

At Eve.
Low hang the folds of darkening clouds,
With wind and moving forms,
And from each cloudy minstrel Descends the voice of storms.
But midst the darkness there are rents,
Through which the sun is gleaming,
And in life's shadows there are rifts Through which God's love is beaming.

A CHRISTIAN'S EXPERIENCE.—When Dr. Marshall was a young man and at home, he was frequently the subject of doubts and fears. On his return from India, after nearly thirty years' residence and labor there, Wm. Jay said to him, "Well, doctor, how about the doubts and fears?" "Haven't had time for them," was the answer.

PRAYER.—A good author says, with a quaintness which has a touch of real sublimity: "Prayer is the rope in the belfry—we pull it, and it rings the bell up in heaven"—and so it is. Keep that bell moving. Pull it well, and though the bell is up so high that you cannot hear it ring, depend upon it, it can be heard in the tower of heaven, and is ringing before the throne of God—who will send answers of peace according to your faith.

FLOWERS.—The terrestrial stars that bring down heaven to earth, and carry up our thoughts from earth to heaven; the poetry of the Creator, written in beauty and fragrance. "He who does not love flowers," said Ludwig Tieck, a German writer, "has lost all fear and love of God." Another German writer defines a woman as something between a flower and an angel.

ERROR.—A man should never be ashamed to own he has been in the wrong, which is but saying in other words, that he is wiser to-day than he was yesterday.—Pope.

READING THE SCRIPTURE.—It is impossible to persevere in the habit of meditating on Scripture without wearing down the edge of sin. Sin will either give a distaste for the Bible, or, which God in his mercy grant, the Bible will, through the teaching of the Spirit, give you a disgust for sin.—Pindar.

IDLENESS.—Said the distinguished Chatham to his son: "I would have inscribed upon the curtains of your bed, and the walls of your chamber: 'If you do not rise early you can never make progress in anything. If you do not set apart your hours of reading; if you suffer yourself or any one else to break in upon them, your days will slip through your hands unprofitable and frivolous, and really unenjoyed by yourself.'"

EVERYTHING that women write there will be thousands of faults against grammar, but to a certain always a charm never to be found in the letters of men.—Madame de Maintenon.

A little wrong done to another is great wrong done to ourselves. The severest punishment of an injury is the consciousness of having done it; and no man suffers more than he that is turned over to the pains of repentance.

Conceit, more rich in matter than in words, brags of his substance, not of ornament; they are but beggars who can count their worth.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.
PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS
SEPT. 11, 1859.
MECHANICS, INVENTORS,
Manufacturers, and Farmers.
THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its FIFTEENTH Year, and will enter upon its New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstract work on technical science; on the contrary, it deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any known machine employed in his business—if the housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTI-FIC AMERICAN, and in an extremely engaging and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.
TERMS:—One copy, one year, $2; ten copies, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $1; ten copies, six months, $1; ten copies, twelve months, $1.50;
twenty copies, twelve months, $2.50; twenty copies, twelve months, $2.50, in advance.
Specimen copies sent gratuitously for inspection.
Postage stamps paid for subscriptions.
Letters should be directed to MUNY & CO.,
128 Fulton St., New York.
Messrs. Mess & Co. are extensively engaged in procuring patents for new inventions, and will ad-novelty of their improvements.

BEFORE AND AFTER USING DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFER, Or Invigorating Cordial.
What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine,
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal!
To all with bad or failing health.
ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscretion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unfortunate part of this climate—many of the awful, vilent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brain—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirit, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful.
The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-will and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills;
rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all sufferers,
and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is necessary thus to advertise it, in order that its merits may be known.

Intemperance and Debauchery,
Constitutional Weakness, &c., DECLINE OF NATURE, PREMA-TURE OR NATURAL WEAKNESS OF THE FUNCTIONS, NER-VOUSNESS, WEAKNESS,
CONSTIPATION,
WAKEFULNESS AND EXHAUSTION:
is a divine remedy. See affidavits & certificates.

Dr. Webber's Sanguifer
is a divine remedy. See affidavits & certificates.

A case of Chills, Acute Tremors, general debility & ill health soon cured.
Mr. Uriah Weeks, who arrived from Panama March 24, completely prostrate, weak, and scarcely able to move; had the Panama fever three months; had pains in the bones, chills, no appetite, strength or energy; he used Webber's Cordial two weeks, and felt so strong and well that on the 17th he went to the mines, where he is now working.

SARSAPARILLA AND BITTER DRINKERS, READ!
DEAR SIR, AND GOOD FRIEND,—I herewith inform you that I have taken in seven months over sixty bottles of Sarsaparilla, Bitters, and other remedies for confirmed Dyspepsia, Weakness of the chest, indigestion, and a general feebleness of my system, without getting any particular relief.
Two bottles of your Cordial have benefited me so much that I am a different being. Please to send two bottles more, which I feel sure will effect a perfect cure. It will benefit you or the afflicted, you are at liberty to publish it.
FREDERIC LOCKLE, House Painter
Price reduced to $3, two for $5—large quart bottles. Sold by every respectable Druggist in California, and Oregon, PARK & WHITE, San Francisco, Agents.

Caution!—Beware of Counterfeits!

Jones and Jacob Webber M.D. on the top of each wrapper and blown in the glass of each bottle.
—LOOK OUT!—

White, glistening, snowy teeth, like spotless pearls;

Touched by Jones' Coral Hair Restorative—
And pure clear skin is given, from which defects

These really beautiful preparations for the teeth, the hair, and skin, are sold for 25 & 50 cents each by all druggists in California and Oregon.
