Bright o'er the earth the star of eve Her radiant beauty sheds, And myriad sisters calmly weave Their lights around our heads.

Rest, man, from labor, rest from sin! The world's hard contest close! The holy hours with God begin-Yield thee to sweet repose!

Bright o'er the earth the morning ray Its sacred light will cast: Bright emblem of the glorious day That evermere shall last!

GRAVEYARD OF THE HEART. - Somebody mentioned the "Graveyard of the Heart." It is a startling phrase, and we suppose it is descriptive of the place where expired hopes, extinct love, and dead ambition are entombed. Time is the grave digger, Despair weaves the shroud, Memory fills the funeral train, and Regret surmounts each the sleep of the dead is one of unrest; Hope has a summer lodge in that silent valley, and sometimes works among the tombs, striking the coffin lids with his staff, ever and anon starting a pale citizen of the pal-lid realm to stand disquieted before him, like Samuel in the presence of the En-chantress of Endor. But, if there be sorrowful mounds in that inner world, there are also fragrant flower gardens, sacred temples, and perpetually leaping fountains, singing birds, and laughing children who go about gathering flowers in the "grave-yard of the heart." And there is in it a little Vale of Avoca, where memory loves to linger in expectation that some inhabitant of the necropolis, not dead but sleeping, may have been uncoffined by the sexton, Hope.—Sierra Citizen.

Tacrn.—There is never a word of truth spoken, that does not reach the heart, that does not touch some soul. There never is a noble life, that does not have an influence, even in its own time, as a sun-burst through the clouds on a cloudy day will through the clouds on a cloudy day will manifest itself here and there. And if it reaches no other class, you may be sure it will touch the people. It is the people, after all, whose great pulse throbs to a mighty truth. Whose warm heart sees enough of the truth to say, "Hosanna, blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord."-Chapin.

Some of our fair countrywomen cannot join associations where those in humble garb and place are admitted to the same altar. Some forgiven Magdalene, or Lazarus, made rich by the love of God, may wear crowns of glory when those who scorned them are not known on the re- SANDS' SARSAPARILLA,

It has long been a most important desideratum in the practice of medicine, to obtain a remedy similar to this, and accordingly we find it resorted to almost universally in all those formenting disdisinfectant. It nots simultaneously upon the STOMACH, the CERCULATION, and the sowers, and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the re-sult of runant different kinds of medicine, are car-ried on at the same time through the instrumentality of run one remedial agent. Its great merit is that it meets and neutralizes the active principle of disease itself, and when that is gone, the symptonus necessarily disappear. The rapolity with which the patient recovers health and strength under this triple influence is surprising.

REMARKABLE CURE.

LINE COUNTY, Oregon Ter., } March 11, 1855. Mersets, A. B. & D. Saxes, New York; Gen-demen,—In the spring of 1853, while on our way from Indiana to this place, our eid-st boy was saized with a swelling and severe pains in the legs which day by day grew worse, until his legs con-inacted, and became so painful that he could not walk, and we had to carry him about like an in-fant. We reached Albany on the 3d of October, completely worn out by fatigue. By this time, he was reduced to a perfect skeleton. Here we were enabled to consult a physician (Dr. Hill), who hencestly confessed he could not cure him, although he could give him medicine that would re-lieve the pain. In this exigency something must be done, or death was inevitable. Being recom-mended to try your Sarsuparilla, I procured a bottie. After taking some, he appeared worse; but persevering with it, I obtained a second bottle. which seemed to grapple with the disease, and caused a marked improvement: the swelling and pain in the legs were reduced, his appetite improved, and his color began to return. Thus encouraged, I purchased a third bottle; while taking it the swellings in his legs broke, and some pieces of bone one eighth of an inch long came out, after which his legs straightened and healed up. He is now perfectly recovered has no appearance of being a cripple, and can perform most kinds of common labor, as all our neighbors can certify. Yours, respectfully,

DELICIOUS JUICE OF THE MEDICATED WITH JUNIPER, RHUBARB, PERUVIAN BARK

Tills is simply the fermented junce and the distilled junce of the California grape, judiciously medicated with Peruvion Bark, turkey less, yet active, tonic, alterative, anti-dyspeptic, diaretic, anti-febrile, and sedative beverage, picas-

The inventor, in calling the attention of the public (especially the Californians who know the excellence of the California grape) to these preparations, does so with pride and confidence; pride in proving the excellence of our native graps, and confidence in their remedial virtues, adapted for the following diseases:

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Ha-bitual Constipation, Acidity of, or Saur Stamach, Diseases of the Kidney, Gravel, Disarders of the Urinary

Organs, Remittent and Inter-mittent Forers, Fever & Ague, Nervousness, Weakness, Debility, Deyness of the Skin, or want of Perspiration, Pains in the Stamach or Bowels, Choic, Dysentery, &c., &c. The proprietor does not pretend that his Medicated California Wine and Brandy is a "wonder or a miracle" in medical science, but appeas to the common sense of the public, and he does not hesitate to avow that he knows from experience that the med cines in this, though small in quantity, will often effect a cure in some of the discases enomerated, when more violent and power

I do hereby certify that, after a minute and careful analytical examination of the California signed by the county court of Clackamas county, wine and brandy, manufactured by Dr. James L. on the estate of Geo. W. Howe, deceased, late of Farquar, in order to ascertain its composition and quality. I have, after various experiments, arrived at the following result: The wine is of a very agreeable taste, light color, and agreeable aroma, and consists of grape sugar 9-30, volatile oil 2-13, tonic need 1-73, coloring matter 1-84, alcohol 9 64, water 73-10, bi-tartrate of potassia 0-97, sul phate of potassia 0-45, sait 0-84.

It can be taken by the most delicate of either sex, and is moderation by children.
