

Epiaph.
Bold infidelity, turn pale, and die!
Beneath this stone four sleeping infants lie:
Say—are they lost or saved?
If death by sin, they slumber, for they are here:
If heaven's by works, in heaven they can't appear.
Ah, reason, how depraved!
Revere the Bible's sacred page—the knot untied:
They died, for Adam sinned—they live, for Jesus died!

NOBLE CONSISTENCY.—When Algernon Sydney was told that he might save his life by telling a falsehood—by denying his handwriting—he said: "When God has brought me into a dilemma in which I must assert a lie or lose my life, he gives me clear indication of my duty, which is to prefer death to falsehood."

THE DAILY LIFE.—For my part, I am not so much troubled about my future state as about my present character in the sight of a holy and heart-searching God. To live a holy, self-denying life, I conceive to be of the first importance. It is by the daily lives of Christians that Christ is either honored or dishonored.—Martha Whiting.

PRAYER.—Prayer draws all the Christian graces into its focus. It draws Charity with her lovely train, Repentance with her holy sorrows, Faith with her elevated eyes, Hope with her grasped anchor, Benevolence with her open hands, Zeal looking far and wide to bless, and Humility looking low.—Hannah More.

THE GRATITUDE AND REVENGE.—Time is good and faithful friend, but a most revengeful and remorseless enemy. Like a deep-felling and love-desiring human heart, it treasures up a grateful memory of kindness and good service, and is sure, sooner or later, to make payment with the addition of compound interest. But for every instance of neglect or abuse it takes certain and terrible vengeance; and none who incur its anger can escape its punishment, for, like death, time is inexorable.

Kind words are looked upon like jewels on the breast, never to be forgotten, and perhaps to cheer by their memory a long, and life; while words of cruelty or carelessness are like swords in the bosom, wounding and leaving scars which will be borne to the grave by their victim. Do you think there is any bruised heart which bears the mark of such a wound from you? If there is a living one which you have wounded, hasten to heal it; for life is short—to-morrow may be too late.

HATING PEOPLE.—Hannah More said to Horace Walpole, "If I wanted to punish an enemy it should be by fastening on him the trouble of constantly hating somebody."

TIME AND ETERNITY.—There are two words which should take up much of our thoughts and cares, TIME and ETERNITY; time, because it will soon be at an end; and eternity, because it will never come to an end.—Erskine.

Persons who are always cheerful and good humored are very useful in the world; they maintain peace and happiness, and spread a thankful temper amongst all who live around them.

There is but one man who can be free himself from envy, and it is he who has never examined his own heart.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS
SEPT. 11, 1859.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS,
Manufacturers, and Farmers.
THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstract work on technical science; on the contrary, it deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTI-FIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unaccustomed to the higher branches of science and art.
TERMS:—One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $4; ten copies, six months, $8; ten copies, twelve months, $15; fifteen copies, twelve months, $22; twenty copies, twelve months, $28, in advance.

BEFORE AND AFTER USING
DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFER,
Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hours of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine,
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal!
To all with bad or failing health.

ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body, back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, inseretion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthful part of this climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The most respectable persons who have been benefited and cured by this extraordinary quality in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills, rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is necessary thus to advertise it, in order that its merits may be known.

17th he went to the mines, where he is now working.

SARSAPARILLA AND BITTER
DRINKERS, READ!
DEER SIR, AND GOOD FRIEND:—I herewith inform you that I have taken in seven months over sixty bottles of Sarsaparilla, Bitters, and other remedies for confirmed Dyspepsia, Weakness of the chest, indigestion, and a general feebleness of my system, without getting any particular relief—Two bottles of your Cordial have benefited me so much that I am a different being. Please to send two bottles more, which I feel sure will effect a perfect cure. If this will benefit you or the afflicted, you are at liberty to publish it.
Frederic Lockie, House Painter
