

To Italy.
Who in this letter day shall dare arise
To pierce the cloud that overhangs thy skies,
Fair, trustful Italy!

Nor Lost.—The following beautiful sentiment, in regard to the future condition of our children, is from the pen of Henry Ward Beecher:

"When God gives me a babe, I say, 'I thank God for this lamp lit in my family.' And when, after it has been a light in my household for one or two years, it pleases God to take it away, I can take the cup, bitter or sweet. I can say, 'My light has gone out; my hopes are desolated; my child is lost!' or I can say, in the spirit of Job, 'The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, blessed be the name of the Lord!' It has pleased God to take five children from me; but I never lost one, and never shall."

"Honesty is the best policy."—We have heard this from our youth up, but honesty is something better than policy—it creates self-respect, requires confidence, inspires contentment, and insures success. A large lumber merchant, and a scrupulously-honest man, of Boston, who, from small beginnings, arose to be a man of wealth and influence, once said: "If I had no moral principle, I should say, I believe that the surest way to make a fortune is to be strictly honest." Think of this, young men. Commercial integrity is sound philosophy.

THE COMPANION TO CHOOSE.—The most agreeable of all companions is a simple, frank man, without any high pretensions to an oppressive greatness; one who loves life, and understands the use of it; obliging alike at all hours; above all, of a golden temper, and steadfast as an anchor.—For such a one we gladly exchange the greatest genius, the most brilliant wit, the profoundest thinker.

Love is a lively romance; marriage is a dry and dreary history. A married man has nothing farther to expect; he must sit down quietly and wait for death.

A generous man will place the benefits he confers beneath his feet—those he receives, nearest his heart.

It has long been a most important desideratum in the practice of medicine, to obtain a remedy similar to Cin, and accordingly we find it resorted to almost universally in all those tormenting diseases of the skin so trying to the patience, and injurious to the health. It is a tonic, aperient, and disinfecant. It acts simultaneously upon the stomach, the circulation, and the bowels, and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the result of various different kinds of medicine, are effected at the same time through the instrumentality of this one remedial agent. Its great merit is that it meets and neutralizes the active principle of disease itself, and when that is gone, the symptoms necessarily disappear. The rapidity with which the patient recovers health and strength under this triple influence is surprising.

REMARKABLE CURE.
LANS COUNTY, Oregon Ter.,
March 11, 1853.
Messrs. A. B. & D. SANDS, New York: Gentlemen,—In the spring of 1853, while on our way from Indiana to this place, our old-tid boy was seized with a swelling and severe pain in the legs which day by day grew worse, until his legs could not walk, and became so painful that he could not rest, and we had to carry him about like an infant. We reached Albany on the 3d of October, completely worn out by fatigue. By this time, he was reduced to a perfect skeleton. Here we were enabled to consult a physician (Dr. Hill), who kindly confessed he could not cure him, although he could give him medicine that would relieve the pain. In this exigency something must be done, or death was inevitable. Being recommended to try your Sarsaparilla, I procured a bottle. After taking some, he appeared worse; but persevering with it, I obtained a second bottle, which seemed to grapple with the disease, and caused a marked improvement; the swelling and pain in the legs were reduced, his appetite improved, and his color began to return. This encouraged, I purchased a third bottle; while taking it the swellings in his legs broke, and some pieces of bone eight or an inch long came out, after which his legs straightened and healed up. He is now perfectly recovered, has no appearance of being a cripple, and can perform most kinds of common labor, as all our neighbors can certify. Yours, respectfully, CALEB DAVIS.

THIS is simply the fermented juice of the distilled juice of the California grape, judiciously medicated with Peruvian Bark, juniper, rhubarb, and other vegetable medicinal agents, skillfully combined, and in such minute and exact quantities as to constitute a small or homoeopathic dose of each remedy; which when combined form an innocuous, harmless, yet active, tonic, aperient, anti-dyspeptic, diuretic, anti-febrile, and sedative beverage, pleasant to the taste.

The inventor, in calling the attention of the public (especially the Californians who know the excellence of the California grape) to these preparations, does so with pride and confidence; pride in proving the excellence of our native grape, and confidence in their remedial virtues, adapted for the following diseases:

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Habitual Constipation, Acidity of, or Sour Stomach, Diseases of the Kidney, Gravel, Disorders of the Urinary Organs, Remittent and Intermitting Fevers, Fever & Ague, Nervousness, Weakness, Debility, Dryness of the Skin, or want of Perspiration, Pains in the Stomach or Bowels, Cholera, Dysentery, &c., &c.

