Then shrink in terror back when Thou dost call To paths which must be tred alone, in tears, Where darkness and the cries of death appal. But courage give, and faith, O Loving Guide,

To me, the weakest of thy pilgrim ones, And bear me through the sorrow by Thy side; Till every cloud be radiant with the light. Of thy sweet home to which Thou leadest on, And the sad vale o'er arched with rainbows bright

To none but Thee the homeward way is known, And I would place my trembling hand in Thine, To walk, if so then wilt, with Thee plane. -N. Y. Observer.

Day The following are given as the concluding words of the farewell discourse of Rev. J. N. Maffit, in closing his term as chaplain: "To that mighty Congress gathered from all nations—to the great assembly of the 'first born of heaven'-I wou'd take your recognizance and bind your over to appear. There may I meet you all; and may no shade of ministerial unfaithfulness there dim my brow, and no pallor of duty neglected, or opportunity lost, fall up-

Horace Mann said of prejudices:— "Let it be forever inculcated, that no bodily wounds or main, no deformity of person, nor disease of brain or lungs, or heart. can be so disabling or painful as error; and that he who heals us of our prejudices is a thousand fold more our benefactor than he who heals us of our maladies."

Try what you can make of the broken fragments of time. Glean up its golden dust-those raspings and parings of precious duration, those leavings of days and remnants of hours which so many sweep out into the waste of existence. Perhaps if you be a miser of moments, if you be frugal and hoard up odd minutes and half hours and mexpected holidays, your careful gleanings may ske out a long and useful life, and you may die at last, rich r in existence than multitudes whose time is

A DELICIOUS MEDICATED WITH JUNIPER RHUBARB PERUVIAN BARK DON MILLY YOU

THIS is simply the fermented junce and the distilled junce of the California grape, judiciously medicated with Peruvian Bark, turkey rhubarb, juniper becries, and other vegetable re-medial agents, skilfully combined, and in such minute and exact quantities as to constitute a small or homeopalitic dose of each remedy; which when combined form an innocent, harm less, yet active, tonic, alterative, anti-dyspeptic, diarctic, anti-febrile, and sedative beverage, pleasant to the taste.

The inventor, in calling the attention of the public (especially the Californians who know the excellence of the California grape) to these prepions, does so with pride and confidence; pride in proving the excellence of our native grape, and confidence in their remedial virtues, adapted for the following diseases:

Dyspepsia. Indigention, Loss of Appetite,, Ha Stomach, Discusses of the Kidney, Gravel, Disorders of the Urinary Organs, Remittent and Intermittent Ferera, Ferer & Millent Fevers, Forer of Agne, Nerconsness,

Weakness, Debility, Dryness of the Skin, or want of Perspiration, Pains in the Stomach or Bowels, Cholic, Dysentery, &c., &c.

The proprietor does not pretend that his Medicated California Wine and Brandy is a "wonder or a miracle" in medical science, but appea's to the common sense of the public, and he does not hessure to avow that he knows from experience that the medicines in this, though small in quantity, will often effect a cure in some of the discares caumerated, when more violent and power ful remed as have failed in their object.

13' Those drinking liquor only in the morning or before breakfast, would find the Brandy act delightfully on the nerves and stomach, keeping the bowels regular, &c. IT As a general beverage, it is pleasant to the taste, slightly exhibitating, perfectly harmless, and gives the weak and feeble a feeling of health and Road this certificate of analysis made by Theophilus N. Real, Analytical and Manufacturng Chemist, Boston; I do herely certify that, after a minute and careful analytical examination of the California wine and brandy, manufactured by Dr. James L. Furquar, in order to ascertain its composition and quality. I have, after various experiments, arrived quality. I have, after various experiments, arrived at the following tesult: The wine is of a very agreeable taste, light color, and agreeable aroma, and consists of graps sugget 9-30, volatile oil 2-13, tonic noid 1-73, coloring matter 1-84, alcohol 9 64, water 73-10, br-tartrate of potassix 0-97, sul 64; water 73-10, be-tarries to phate of potassia 0-15, sait 0-84.
