

The following reflections upon the national anniversary just passed, are from the pen of an esteemed and valued friend:

The Fourth.—The return of this day awakens the most profound national interest. It is a cheering fact that it is observed with less of intemperance and boisterous revelry, and more of sobriety and thoughtfulness, as our nation is assuming the responsibilities and passing through the trials of a mature age. Every citizen seems to feel the need of sober consideration.

Viewed as a great nation, free and prosperous, there is occasion for the eulogies so commonly bestowed upon the fathers and founders of the Republic. We unite in honoring them. But, beyond and above them, we have a benefactor, whose instruments were. God is the author and source of all our national blessings. The Bible is the groundwork of our strength. Are we thankful for freedom, as citizens? This came from the struggles of men who feared God and revered his word. Are we thankful for liberty of conscience? This liberty was denied to Wickliffe and John Huss, and for it the latter was burned at the stake. For it, the Reformation was carried forward. For it, there were successive and bloody struggles for centuries in England, and a war of thirty years in Germany. God at last gave victory to the cause of a free Bible, liberty of conscience, and, in a word, to personal independence and equal rights. Our liberties were not license to do wrong, or to commit injustice to any man,—but to secure to all "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness," in subservience to the laws of God. Our liberty is guarded. Our freedom is under the just control of the unchanging and eternal principles of right.

While, then, we rejoice in all that constitutes our nation's welfare, and honor the wisdom, bravery, and fidelity of the fathers, we will ascribe to the gracious providence of God all things that we possess and enjoy. He hath raised up our nation! He hath favored us above every other people! It is proper, and it is the duty of every Christian to observe the annual return of this day with special gratitude to God. Our prayers should ascend to Him. Our prayers should be offered to Him for the continuance of His favor.

The distinguished orator at Salem remarked truly that "the character of our people is the strength of our nation. We rest upon this, and not upon the excellence of the government, for the permanence of our institutions." Our prayers for the Divine favor ought to be accompanied with a profound sense of obligation to cultivate and cherish, in ourselves and in our children, that virtue which the Bible teaches, and which has been our Palladium.

SMITH AGAINST WILLIAMS.—The last Democrat has a heavy charge against Judge Williams, which shows how those brother Leases love each other. Smith says the reason the celebration of the 4th at Portland was a failure, arose from the fact that the Democracy would not hear the late Chief Justice, and concludes, "George H. Williams has made an ass of himself, and been made a tool of by others, and, in consequence, he richly merits the fate which inherently awaits him." Smith ought not to be so heavy on the Judge, for we understand that though he talked very bravely before election, he forgot it all when he went to the polls, and voted for Shell and Death and Stark; no wonder Delusion thinks it safe to abuse so feeble and weak a politician.

"In the first place, Albany owes us a debt."—Delusion's Medium.

A mistake, sir—a mistake! Albany overpaid you on the first Monday in June. By giving four majorities for Logan, the Albany precinct elected you to follow your old profession, thus not only discharging the old 'debt' to you, but to the country. One majority would have legally paid the debt, but the people of Albany being rather a pious people, thought that by paying 'four-fold' they would be fully clear in the eyes of God and man. You'd better give a receipt, Delusion.

DEAD.—George How, whose arm was blown off by the premature discharge of a cannon here two or three weeks since, died yesterday morning at 4 o'clock. Dr. Barclay informs us that the deceased was constitutionally diseased, having recovered only a short time before the accident from an attack of lung fever. His arm was healing finely, but he was dispirited, and sank rapidly from the first. Mr. How was near sixty years of age, and was from Ohio. His funeral will take place this morning at 10 o'clock. He will be buried by the Sons of Temperance. The funeral sermon will be preached by Rev. Mr. Atkinson, at the Methodist Church. The public are invited to be present.

Delusion calls the editor of the Advertiser 'Paddy Whack,' because the Advertiser is opposed to the election of Lane and Smith to the U. S. Senate.—Delusion, like the majority of Democratic aspirants, looks upon an Irish Democrat that supports him, this year, as "a noble son of the Emerald Isle,"—while the next year, if the same Democratic Irishman prefers another man for Senator, he is nothing but a poor 'Paddy Whack.'

On the first page will be found an interesting letter from our young friend, FRANK JOHNSON, of this city, who was one of the delegates from Oregon in the Republican Convention at Chicago. The letter is descriptive of some of the scenes in the Convention.

Mr. Silas R. Smith, of Linn City, returned from the Rock Creek mines this week. He reports about two hundred and fifty men on the Creek, mostly doing well. Mr. Smith started back immediately.

In a leader on the Chicago Convention, the N. O. Bee says that "in this action, black Republicanism has evinced base ingratitude, but crafty and prudent policy. It has treated its founder most nicely, but it has added materially to its own prospects of success."

DEATH OF PETER PARLEY.—We are advised of the death, in New York city, of S. G. Goodrich, so well known all over the country from his numerous entertaining volumes for children, written under the name of Peter Parley, and from his various contributions to useful knowledge generally. Peter Parley was in St. Louis only a few months ago, making arrangements for the dissemination of his latest work on Natural History. He died at a ripe old age, having fully performed his allotted part of the duties of life.

MARRYING.—There is a woman in New Orleans who was recently married to her eighth husband. She has married every year since 1852; each year one husband dies, but the widow loses no time in filling his place. It is said she has nothing prepossessing in her personal appearance except a fine set of teeth. Rousseau said no one could be homely who possessed that.

ICE CREAM.—Fred Charman keeps this delightful beverage. Call on him, who you want cooling off.

DELINQUENT.—E. M. Hall, Harrisburg (Thurston) P. O., Linn county, owes this Office $14 for subscription.

