THE METAMORPHOMIS Meid, choosing man, remember this:
You take his nature with his name,
Ask, too, what his religion is,
Fer you will soon be of the same.

VALUE OF THE SCRIPTURES .- As the beauty of the world is set off by a graceful variety, so it is in the Scriptures. There are sublime truths that the most aspiring reason of man cannot overstep; and there are more plain and easy truths, on which the weakest capacity may converse with delight and satisfaction. No man is offend-ed with his garden for having a shady thicket in it; no more should we be offend ed with the word of God, that among so many fair and open walks we here and there meet with a thicket that the eye of human reason cannot look through .-Bishop Hopkins.

THE SABBATH .- This is the loveliest, brightest day of the week to a spiritual mind. These rests refresh the soul in God, that finds nothing but turmoil in the creature. Should not this day be welcome to the soul, that sets it free to mind its own business, which has other days to attend to the business of its servant the body ! And these are a certain pledge to it of the expected freedom which it shall enter on an eternal Sabbath and rest in Him forever who is the only rest of the soul .- Leighton.

WELL-SPENT TIME .- Spend your time in nothing which must be repeated of. Spend it in nothing on which you might not pray for the blessing of God. Spend it in nothing which you could not review with a quiet conscience on your dying bed. Spend it in nothing which you might not safely and properly be found doing, if death should surprise you in the act .- Baxter.

WATCHFULNESS .- When we are alone we have our thoughts to watch; in our family, our tempers; in company, our tengues. It should be our endeavor to ilfustrate our devotions in the morning by action during the day .- H. More.

CHRISTIAN CONDUCT.-Let your religion be impressive by its consistency, and attractive by its amiableness. Hold forth the word of truth in your lives as well as in your language, and by your tempers as well as your tongues .- Jay.

Lo The piety which is faithful in that which is least, is really a more difficult pion high eccasions. It requires less piety to be a martyr for Christ, than it does to look upon the success of a rival without envy, or even to maintain a perfect and guileless integrity in the common transac-tions of life.—Horace Bushnell.

When God contemplates some great work, he begins it by the hand of some poor, weak, human creature, to whom he afterwards gives aid, so that the enemies who seek to obstruct it are overcome .-Luther.

Pius Quintus expired uttering the language of despair: "When I was in a low condition I had some hopes of salvation ; when I was advanced to be a cardinal, I greatly doubted; but since I came to the Popedom I have no hope at all."-Flavel.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS.

Manufacturers, and Farmers. THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstrase work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or arisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the house. substance employed in his business—if the house-wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, dec,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderate can be found in the Scientific American, and not electrice. BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFIER, Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless heards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine.
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal! To all with bad or failing health.

A RE you languid, inaumate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body, back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or, in seven cases out of hen, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscre-tion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unheal-thy part of this climate—many of the awful, vio-lent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its oxtraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bedily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, toe much doctoring, de-bauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is neces-sary thus to udvertise ii, in order that its merits
