

Republican Nominations.

For President, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, OF ILLINOIS. For Vice President, HANNIBAL HAMLIN, OF MAINE. For Presidential Electors, T. J. DAVIS, B. J. PENRO, W. H. WATKINS.

The Lesson of the Hour.

Although we are beaten in the late race for Congressman by a very small majority, we are by no means disheartened. The signs of the times are most encouraging. The edict has gone forth that Oregon must and shall be a Republican State.

Let things shape themselves as they will, we assure our friends that the day-star of our triumph is already dawning. Let them go to work in good earnest to carry the State for LINCOLN this fall, and, our word for it, we will not be troubled with Democratic misrule much longer in Oregon.

It takes a man with a mind and a soul to make a thorough Republican, and when such a man becomes a Republican from principle, he will never be anything else. You can never make such a man vote the Democratic ticket, till Democracy claims some higher and nobler principles of action than those which constitute the animus of piracy.

FOURTH OF JULY.—In this city, the day was very pleasantly observed by the children and their friends. The Band of Hope formed a fine procession, at the Sons of Temperance Hall, and marched to the Congregational Church, where some appropriate speeches were made; after which, they went to the grounds near the Baptist Church, where a bountiful picnic was provided, and several hours were passed in cheerful amusements, to the great gratification of the little folks.

Our neighbors at Portland, we are sorry to learn, fizzled in their attempt to celebrate. They made on paper a long procession, but the people would not come and form it. Judge Williams prepared an admirable address of course, but the audience would not come to hear it, and so the whole affair turned out a failure.

in the State, with almost a certain prospect of carrying several strong counties, not excepting Marion and Linn. Whatever contingency may arise, we believe that Marion county has rallied for the last time for sectionalism.

Upon no imaginable shuffling of the political cards that we can think of, can the Democratic party under any leader carry the State by anything of a formidable majority. The Lane party has the organization—it has the voters—it is marshaled by leaders maddened to insanity by defeat, and they will never make terms with a weak faction that cannot bring more than three hundred votes to their support, when these votes are tendered upon condition of a deeper humiliation of those leaders who are already trodden into the mire of political infamy by quondam friends and political bedfellows.

Let things shape themselves as they will, we assure our friends that the day-star of our triumph is already dawning. Let them go to work in good earnest to carry the State for LINCOLN this fall, and, our word for it, we will not be troubled with Democratic misrule much longer in Oregon.

It takes a man with a mind and a soul to make a thorough Republican, and when such a man becomes a Republican from principle, he will never be anything else. You can never make such a man vote the Democratic ticket, till Democracy claims some higher and nobler principles of action than those which constitute the animus of piracy.

FOURTH OF JULY.—In this city, the day was very pleasantly observed by the children and their friends. The Band of Hope formed a fine procession, at the Sons of Temperance Hall, and marched to the Congregational Church, where some appropriate speeches were made; after which, they went to the grounds near the Baptist Church, where a bountiful picnic was provided, and several hours were passed in cheerful amusements, to the great gratification of the little folks.

Our neighbors at Portland, we are sorry to learn, fizzled in their attempt to celebrate. They made on paper a long procession, but the people would not come and form it. Judge Williams prepared an admirable address of course, but the audience would not come to hear it, and so the whole affair turned out a failure.

LATER FROM THE EAST. We have news from the East to the 16th of June. We are under obligations to Tracy & Co. for late papers.

In the Senate, on the 12th, the House amendments to the Pacific Telegraph bill were concurred in.

The bill for the relief of Anson Dart, ex-Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Oregon, was passed, notwithstanding the opposition of Senator Lane.

The bill appropriating $3,400,000 for the Oregon and Washington Territory war debt was defeated in the House.

The Pacific Telegraph Bill, as amended by the House, passed the Senate, which allows the Postmaster-General to advertise for proposals to build the line. The bill is a law.

A dispatch from Washington, dated 12th, says that Forney gave testimony before the Covode Committee of so important a character, that a copy was ordered to be forwarded to the President for examination before being made public, and the witness placed under obligations not to reveal his testimony until it is concluded, and the President makes known his pleasure on the subject.

MEXICO.—Dispatches from Mexico state that the Liberals are losing ground gradually, and the Juarez government will be broken up.

