SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS SEPT. 11, 1859.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS,
Manufacturers, and Farmers.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstract work on technical science; on the contrary, it deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial world, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the house-wisher wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here contained in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.

TERMS—One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $4; ten copies, six months, $8; ten copies, twelve months, $15; fifteen copies, twelve months, $22; twenty copies, twelve months, $28, in advance.

Specimen copies sent gratuitously for inspection. Postage stamps taken for subscription. Letters should be directed to MEN & CO., 125 Fulton St., New York.
