

LOVE.
Oh! would I had the wealth of worlds,
The monarch's crown of gold—
And all the gems in secret caves
This wondrous earth doth hold—
The countless pearls that gleam unknown
Beneath the deep blue sea—
Oh! would I had such wealth that I
Might scorn it all for thee!

Oh! would I were, in courtly halls,
The bright and shining star—
The glittering ragonet, for a world
To gaze on from afar—
That I might see the king's throne,
The world, on leaved knee—
All for a simple cottage home,
With naught but love and thee.

I care not for the golden wealth,
Nor sigh in court to shine—
I only care, I only wish,
To know thy heart is mine.
Far more to me, in gem, or gold,
Or jewel of the sea,
Would be that simple cottage home
With naught but love and thee!

—Chambers' Edinburgh Journal.

GOD ABOVE ALL.—An Astronomer who had long idolized his favorite science, became a zealous convert to spiritual Christianity. His intimate friend, knowing his extreme devotion to astronomical study, asked him, "What will you do with your astronomy?" His answer was worthy of a Christian philosopher—"I am bound for heaven," said he, "and I take the stars in my way." By these words the astronomer taught his friends that he had transferred his affections from the created to the Creator—that instead of finding his highest pleasure out of God, he found it in God; and that the true use of the visible was to assist him in his aspirations after the invisible and eternal.

WISE RULES.—Two or three plain rules I find of wonderful service in deciding all difficult cases. One is, to do nothing of which I have doubt, in any degree, the lawfulness; the second, to consider everything as unlawful which indisposes me to prayer, and interrupts communion with God; and the third is, never to go into any company, business, or situation, in which I cannot conscientiously ask and expect the divine presence.—Payson.

THE FOREST TREES.—Build your nest on no tree here; for you see God hath sold the forest to death, and every tree upon which we would rest is ready to be cut down, to the end that we may flee and mount up and build upon a rock.—Rathford.

ONE SIN.—Many afflictions will not cloud and obstruct our peace of mind so much as one sin; therefore, if you would walk cheerfully, be most careful to walk lively. All the winds about the earth make not an earthquake, but only that within.—Leighton.

DEFECTIVE RELIGION.—A religion that never suffices to govern a man, will never suffice to save him; that which does not sufficiently distinguish him from a wicked world, will never distinguish him from a perishing world.—Howe.

A SURE DISCOVERY.—He who sins against man may find discovery, but he who sins against God is sure of it.—Jones of Nayland.

Everybody complains of his memory, none of his judgment.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN,

VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS

SEPT. 11, 1859.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS,

Manufacturers, and Farmers,

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its fourteenth year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry abstract work on mechanical science; on the contrary, it deals with the great secrets, not only of the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to those and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the house-wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, saw-mills, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.

TERMS.—One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $4; ten copies, six months, $8; ten copies, twelve months, $15; twelve copies, twelve months, $22; twenty copies, twelve months, $38, in advance.

Specimen copies sent gratuitously for inspection. Postage stamps taken for subscriptions.

Letters should be directed to

MUNN & CO.,
125 Fulton st., New York.

Messrs. MUNN & Co. are extensively engaged in procuring patents for new inventions, and will advise inventors, without charge, in regard to the novelty of their improvements.

Administrator's Notice.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested in the estate of James M. Graves, deceased, that the county court of Yamhill county to the said estate of James M. Graves, deceased. All persons having claims against the said estate are hereby notified to present them, duly authenticated according to law, within one year from this date, to the undersigned, at his residence in said county, as they will be forever barred.

BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFER,

Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine,
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal!

To all with bad or failing health.

ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indigestion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthy part of this climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brain—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, most satisfy all but the self-will and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion; loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, disipation, too much doctoring,
