FARQUAR'S MEDICATED CALIFORNIA WINE & BRANDY A DELICIOUS TONIC BITTER JUICE OF THE GRAPE MEDICATED WITH JUNIPER RHUBARB, PERUVIAN BARK FOR INVALIDS

THIS is simply the fermented juice and the distilled juice of the California grape, judiciously impregnated with Peruvian Bark, tincture of rhubarb, juniper berries, and other vegetable tonic agents, skillfully combined, and in such minute and exact quantities as to constitute a small or homoeopathic dose of each remedy; which when combined form an innocuous, harmless, and active, tonic, alterative, antispasmodic, and febrile, and a sedative beverage, pleasant to the taste.

The inventor, in calling the attention of the public (especially the Californians) who know the excellence of the California grape to these preparations, does so with pride and confidence; pride in proving the excellence of our native grape, and confidence in their remedial virtues, adapted for the following diseases:

Diarrhoea, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Habitual Constipation, Acidity of, or Sour Stomach, Diseases of the Kidney, Gravel, Disorders of the Urinary Organs, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Fever & Ague, Nervousness, Weakness, Debility, Dropsy, Dropsy of the Brain, Pains in the Stomach, Rheumatic Cholic, Dysentery, &c., &c.

The proprietor dares not pretend that his Medicated California Wine and Brandy is a "wonder" or a "miracle" in medical science, but he appeals to the common sense of the public, and he does not hesitate to avow that he knows from experience that the medicines in this, though small in quantity, will often effect a cure in some of the diseases enumerated, when more violent and powerful remedies have failed in their object.

If those drinking liquor only in the morning or before breakfast, would find the Brandy set distinctly on the nerves and stomach, keeping the bowels regular, &c.

It is a general beverage, it is pleasant to the taste, slightly stimulating, perfectly harmless, and gives the weak and feeble a feeling of health and strength.

Read this certificate of analysis made by Theodore N. Real, Analytical and Manufacturing Chemist, Boston: I do hereby certify that, after a minute and careful analysis of the California Wine and Brandy, manufactured by Dr. James L. Farquar, in order to ascertain its composition and quality, I have, after various experiments, arrived at the following result: The wine is of a very agreeable taste; light color, and agreeable aroma; and consists of grape sugar 9.30, valinic acid 0.44, tannic acid 1.75, coloring matter 1.84, alcohol 9.64, water 73.10, benzoic acid of potassium 0.97, and plate of potassium 0.45, salt 0.82.

It can be taken by the most delicate of either sex, and in moderation by children. It is sold by all respectable Druggists and Grocers in the United States, California, and Oregon.—Price—$1 per bottle; six bottles for $5.

LETTERS TO THE PUBLIC: In purchasing, always see that a fac-simile of the signature of James L. Farquar, M. D., is pasted around the neck of the bottle. Wholesale Agents—GILBERT & CRANE, PARK & WHITE, and REMINGTON & CO., San Francisco.

Melodeons.

THOSE who wish to purchase MELODEONS can have them of us at from 15 to 25 per cent cheaper by paying CASH, than they have been bought of us heretofore. I wanted no credit, the whole can be had at 50 per cent. advance on our former rates. J. A. POST. Oregon City, June 11, 1859.

A Little Gem. There's not a heart, however rude, But hath some little flower To brighten up its solitude, And sweet the evening hour.

There's not a heart, however east, By grief and sorrow down, But hath some memory of the past To love and call it own.

The life of man, how short! The poor pittance of seventy years is not worth being a villain for. What matters it if your neighbor lies in a splendid tomb? Sleep you with innocence. Look behind you through the track of time; a vast desert lies open in retrospect; through this have your fathers journeyed; wearied with years and sorrow they stunk from the walks of man. You must leave them where they fall, and you are to go a little farther, where you will find eternal rest. Whatever you may have to encounter between the cradle and the grave, every moment is big with innumerable events, which come not in slow succession but, bursting forcibly from a revolving and unknown cause, fly over this orb with diversified influence.—Dr. Blair.

AGREEING WITH HER.—A clergyman, who was a bit of a humorist, once took tea with a lady of his parish, who prided herself much upon her nice bread, and was also addicted to the common trick of depreciating her viands to her guests. As she passed the nice warm biscuit to the reverend gentleman, she said—"They are not very good; I am almost ashamed to offer them."

The minister took one, looked at it rather dubiously and replied:—"They are not as good as they might be."

The plate was instantly withdrawn, and with heightened color the lady exclaimed:—"They are good enough for you!"

REPOSE.—That undisturbed repose of which we are so tenacious when duty or necessity compels us to abandon it, is precisely what we long to exchange for a state of excitement, as soon as we may prolong it at our pleasure. Only say to a man, "Remain at rest," and you instantly inspire him with a love of labor. Very few are satisfied with the mode of life they lead; if it is easy, they find it monotonous; if active they complain that it is arduous. It is very difficult to find a man that is completely satisfied.

Good Humor.—Humor is a perennial source of purity and freshness to the mind. It clears away the cobwebs; it qualifies the hot, rich draughts of sentiment; it freshens up the staid edge of appetite; it flows through the whole being like a babbling stream, with verdure always green upon its banks. Without humor, we are either hot simooms or arid plains. Your Koats and your Shelleys burn themselves out for want of it; your Shakespeares and Dickenses are so irrigated by its delicious coolness, that they endure green and fresh forever.

WHO IS AN EDITOR?—He is an individual who reads newspapers, writes articles on all subjects, sets type, reads proof, works press, folds and packs papers, prints jobs, runs on errands, saws wood, works in the garden, talks to all who call, receives blame for many things he never did, works from 4 A. M. to 10 P. M., and never collects half his debts. Who does not wish himself an editor!
