists, and in making choice of what they will use, not to take any other but that one entitled to their confidence, from the long list of cures it has effected.

MEDICAL TESTIMONY.

CANESTEOR, Md., Oct. 5th, 1858.

MESSRS. SANDS: Gentlemen,—My little daughter was afflicted for a long time with Sore Head and Eyes, and by using your Sarsaparilla was perfectly cured, other medicines and Sarsaparillas having failed to relieve her. Having used it and tested its efficacy, I now confidently recommend it in preference to any other, as it seems to possess properties not contained in any other preparation; and I find that purchasers, after they have used it, invariably want the same article again, whenever they require a medicine for which this is recommended.

Respectfully yours, J. FLINT, M.D.

Prepared and sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, No. 100 Fulton-street, corner of William, New York.

ROMAN EYE BALSAM,

For Weak and Inflamed Eyes.

This Balsam was used for many years in the private practice of a celebrated Oculist with the greatest success, in cases where the

EYELIDS ARE INFLAMED,

or the ball of the Eye thickly covered with blood, it acts almost like magic, and removes all appearances of inflammation after two or three applications. There is a numerous class of persons that are peculiarly exposed to accidents or diseases that weaken and inflame the Eyes, and perhaps destroy the sight, such as

MINERS, MECHANICS,

and other operatives in metals, who, from the nature of their employments, are compelled to work in a cloud of dust and grit. Such should never be without this Balsam.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS SEPT. 11, 1859.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS,
Manufacturers, and Farmers.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstruse work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.

TERMS:—One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $4; ten copies, six months, $8; ten copies, twelve months, $15; fifteen copies, twelve months, $22; twenty copies, twelve months, $28, in advance.

Specimen copies sent gratuitously for inspection. Postage stamps taken for subscriptions.

BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFIER,
Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine.
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal!

To all with bad or failing health.

ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscretion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthy part of this climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is necessary thus to advertise it, in order that its merits may be known.

Intemperance and Debauchery,
Constitutional Weakness, &c.,
DECLINE OF NATURE, PREMATURE OR NATURAL WEAKNESS OF THE FUNCTIONS, NERVOUSNESS, WEAKNESS, CONSTIPATION, WAKEFULNESS AND EXHAUSTION:
Dr. Webber's Sanguifier is a divine remedy. See affidavits & certificates.

A case of Chills, Ague Tremors, general debility & ill health soon cured.

Mr. Uriah Weeks, who arrived from Panama March 2d, completely prostrate, weak, and scarcely able to move; had the Panama fever three months; had pains in the bones, chills, no appetite, strength or energy; he used Webber's Cordial two weeks, and felt so strong and well that on the 17th he went to the mines, where he is now working.

SARSAPARILLA AND BITTER DRINKERS, READ!

DEER SIR, AND GOOD FRIEND.—I herewith inform you that I have taken in seven months over sixty bottles of Sarsaparilla, Bitters, and other remedies for confirmed Dyspepsia, Weakness of the chest, indigestion, and a general feebleness of my system, without getting any particular relief.—Two bottles of your Cordial have benefitted me so much that I am a different being. Please to send two bottles more, which I feel sure will effect a perfect cure. If this will benefit you or the afflicted, you are at liberty to publish it.