Tracy & Co. have our thanks for late papers.

"I can administer to a mind (and body) diseased, And with a sweet obdious antidote Cleanse the foul system of its perilous stuff!" —SAAKS. A Blessed & Divine Remedy SANGUIFEROUS NERVINE TONIC! Read my Theory of LIFE and DEATH.

WHAT most diseases prove fatal; that early deaths occur; that people live for years a living death, weak, inanimate, and exhausted—not from the disease itself, but from an inability in nature, and nature's strength to withstand or maintain life through the ravages of disease—Give them strength, and nature will relieve herself, if stimulated. She has given us herbs and plants to effect all this. Purify the blood, render the intestines, the liver, the heart, and all the natural functions of man or woman active, and you have half conquered disease. Dr. JACOB WEBBER does conscientiously assure all who read this, that his Sanguifer or Invigorating Cordial produces all the effect above described. He has seen the old, the tottering, the palsied, the nervous, the dyspeptic, the inebriate, the debauchee, and the invalid, revive under its influence, as if new life were given them.

Dr. Webber's Sanguifer acts on the blood, heart, brain, intestines, sinews, nerves, the fluids and semi-fluids, and the whole physique, and BENEFITS ALIKE the gloomy hypochondriac, the dyspeptic, the nervous, debilitated and feeble, the over-dressed invalid, the bilious and liver-diseased sufferer, the gourmand, the debauchee, the intemperate, and all who suffer ill health.

"OH HORRIBLE! OH HORRIBLE! Most Horrible!!" When worn-out nature succumbs to DEATH, because she has no strength to resist. Now, Dr. Jacob Webber's Invigorating Cordial causes strength—that is its main quality. The first operation, therefore, the partaker feels that satisfaction is caused—his skin is damp, his limbs supple and active, he feels a wish for exercise, and knows he has strength to endure it; he is light-spirited; his skin becomes clear; his eyes, too, because his liver is made active, the bile neutralized or ejected, and his blood thinned and purified. If he has a foul stomach, this acts as an aperient, not otherwise. Again, it immediately relieves belching, and prevents an accumulation of wind in the stomach. The stomach, the great receiver of disease and its cure. I will now enumerate a few of those diseases where I have seen Dr. Webber's Invigorating Cordial act most beautifully:

Nervousness, Weakness, Languor, Fever and Ague, Chills, Pains in the Limbs, Joints, Body, Delirium Tremens, Tremors, Constitutional Decline, (from any cause,) Debility in either sex or age, Torpor of the Liver, Bowels, & HABITUAL CONSTIPATION!!

This will purify the thick stagnant blood, cause a healthy action on the bowels, heart, skin, and brain, and thereby revolutionize the whole system, which has become dormant and inactive. Two thirds of human diseases are caused from some of the above organs being disorganized. Doctors may tell you that you have such and such a disease, but until medical practice becomes a science (and it is not yet), disease cannot be described to a certainty. This singular medicine gradually strengthens the system, enters at once the blood, which from sluggishness is rapid, courses through the veins and the heart. Many I have seen who assured me that, three days after using it, they have felt a thrill of animation, mentally and bodily; their chest and breast were before heavy; all they ate seemed to settle there; their rest was unequal; their appetite poor; and that this really blessed cordial removed all such symptoms; that strength of limbs, body, appetite, and spirits was given them by it, and an entire revolution in their worn-out system occurred.

The Rev. Robert Schuyler, of Petaluma, says: "For years both myself and brother have suffered from dyspepsia, weakness of and sour stomach, indigestion and flatulence, that life at times was a burden. We have used your Cordial (Dr. Webber's Invigorating Sanguifer) four days, and feel better than we have for years."

Inebriates and Drunkards! READ! The Appetite for Liquor Destroyed! ONE of the beautiful properties possessed by DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL is that it removes all longing or taste for liquor—Many inebriates have found that after it has renewed and strengthened them, quieted their nerves, it has caused aversion to spirits. I have seen it cure some of the most frightful cases where delirium tremens had actually occurred. Sold by all respectable Druggists in Oregon and California. Beware of Counterfeits!—See that the names of T. JONES and J. WEBBER, M. D., are on the top of each outside wrapper, and blown in the glass of each bottle. Buy none other!

No More Mills Burnt! MR. BOOTH—DEAR SIR: I have now in my Mill one of your Centre Feed Fire-proof SMUT MACHINES, put up two weeks ago—I can say that I consider it the greatest improvement in the class of machinery that has come under my notice. The danger from fire by friction and dust, common to the one in general use, is completely obviated. The dust and dirt, heretofore so annoying to me, is now effectually remedied. That part of the mill before occupied by the Smut Machine is now as clean as any part of the mill. I can say that it is the best sifter of grain I ever saw. The improvement in the quality of flour will be at once discovered; in fact, the great change produced in every respect is indeed a very great one. I would say that I have had in mill previous to this machine that out the grain very much, but this does not cut a kernel, and does not require half the power. Your machine will certainly take the preference in this State, and I would say on the Pacific coast.

A. J. CHAPMAN. ISLAND MILLS, Oregon City, May 24, 1860. WM. MASTERS, Agent, Portland, Oregon.

To the Millers of this State: You will never regret trying this Smut Mill.—You can call and see how this cleans wheat, before purchasing. I have the only one in Oregon, at present, but they can soon be obtained. I would say that my flour has had a great reputation in the last two years, and I am satisfied by the use of this smut mill that it will make an improvement in the flour, if any can be made. A. J. CHAPMAN. Oregon City, May 26, 1860. 7d
