It has long been a most important desideration in the practice of medicine, to obtain a remedy similar to Uris, and accordingly we find it resorted to almost an versally in all those termenting diseases of the skin so trying to the patience, and injurious to the health. It is a tonic, up rient, and disinfectant. It acts simultaneously upon the srouger, the craceration, and the powers, and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the re-sult of valuet different kinds of medicine, are carried on at the same time through the instrumen-tality of rms over remedial agent. Its great enerit is that it meets and neutralizes the active principle of disease itself, and when that is gone, the symptoms necessarily disappear. The ra-pidity with which the patient recovers health and strength under this triple influence is surprising-consequences of youthful follies, and all other complaints of long standing that the diseases peculiar to their sex will be treated with the atmost care and secrecy. They may most confidentially apply for medical aid, either by letter or personally; they will be sure to find speedy and permanent relief from suffering.

Through the enormous success the Dr. has had, especially in the treatment of the above discuses, he is enabled to promise a speedy and permanent enre, where medical skill can possibly effect a cure. Although the Dr. was always averse to advertising, he had at last to submit to the many requests of his numerous patients throughout the State, who consider it as justice to the suffering who can be benefited by his treatment and advice. Thousands of patients in California have been saved by his mode of treatment, and will certify its appendity to any other they have ever been treated by. The Dr. never uses mercurial or minetal po sons; he has more efficient substitutes of the vegetable kingdom. He will never expect pay where he does not effect a complete cure.
