And so the baby came,
A thing of joy and pain. -Providence Journal.

CROSS WORDS .- " Oh," said a little girl, bursting into tears upon hearing the death of a playmate, "I did not know that was the last time I had to speak kind to Amy." The last time they were together she spoke cross to her, and the thought of that last cross word now lay heavy on her heart. This suggests a good rule about kind words. Speak kindly to your father, or your mother, or your brother, or your sister, or your playmate, or your teacher, or the poor, when you are speaking to them, lest it may be your last time to speak to them. Cross words are very, very sorrowful to think of .- Child's Paper.

Prayer is the rustling of the wings of the angels that are on their way bringing as the boons of heaven. Have you heard prayer in your heart! You shall see the angel in your house. When the chariots that bring us blessing do rumble, their wheels do sound with prayer. We hear the prayer in our own spirits, and that prayer becomes the taken of the coming blessings. Even as the cloud foreshadow. eth rain, so prayer foreshadoweth the blessing; even as the green blade is the beginning of the harvest, so is prayer the proph--Spurgeon.

RENUNCIATION OF SIN .- If thou wouldst be justified, acknowledge thy injustice; he that confesses his sin begins his journey to salvation; he that is sorry for it mends his pace ; he that forsakes it is at his journey's end .- Enchiridion.

The soul gains truth only in experiencing, or conscious living. All experiand the highest truth must be a matter of experience.

Man regards as eternity-first the present hour, then his youth, then his life, then his century, then the duration of the earth, then that of heaven, and finally,

Charlie, my dear," said a loving mother to her hopeful son just budded into breeches, "Charlie, my dear, come here and get some candy." "I guess I wen't mind it now, mother," replied Charlie, "I've got in some tobacco."

An old Dutch tavern keeper, who had his third wife, thus expressed his views of matrimony: "Vell, you see, the first time I married for love-dat was goot; den I marries for beauty-dat was goot, about as goot as the first; dis time I marries for money-and dis is better as both.'

Since the first introduction of this Medicine, numerous initiations have apring into existence, founding their claims to the confidence of the community on the curative powers contained in Sarayastrila Root, the great reputation and extended use of which has been mainly attributable to the many wonderful curse offected by the Use of this Preparation.

While Sarsparilla Root forms an important part of its combination, it is, at the same time, compounded with other vegetable remedies of great power, and it is on the peculiar combination and selentific manner of its preparation, that its remarkable success in the cure of disease depends. Other preparations imitate it is the style of putting up, and in bearing the name of one of its ingredients, and here ends their resemblance to it. Those needing a remedy and purifier like this, are requested to note where this difference exists, and in making choice of what they will use, not to take any other but that one entitled to their condidence, from the long list of cures it has effected. Meera. Saxes: Gentlemen.—My little daughter was afflicted for a beng time with Sore Head and Expe. and the using your Sansaparilla was perfectly cured, other medicines and Sarsaparilla having failed to relieve her. Having used B and tested its efficacy, I now confidently recommend it in preference to any other, as it seems to possess properties not contained in any other preparation; and I had that purchasers, after they have used it invariably want the same article again, whenever they require a inclicine for which this is recommended.

It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstrass work on the states of the Union. technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechan-ical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the house-wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—If the manufac-turer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, with the progress made in the chemical aboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the Science. Tiric American, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.

BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFIER. Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine. And you have countloss boards of wealth; What though the world—all, all was thine. If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal! To all with bad or failing health. RE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, dy, back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscretion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the use or took and drink, or from a dry-ness in the atmosphere—which is a very unheat-thy part of this climate—many of the awful, vio-lent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its oxtraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy ed by and certified to its oxtraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dys-pepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgie, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from ducase, dissipation, too much doctoring, de-bauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can indeed state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is neces-sary thus to udvertise ii, in order that its merits may be known.
