

To-Day: A single sparkling drop Of love divine Presses my mortal cup; To-day is mine— Mine, all its fleeting hours, Its golden light; Mine, with my highest powers Its soul to write; Mine, ere its moments fly, To tell and pray, To lift mine eyes on high— This is my day. Soon, in the purple West, Its beams shall cease; Oh! happy in my break To write it peace!

JUST UPON SCRIPTURE.—It is very common with some persons, says the Christian Messenger, to raise a laugh by some ludicrous story connected with a text of Scripture. Sometimes it is a play upon words, a pun; at other times a blunder; and not seldom, a downright impudency. Whichever be its form, even when lightest, it is no real offense, leading as it does to profane contempt of God's word. Those who practice this have never been celebrated for genuine wit. The laughter which they call forth is provoked solely by the unexpected contrast between the solemn words of Scripture and some droll idea. There is no real wit in the case; and the dullest persons in society are most remarkable for these attempts.

Secret sins are in some respects more dangerous than open sins. The more inward and secret the disease is, the more the man is in danger of losing his life. There are no fevers so dangerous as those that pray upon the spirits and inward parts; so there are no sins so pernicious to the souls of men as those that are most inward and secret. Secret sins often reign in the souls of men most powerfully when they are least apparent.

CLEANING THE LIPS.—No feature in the face of a child is so delicate as the lips, with rows of pearly teeth playing hide-and-seek behind them. But, ah! sometimes mouths which look like rose-buds, send forth words unfit for a mother's ear—unfit for the ear in Heaven! Some boys who would not dare to take God's name in vain, say what is coarse and impure, forgetting that this, also, is sin.

Learn in childhood, if you can, that happiness is not outside, but inside. A good heart and a clear conscience bring happiness; no riches and no circumstances ever do.

When preachers grow proud of the beauty and eloquence of their prayers, Satan himself might readily toll the bell to summon the congregation to church.

What the world calls "innate goodness" is very often a full stomach, and what it terms vice is quite as frequently an empty bread-basket.

SANDS' SARSAPARILLA,
For Purifying the Blood,

AND FOR THE CURE OF

Liver complaint, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Salt Rheum, Lumbago, White Swell-ings, Hip Disease, Enlargement of the Bones and Joints, Fever plaints, Erysipelas, Loss of Appetite,

Pimples, Biles,
General Debility,
&c., &c.

It has long been a most important desideratum in the practice of medicine, to obtain a remedy similar to this, and accordingly we found it resorted to almost universally in all those tormenting diseases of the skin so trying to the patients, and injurious to the health. It is a tonic, aperient, and diuretic. It acts simultaneously upon the spleen, the cruet, the liver, and the bowels, and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the result of various different kinds of medicine, are accomplished at the same time through the instrumen-tality of this one remedial agent. Its great merit is that it acts and neutralizes the active principle of disease itself, and when that is gone, the symptoms necessarily disappear. The rapidity with which the patient recovers health and strength under this triple influence is surprising.

REMARKABLE CURE.

JAMES COWLEY, Oregon Ter., March 11, 1859.
Messrs. A. D. & D. SANDS, New York: Gentlemen,—In the spring of 1855, while on my way from Indiana to this place, our eldest boy was seized with a swelling and severe pain in the legs which day by day grew worse, until his legs were swollen and became so painful that he could not walk, and we had to carry him about like an infant. We reached Albany on the 30 of October, completely worn out by fatigue. By this time he was reduced to a perfect skeleton. Here we were enabled to consult a physician (Dr. HUB-BARD), who honestly confessed he could not cure him, although he could give him medicine that would relieve the pain. In this exigency something must be done, or death was inevitable. Being recommended to try your Sarsaparilla, I procured a bottle. After taking some, he appeared worse; but persevering with it, I obtained a second bottle, which seemed to grape with the disease, and caused a marked improvement; the swelling and pain in the legs were reduced, his appetite improved, and his color began to return. Thus encouraged, I purchased a third bottle, while taking it the swellings in his legs broke, and some pieces of bone on eighth of an inch long came out, after which his legs straightened and healed up. He is now perfectly recovered and has no appearance of being a cripple, and can perform most kinds of common labor, as all our neighbors can testify. Yours, respectfully, CALEB DAVIS.

FARQUAR'S
MEDICATED
CALIFORNIA
WINE & BRANDY
A DELICIOUS
TONGUE BITTER JUICE OF THE GRAPE
MEDICATED WITH JUNIPER RHUBARB
PERUVIAN BARK
FOR INVALIDS

THIS is simply the fermented juice and the distilled juice of the California grape, judiciously medicated with Peruvian Bark, turkey rhubarb, juniper berries, and other vegetable remedial agents, skilfully combined, and in such minute and exact quantities as to constitute a small or homoeopathic dose of each remedy; which when combined form an innocent, harmless, yet active, tonic, alterative, and dyspeptic, diuretic, and cathartic, and sedative beverage, pleasant to the taste.

The inventor, in calling the attention of the public (especially the Californians who know the existence of the California grape) to their preparations, does so with pride and confidence; he prides in proving the excellence of our native grape, and confidence in their remedial virtues, adapted for the following diseases: Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Mal-treated Constipation, Acidity of Stomach, Sour Stomach, Diseases of the Kidney, Gravel, Disorders of the Urinary Organs, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Fever & Ague, Nephritis, Weakness, Debility, Dryness of the Skin, or result of Purification, Pains in the Stomach or Bowels, Cholera, Dysentery, &c., &c.

The proprietor does not pretend that his Medicated California Wine and Brandy is a "specific" or a "miraculous" in medical science, but appeals to the common sense of the patient, and he does not hesitate to avow that he knows from experience that the medicines in this, though small in quantity, will often effect a cure in some of the diseases enumerated, when more violent and powerful remedies have failed in their object.

It is thus drinking liquor only in the morning or before breakfast, would find the Brandy act delightfully on the nerves and stomach, keeping the bowels regular, &c.

As a general beverage, it is pleasant to the taste, slightly exhilarating, perfectly harmless, and gives the weak and feeble a feeling of health and strength.

Read this certificate of analysis made by Theophilus N. Real, Analytical and Manufacturing Chemist, Boston: I do hereby certify that, after a minute and careful analytical examination of the California wine and brandy, manufactured by Dr. James L.
Farquar, in order to ascertain its composition and quality, I have, after various experiments, arrived at the following results: The wine is of a very agreeable taste, light color, and agreeable aroma, and consists of grape sugar 9.30, volatile oil 0.11, resin 1.70, coloring matter 1.84, alcohol 9.64, water 73.10, bitartrate of potassa 0.27, sulphate of potassa 0.45, salt 0.84.

It can be taken by the most delicate of either sex, and in moderation by children.
It is sold by all respectable Druggists and Grocers in the United States, California, and Oregon.
Price—$1 per bottle; six bottles for $5.
In purchasing, always see that a fac-simile of the signature of James L. Farquar, M. D., is pasted around the neck of the bottle.
