

LONG AGO.
BY JOHN Z. PIATT.
Thought for the soul a lovely Heaven awaits Through years of woe—
The Paradise with angels in the gates
In Long Ago.
'Tis the Heart's Heaven; thither winging ever In silence go Vanishing faces—angels dying never
In Long Ago.
Tolling through desert sands to reach to-morrow With footsteps slow—Sweet buried Days! immortal gleams ye borrow
In Long Ago.
The world is dark. Behind, our thoughts are Our eyes o'erflow:
Sweet Memories, angels to our tears returning, Leave Long Ago.
We climb: Child-rosses to our knees are climbing From valleys low:
To call us back, sweet birds and brooks are rhyming
In Long Ago.
Hands clasped, tears shed, and songs are sung: the
The loved ones go To Paradise through angel-gates of air—
The Long Ago.
—Louisville Journal.

GRATITUDE.—Perhaps in nothing does sin show its odiousness more than in unthankfulness for mercies. In this respect how guilty are we all! In commenting on the twenty-third psalm, Calvin says it is "worthy of particular notice, that although David lived upon his own lands, the tribute money, and other revenues of the kingdom, he gave thanks to God, just as if God had daily given him his food with his own hands." So ought it to be with us all. It is good to give thanks always. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord.
No man is living without his mercies. God has rich benefits in store for the thankful.
Their state of mind is itself an unpeakable mercy. We sympathize with the old Baptist minister who finished his thanksgiving with the words, "Blessed be God that we are not in hell." If men were more grateful for what they have, they would have more to be grateful for.—N. Y. Observer.

RESURRECTION.—As for the resurrection of the dead, I do not conceive it so very contrary to the analogy of nature, when I behold vegetables left to rot in the earth, rise up again with new life and vigor; or a worm, to all appearance dead, change its nature, and that, which in its first being crawled on the earth, become a new species, and fly abroad with wings.—Berkley.

If a man all his life long should do no other good thing than educate his child right in the fear of God, then I think this may be an atonement for his neglect. The greatest work which thou canst do is this —that thou educatest thy child well.— Luther.

A week filled with selfishness, and the Sabbath stuffed full of religious exercises, will make a good Pharisee, but a poor Christian. There are many people who think Sunday is a sponge with which to wipe out the sins of the week.—Beecher.

To one who said, "I do not believe there is an honest man in the world," another replied, "It is quite possible that one man should know all the world, but quite possible that one may know himself."

Flattery is a sort of bad money, to which our vanity gives currency.

NEW GOODS:
New Attraction!
E. LA FOREST
WOULD inform the citizens of Oregon City and vicinity that he is intending a general supply of everything in the CLOTHING,
Dry-Goods,
Grocery, Crockery, and Fancy line, and will be happy to see his old friends call upon him, and will promise at all times to sell them goods as cheap as any other house in town, his motto being Small Profits and Quick Returns.

We would also say to the WOMEN OF THE COUNTRY, (the town and shew of the land), we intend keeping everything you may require in the Grocery, Crockery, Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoe line, etc., which we offer at such prices as will be satisfactory to you. We also wish to exchange our goods for your produce, and will give you as much for it as the market affords. Come and try us.
Do not forget the place, but look for the sign of La Forest & Bacon, and then come in.

Ladies (God Bless You!) When you wish a superior article of dress goods or fancy articles, do not fail to call upon La Forest & Bacon, where you will always find them, and will receive their grateful thanks for your patronage.

Young Men,

ROMAN EYE BALSM,
For Weak and Inflamed Eyes.
This Balsam was used for many years in the private practice of a celebrated oculist with the greatest success, in cases where the EYELIDS ARE INFLAMED, or the lids of the eye thickly covered with blood, it acts almost like magic, and restores all appearances of inflammation after two or three applications. There is no doubt that persons that are peculiarly exposed to accidents of disease that weaken and inflame the eyes, and perhaps destroy the sight, should use this Balsam, and other operations in such cases, from the nature of the disease, and the nature of the Balsam, it is a dust and oil. Such should never be without this Balsam.
Prepared and sold by A. R. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, No. 120 Fulton-st., New York.
For sale by DEWEY, KITTLE & CO., San Francisco; RICE

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFER, Or Invigorating Cordial.
What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine, If you but want the blessing, Health.

In Honest Appeal!
To all with bad or falling health.
ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indifference in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness of the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthy part of this climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brain—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatism, neuralgia, or other pains; depletion from disease, disipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excellent from constant intemperance, and whose delirious tremors has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is necessary thus to advertise it, in order that its merits may be known.

Intemperance and Debauchery, Constitutional Weakness, &c., DECLINE OF NATURE, PREMA-TURE OR NATURAL WEAKNESS OF THE FUNCTIONS, NER-VOUSNESS, WEAKNESS, CONSTIPATION,
WAKEFULNESS AND EXHAUSTION;
Dr. Webber's Sanguifer is a divine remedy. See affidavits & certificates.

A case of Chills, Ague Tremors, general debility & ill health soon cured.
Mr. Ulrich Weiler, who arrived from Panama March 2d, completely prostrate, weak, and scarcely able to move; had the Panama fever three months; had pains in the loins, chills, no appetite, strength or energy; he used Webber's Cordial two weeks, and felt so strong and well that on the 17th he went to the mines, where he is now working.

SARSAPARILLA AND BITTER DRINKERS, READ!
DEER STEA, AND GOOD FRIENDS!—I herewith inform you that I have taken in seven months over sixty bottles of Sarsaparilla, Bitters, and other remedies for confirmed Dyspepsia, Weakness of the chest, indigestion, and a general feebleness of my system, without getting any particular relief—Two bottles of your Cordial have benefited me so much that I am a different being. Please to send me two bottles more, which I feel sure will effect a perfect cure. If this will benefit you or the afflicted, you are at liberty to publish it.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS
SEPT. 11, 1859.
MECHANICS, INVENTORS, Manufacturers, and Farmers.
THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon its fifteenth on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some mistake suppose from its title, a treatise on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and staid wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical, laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and warfare, these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.
Texas.—One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $4; ten copies, six months, $8; ten copies, twelve months, $15; fifteen copies, twelve months, $22; twenty copies, twelve months, $28, in advance.
Specimen copies sent gratuitously for inspection.
Postage stamps taken for subscriptions.
Letters should be directed to MUNN & CO.,