EUROPE.—The news from Europe is important. Garibaldi entered Palermo on the 26th. The official Neapolitan dispatches say that the Insurgents have been defeated in several battles; but Garibaldi's forces are increasing in numbers, and he appears to have been successful in his most important movements.

TURKEY IN JEOPARDY.—A correspondent of the London News says: France and Russia have agreed to divide Turkey.—England was to receive a share, but if she would not agree, the others would proceed and take the whole themselves.

LINCOLN'S RECORD.—Lincoln, the Republican candidate, was in Congress during the Mexican war, and a violent opponent of it.—Statesman.

The Statesman misrepresents. Lincoln was not in Congress till near the close of the war, and he was not a violent opponent of it. He went to Congress in December, 1847, when Gen. Scott had been in possession of Mexico for three months, and the war was virtually closed—and, though opposed to the Administration, he never refused to vote for any appropriation necessary to carry on the war.

COMET.—For a week or more past, when it is not cloudy, a comet can be plainly seen in the north west part of the heavens, with a well-defined tail. It is visible till about ten o'clock. As this is the year in which astronomers look for the return of the great comet known as Charles the Fifth's Comet (and not that of 1680, as has been stated by some), it is probable that this body now so rapidly coming in sight, is the long looked-for stranger.

INDIAN ATTACK.—Mr. Harvey has shown us a letter from the Dalles, from which we learn that a band of Snake Indians attacked Capt. Smith's command near Harney Lake. They were beaten off, however, without loss to the troops. The Indians had several killed.

What say the Democracy of Clackamas to their slanders? [Adams and Holbrook.]—Delusion's Medium.

ANSWER.—Foster..... 356 HOLBROOK..... 439. CLACKAMAS.

The first annual fair of the Clackamas County Agricultural Society, will be held at Oregon City on the 27th and 28th of September, 1860. We will publish the list of premiums and committees next week.

Gen. Harney paid our city a visit last week. He sailed on the last steamer for Washington City.

Under the head of "Errors Corrected," the Charleston Mercury has the following:

It is supposed that the seceding delegates from the Charleston Convention adjourned their meeting over to Richmond. They will, therefore, appear in the Richmond Convention, which will only be their meeting adjourned.

The Chicago Press and Tribune says:—Ten thousand inquiries will be made as to the looks, the habits, tastes, and other characteristics of Honest Old Abe. We anticipate a few of them.

Mr. Lincoln stands six feet four inches high in his stockings. His frame is not muscular, but gaunt and wiry; his arms are long, but not unreasonably so for a person of his height; his lower limbs are not disproportioned to his body.

His gait though firm is never brisk. He steps slowly and deliberately, almost always with his head inclined forward and his hands clasped behind his back. In matter of dress, he is by no means precise. Always clean, he is never fashionable; he is careless but not slovenly. In manner he is remarkably cordial, and, at the same time, simple. His politeness is always sincere, but never elaborate and oppressive.

His hair is black, and, though thin, is wiry. His head sits well on his shoulders, but beyond that it defies description. It nearer resembles that of Clay than Webster; but it is unlike either. It is very large and, phrenologically, well proportioned, betokening power in all its developments.

In his personal habits, Mr. Lincoln is as simple as a child. He loves a good dinner, and eats with the appetite which goes with a great brain; but his food is plain and nutritious. He never drinks intoxicating liquors of any sort, not even a glass of wine. He is not addicted to tobacco in any of its shapes.

He never gambles; we doubt if he ever indulges in any games of chance. He is particularly cautious about incurring pecuniary obligations for any purpose whatever; and, in debt, he is never content until the score is discharged. We presume he owes no man a dollar. He never speculates. The rage for the sudden acquisition of wealth never took hold of him.

He is a scrupulous teller of the truth—too exact in his notions to suit the atmosphere of Washington as it is now. His enemies may say that he tells Black-Republican lies; but no man ever charged that, in a professional capacity, or as a citizen dealing with his neighbors, he would depart from the Scriptural command. At home he lives like a gentleman of modest means and simple tastes.

