Whose dust is this, I asked, in this forgotten urn? And where this waste now lies, what city rose of old?
None knows; its name is lost: it was, and is no more; Gone like a wind that blew a thousand years ago; Its melancholy and will be the end of all; For, as it passed away the universe will pass! Its sole memorial some ruined world, like ours; A solitary urn, full of the dust of men!

-Atlantic Monthly.

OPPOSITE CHARACTERS -It is very instructive, often, to observe the firness of opposite qualities for different circumstances. A person who appears to great disadvant. age in one place, acquits himself to his honor in another. Perhaps no two sisters were more unlike than Martha and Mary of Bethany. The former was a stirring, bustling, resolute, and perhaps irritable woman. The latter was moderate, quiet, diffident, and amiable. When Jesus viated them at home, both welcomed him with glad hearts. Martha was inclined to prepare the meal, while Mary was more in-clined to talk with her Lord. But the termer became wearied and irritated about her housework, while the latter sat meek and lovely at the feet of Jesus. How greatly to her disadvantage did Marthauppear, when she yielded to the leading elements of her character, and rushed into the presence of Christ saying, " Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone! Bid her therefore that she help me!" Passionate woman! we are ready to exclaim, and as we turn away to Mary, she seems lovelier than ever.

A CITIZEN OF HEAVEN .-- A Christian does not turn his back on the fine things of this world because he has no natural ca pacity to enjoy them nor no taste for them, but because the Hely Spirit has shown greater and better things. He wants flow-ers that will never fude; he wants something that he can take to another world with him. He is like a man who has had notice to quit his house, and having secured a new one, he is no more anxious to repair, much less to embellish and beautify the old one; his thoughts are upon the removal. If you hear him converse, it is upon the house to which he is going -Thither he sends his; and thus he declares plainly what he is seeking.

Two WONDERS .- Two things are matters of daily astonishment to me -the read iness of Christ to come from heaven to earth for me, and my backwardness to rise from earth to heaven for him .- S. Pearce.

WAY OF LIFE - Many people labor to make the narrow way wider. They may dig a path into the broad way; but the way of life must remain a narrow way to Four Last Tuings .- Death, which is most certain; judgment, which is most strict; hell, which is most doleful; heaven, which is most delightful.

AT A preacher lately said in his ser. mon: "Let women remember, while putting on their profuse and expansive attire, how narrow are the gates of paradise."

SCIENTIFIC AMERICAN.

PROSPECTUS. VOLUME FIFTEEN BEGINS SEPT. 11, 1859.

MECHANICS, INVENTORS,

Manufacturers, and Farmers. Manufacturers, and Farmers.

THE Scherterth Year, and will enter upon a New Volume on the 11th of September. It is the only weekly publication of the kind now issued in this country, and it has a very extensive circulation in all the States of the Union. It is not, as some might suppose from its title, a dry, abstrase work on technical science; on the courtery, it so deals with Prince's Melodeons technical science; on the contrary, it so deals with the great events going on in the scientific, mechanical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct ical, and industrial worlds, as to please and instruct every one. If the mechanic or artisan wishes to know the best machine in use, or how to make any substance employed in his business—if the house-wife wishes to get a recipe for making a good color, &c.—if the inventor wishes to know what is going on in the way of improvements-if the manufac on in the way of improvements—if the manuac-jurer wishes to keep posted with the times, and to enjoy the best facilities in his business—if the man of leisure and study wishes to keep himself familiar with the progress made in the chemical laboratory, or in the construction of telegraphs, steamships railroads, reapers, mowers, and a thousand other machines and appliances, both of peace and war-all these desiderate can be found in the Scienriric American, and not elsewhere. They are here presented in a reliable and interesting form, adapted to the comprehension of minds unlearned in the higher branches of science and art.

DR. JACOB WEBBERS SANGUIFIER, Or Invigorating Cordial.

What though the sun in beauty shine, And you have countless hoards of wealth; What though the world-ull, all was thine.
If you but want the blessing, Health.

An Honest Appeal! To all with bad or failing health.

A RE you languid, inanumate, restless, appetite A poor, digestion bad, and pains in the limbs, body back, and head? Reader, much of this is caused from cold caught unwittingly or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indiscre-tion in the use of food and drink, or from a dryness in the atmo-phere—which is a very unheal-thy part of this climate—many of the awful, viobut, and sudd n deaths that occur here must be attributed to the. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and I do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL SANGUIFIER will cure these causes—it will insure animation of the liver, blood, and brains—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirits, a mental and bodily feeling of strength that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefit-ed by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following dueases, must satisfy all but the self-wise and ignorant skeptic—dyspepsia, or indigestion, loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; fever, ague, or chills rheumatic, neuralgic, or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debitity from discase, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and other causes; in case of excitement from constant intemperance, and where delirium tremens has occurred, I have seen it change the sufferer in half an hour from the most horrible state to calmness and placidity. It can, indeed, be conscientiously recommended to all suffering, and the proprietor regrets deeply that it is neces-sary thus to odvertise ii, in order that its merits