The proprietor does not pretend that his Medicated California Wine and Brandy is a "wonder or a miracle" in medical science, but he does to the common sense of the public, and he does not hesitate to avow that he knows from experience that the medicines in this, though small in quantity, will often effect a cure in some of the diseases enumerated, when more violent and powerful remedies have failed in their object.

A Blessed & Divine Remedy
SANGUIFEROUS NERVINE TONIC!

Read my Theory of LIFE and DEATH.
WHAT most diseases prove fatal; that early death occurs; that people live for years a living death, weak, inactive, and exhausted—not from the disease itself, but from an inability in nature, and nature's strength to withstand or maintain life through the ravages of disease.—Give them strength, and nature will relieve herself, if stimulated. She has given us herbs and plants to effect all this. Purify the blood, render the intestines, the liver, the heart, and all the natural functions of man or woman active, and you have had conquered disease. Dr. JACOB WEBBER does conscientiously assure all who read this, that his Sanguiferous Nervine Tonic produces all the effect above described. He has seen the old, the infirm, the debilitated, the nervous, the dyspeptic, the indolent, the debauchee, and the invalid revive under its influence, as if new life were given them.

Dr. Webber's Sanguifer
acts on the blood, heart, brain, intestines, sinews, nerves, the fluids and semi-fluids, and the whole physique, and
BENEFITS ALIKE
the gloomy hypochondriac, the dyspeptic, the nervous, the indolent, the feeble, the over-dressed invalid, the bilious and liver-diseased sufferer, the gourmand, the debauchee, the intemperate, and all who suffer ill health.
"OH HORRIBLE! OH HORRIBLE! Most Horrible!!!"
When worn-out nature succumbs to DEATH, because she has no strength to resist. Now, Dr. Jacob Webber's Invigorating Cordial causes strength—that is its main quality. The first operation, Taste; the patient feels then that animation is coming—the skin is damp, his limbs supple and active, he feels a wish for exercise, and knows he has strength to endure it; he is light-spirited; his skin becomes clear; his eyes, too, because his liver is made active, the bile neutralized or ejected, and his blood thinned and purified. If he has a foul stomach, this acts as an aperient, not otherwise. Again, it immediately relieves belching, and prevents an accumulation of wind in the stomach. The stomach, the great receiver of disease and its cure. I will now enumerate a few of those diseases which I have seen Dr. Webber's Invigorating Cordial act most beneficially:

Nervousness, Weakness, Langnor, Fever and Ague, Chills, Pains in the Limbs, Joints, Body, Delirium Tremens, Tremors, Constitutional Decline, (from any cause,) Debility in either sex or age, Torpor of the Liver, Bowels, & HABITUAL CONSTIPATION!! is that purify the thick stagnant blood, cause a healthy action on the bowels, heart, skin, and brain, and thereby revolutionize the whole system, which has become dormant and inactive. Two thirds of human diseases are caused from some of the above organs being disorganized. Doctors may tell you that you have such and such a disease, but until medical practice becomes a science (and it is not yet), disease cannot be described to a certainty. This singular medicine gradually strengthens the system, enters at once the blood, which from sluggishness is rapid, courses through the veins and the heart. Many I have seen who assured me that, three days after using it, they have felt a thrill of animation, mentally and bodily; their chest and breast was before heavy; all they ate seemed to settle there; their rest was unquiet; their appetite poor; and that this really blessed cordial removed all such symptoms, that strength of limbs, body, appetite, and spirits was given them by it, and an entire revolution in their worn-out system occurred.

The Rev. Robert Selinger, of Petaluma, says: "For years both myself and brother have suffered so from dyspepsia, weakness of our stomach, indigestion and flatulence, that life at times was a burden. We have used your Cordial (Dr. Webber's Invigorating Sanguifer) four days, and feel better than we have for years."

Inebriates and Drunkards!
READ!!
ONE of the beautiful properties possessed by
DR. WEBBER'S
INVIGORATING CORDIAL
is that it removes all longing or taste for liquor.—Many inebriates have found that after it has renewed and strengthened them, quitted their nerves, it has caused aversion to spirits. I have seen it cure some of the most frightful cases of delirium tremens had actually occurred.
