

Who took the baby?
"Mother," one day said little Ben,
"When our little baby died,
And had to leave your loving arms, Who took her on the other side?"
"I've heard you say there is a stream, And all who die must pass it o'er;
Now when the babe that river crossed, Who took her on the other shore?"
"O'er, when God's children die, Jesu, who took their souls to save, Receives them in his own kind arms, And bears them safe across the wave."
"He is their rod, and he is their staff, He leads them o'er the swelling tide,
And takes them to his father's home,
That he bring home on the other side."

FINDING FAULT WITH MINISTERS.— There are many persons whose religion consists in finding fault with ministers.
Nor are they all of the world. Some church members think this one of the privileges of their profession. And as Satan desires to sift as wheat Simon, so they sift the character and life of their minister.— Every word he speaks, and every act he performs, in private and in public, at home and abroad, must be weighed in the balance—and if he is found wanting they must post up the church and the world in reference to his defects and infirmities.
This part of religion must be attended to by some one. "All members have not the same office." And as they have a peculiar taste, if not talent, and relish for anything more spiritual, they are faithful in pointing out his real and imaginary defects. And thus they save him from that woe which Christ said rested on ministers, when all men spoke evil of them.—True Witness.

HYPOCRITES MAKE INFIDELS.—An infidel once left the company of some "professors," who had done nothing but backbite their neighbors over their glasses, which they seemed to love more than their fellow men; and he said, "If that is Christianity I never was a Christian, and hope never to be one!" Let those who profess to represent Christianity take care that they are not representing its great enemy, and helping his cause by their practical denial of all which they say they believe.

"ALL YOUR NEED."—Why was the "Bread of Life" hungry, but that he might feed the hungry with the bread of life?— Why was the "Rest" itself weary, but to give the weary rest? Why was the "Prince of Peace" in trouble, but that the troubled might have peace? None but the Image of God could restore us to God's image. None but the Prince of peace could bring the God of peace and the peace of God to poor sinners.—Old Author.

READING AND THINKING.—It was per-dicted of a young man lately belonging to one of our Universities, that he would certainly become a prodigy, because he read sixteen hours a day. "Ah," replied a fellow student, "but how many hours a day does he think?"

Men men are occupied in thinking how they should live in the world; it should be how they will live out of it, in eternity.—Baker's Well.

"Put off repentance till to-morrow, and you have a day more to repent of, and a day less to repent in."

Francis the First said: "A court without woman is a year without spring—a spring without roses."

E. LA FOREST
WOULD inform the citizens of Oregon City and vicinity that he intends keeping a general supply of everything in the CLOTHING, Dry-Goods,
Grocery, Crockery, and Fancy line, and will be happy to see his old friends call upon him, and will promise at all times to sell their goods as cheap as any other house in town, his motto being:
Small Profits and Quick Returns.

We would also say to the MARRIED, (the bone and sinews of the land), we intend keeping everything you may require in the Grocery, Crockery, Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, line, etc., which we offer at such prices as will be satisfactory to you. We also wish to exchange our goods for your produce, and will give you as much for it as the market affords. Come and try us.
Do not forget the place, but look for the sign of La Forest & Bacon, and then come in.

We would also say to the Ladies (God Bless You!) When you wish a superior article of dress goods or fancy articles, do not fail to call upon La Forest & Bacon, where you will always find them, and we will receive their grateful thanks for your patronage.

Young Men, and about 375 other articles too numerous and too cheap to pay for advertising.

Now the fact is, as we are permanently located, we are desirous of doing business on such terms that we shall not be compelled to "sell off at cost," but we intend, by quick sales and small profits, to live and let live. Ladies and gentlemen are always welcome, and will be promptly waited on.

SADDLERY,

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstruse work on technical science; on the contrary, it deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and warlike character, and not elsewhere. They are all these desiderata can be found in the Scientific American, and not elsewhere. They are adapted to the comprehension of minds unacquainted in the higher branches of science and art.

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFER, Or Invigorating Cordial.
What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hours of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine,
If you but want the blessing, Health.

Dr. Jacob Webber's Sanguifer, Or Invigorating Cordial.
What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hours of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine,
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal!
To all with bad or failing health.
ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the back, and head? Read, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly, or in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indigestion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthy part of the climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFER will cure these cases—it will invigorate the nerves, and brains—it strengthens the liver, blood, and brain—it lightens of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful.
The many respectable persons who have been benefited and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-will and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, disipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is necessary thus to advertise it, in order that its merits may be known.
