My Bubbles.

Faces in the merry sunshine,
Merry laughs, and tossing hair,
See the children blowing bubbles—
Worlds in Time's enchanted air!

Worlds—their merry world-creations—
Fairy-lands for childish eyes:
In the sunshine rise the bubbles—
From their hearts the fairies rise!

I, a child, am blowing bubbles:
See the merry lights they wear!
See the fairy dreams that wander
Through these globes of shining air!

See the dance of forms fantastic—
Shadows playing sunbeams' part—
See the fairy rainbow-maskers—
Clouds within a saddened heart!

WILLIAM JAY'S THEOLOGY.—Two grand truths have always seemed to me to pervade the whole Bible, and not to be confined to a few particular phrases, viz: that if we are saved, it is entirely of God's grace; and if we are lost it will be entirely from ourselves. I know full well that a man may easily force me into a corner with things seemingly or really related to the truths of either of these affirmations, but he will not shake my confidence in either, while I can read, "O Israel! thou hast destroyed thyself, but in me is thy help." The connection is like a chain across the river; I can see the two ends, but not the middle; not because there is no real reunion, but because it is under water. Lower the water or raise the links, and I will see the center as well as the extremes. Paley observes that we should never suffer what we know to be disturbed by what we know not. And Butler remarks very nearly the same when he says, "If a truth be established, objections are nothing. The one is founded on our knowledge, the other in our ignorance."

A NOBLE SENTIMENT.—Some true heart has given expression to its generous nature in the following beautiful sentiments:

"Never desert a friend when enemies gather around him—when sickness falls upon the heart—when the world is dark and cheerless—is the time to try a true friend. They who turn from the scene of distress, betray their hypocrisy and prove that interest moves them. If you have a friend who loves you and studies your interest and happiness, be sure to sustain him in adversity. Let him feel that his former kindness is appreciated, and that his love is not thrown away. Real fidelity may be rare but it exists in the heart. Who has not seen and felt its power? They deny its worth who never loved a friend or labored to make a friend happy.

A BEAUTIFUL PICTURE.—A mother teaching her child to pray, is an object at once the most sublime and tender the imagination can conceive. Elevated above earthly things, she seems like one of those guardian angels, the companions of our earthly pilgrimage, through whose ministrations we are inclined to do good and turn from evil.

☞ Love gives understanding to women, and takes it away from men.

SINGING BOOKS!

New Lute of Zion:

JUST received, 100 copies of the New Lute of Zion.
Feb. 26. JOHN A. POST.

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

PROSPECTUS.
VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS SEPT. 11, 1859.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS,
Manufacturers, and Farmers.

THE SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN has now reached its Fourteenth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstruse work on technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the housewife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.,—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements—if the manufacturer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships, railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war—all these desiderata can be found in the SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.

TERMS:—One copy, one year, $2; one copy, six months, $1; five copies, six months, $4; ten copies, six months, $8; ten copies, twelve months, $15; fifteen copies, twelve months, $22; twenty copies, twelve months, $28, in advance.

Specimen copies sent gratuitously for inspection. Postage stamps taken for subscriptions.

Letters should be directed to
MUNN & CO.,

BEFORE AND AFTER USING

DR. JACOB WEBBER'S SANGUIFIER,
Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine,
And you have countless hoards of wealth;
What though the world—all, all was thine.
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal!

To all with bad or failing health.

ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscretion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthy part of this climate—many of the awful, violent, and sudden deaths that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is necessary thus to advertise it, in order that its merits may be known.

Intemperance and Debauchery,
Constitutional Weakness, &c.,
DECLINE OF NATURE, PREMATURE OR NATURAL WEAKNESS OF THE FUNCTIONS, NERVOUSNESS, WEAKNESS, CONSTIPATION, WAKEFULNESS AND EXHAUSTION:
Dr. Webber's Sanguifier
is a divine remedy. See affidavits & certificates.

A case of Chills, Ague Tremors, general debility & ill health soon cured.

Mr. Uriah Weeks, who arrived from Panama March 2d, completely prostrate, weak, and scarcely able to move; had the Panama fever three months; had pains in the bones, chills, no appetite, strength or energy; he used Webber's Cordial two weeks, and felt so strong and well that on the 17th he went to the mines, where he is now working.

SARSAPARILLA AND BITTER DRINKERS, READ!

DEER SIR, AND GOOD FRIEND.—I herewith inform you that I have taken in seven months over sixty bottles of Sarsaparilla, Bitters, and other remedies for confirmed Dyspepsia, Weakness of the chest, indigestion, and a general feebleness of my system, without getting any particular relief.—Two bottles of your Cordial have benefitted me so much that I am a different being. Please to send two bottles more, which I feel sure will effect a perfect cure. If this will benefit you or the afflicted, you are at liberty to publish it.

FREDERIC LUCKLE, House Painter

BOOTS & SHOES,
Crockery, Glassware, Hardware.

Now listen to us for a moment or two
While we use our efforts in convincing you
That paying cash down for whatever you get
Is better than buying goods on a credit.

You will find by reading our advertisement
That we purpose selling for at least ten per cent
Cheaper for cash than we could on time;
This is certainly better, the buyer will find.

Here ladies can find all they may require,
From fine silk dresses to plain bonnet wire;
The gentlemen also can here be rigged out
With fine doe pants, vest, shirt, and a coat.

The farmers also should here come and see
If we have not got good sugar and coffee,
Tea, rice, starch, tobacco, salt, and soap,
Nails, cups and saucers, saleratus, and rope.

Come farmers, try us, and then you will see
If we do not do just as we agree;
We promise to sell goods at prices below,
With freight only added, which is right you know.

For fear you forget just where we reside,
Post & White's Book Store is on the east side;
La Forest & Bacon is the name of the firm,
Our motto, small profits but a quick return.

Bring on your cash, your eggs, and your butter,
And if it is raining don't stop for the weather.
All indebted to us, you come along too,
The cash we are needing, your custom also.

OREGON CITY.....May 14, 1858.