His Mr. Lincoln is elected President, he will carry but little that is ornamental to the White House. The country must accept his sincerity, his ability, and his honesty in the mold in which they are cast. He will not be able to make as polite a bow as Frank Pierce, but he will not commence anew the agitation of the Slavery question by recommending to Congress any Kansas-Nebraska bills.

THE WOMEN AND WEDDINGS.—Ain't it curious weddin' is never out of women's heads? They never think of nothin' else. A young gal is always thinkin' of her own. As soon as she is married, she is a match-makin' for her companions; and when she is a grain older, her darter's weddin' is uppermost agin. Oh, it takes a great study to know a woman. How cunning they are!

Agent for the San Francisco Bulletin and All California, the best papers published on the Pacific coast. All kinds of Produce bought and sold on commission. June 26, 1860-12w3

Circular of the Oregon State Temperance Society. To the Friends of Temperance throughout the State, of every name, measure; or order:

RESPECTED FELLOW LABORERS:—Honest differences of opinion undoubtedly exist among us as to the best measures for the promotion of the temperance cause; but we are all agreed in our opposition to alcohol as a beverage, and we all see the need of more light among the people upon this subject. And now the question is, can we not all unite our labors on some general plan for the dissemination of temperance principles patiently and extensively?

We entertain great confidence in the zeal and fidelity of the ladies of Oregon in sustaining these concerts and giving them a high tone and commanding influence.—We also hope all our friends will aid our county Vice Presidents in collecting such important incidents arising in the course of the work among you as may be important for the temperance archives of the State and valuable for the future historian.

Will all the papers of the State be so kind as to copy this circular. Signed in behalf of the O. S. T. S., O. DICKINSON, Pres't. E. ARNOLD, Cor. Sec.

A TALE.—A few days since, a man living on Lower Molalla, having been absent a day or two at work, went home and accosted his wife with the very natural question, "How is your health?" to which she flatly replied, "It's none of your business."

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs. For sale by Dr. W. B. MOFFAT, 335 Broadway, New York, and by Medicine Dealers and Druggists generally throughout the country.

DELINQUENT.—E. M. Hall, Harrisburg (Thurs.) P. O., Linn county, owes this Office $14 for subscription.

MARRIED: In Champeo, on the 19th June, 1860, by John D. Crawford, Justice of the Peace, Mr. Israel L. Clark to Mrs. Christina Parish—both of Yamhill county.

DIED: In this city, July 2, 1860, of erump, CHARLES PAINE, son of S. W. Moss, aged 3 years and 4 months.

Notice: IS hereby given that my wife CHARLOTTE has absconded from my residence, taking one child with her. All persons are hereby warned not to harbor or trust her on my account, as I will pay no debts of her contracting.

CHARLES BARRETT, (OLD POST OFFICE,) PORTLAND, OGN., BUYS all kinds of FRUITS, STRAWBERRIES, Cherries, Apples, &c., &c.

Stationery, Newspapers, Periodicals, Novels, etc. Agent for the San Francisco Bulletin and All California, the best papers published on the Pacific coast.

Excutor's Notice: NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed executor of the estate of John Ross, dec'd, late of Clackamas county, Oregon.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed executor of the estate of John Ross, dec'd, late of Clackamas county, Oregon.

Address to the Jews. I propose to deliver an address on politics, at the COURT-HOUSE in Oregon City, on Saturday, July 14, 1860, at 1 o'clock P. M., showing how the Jews have been oppressed for the last 1800 years—showing the cause of their oppression now to be in the Democratic Party. I will be glad to hear me. C. A. CANTONWINE

A Card. My respects and thanks to those gentlemen and ladies who honored me with their presence at the funeral of my dear little CHARLEY, are as sincere as was my love for him.

The Ladies of the Sewing Circle desire to express their thanks to all the young gentlemen who so kindly assisted them in their preparations for the Sale.

Protective Union, Div. 503. At SALEM, will hold its next regular meeting on the last Wednesday, the 25th, of July, 1860, at 10 o'clock A. M. Business of importance requires the attendance of every member.

Multnomah Lodge No. 1. F. & A. M. holds its stated communications in the Sons of Temperance Hall, on the Saturday preceding the Full Moon in each month.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.

Dr. Mott's Phlegm Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females, and all cases of indigestion, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.