THAT most diseases prove fatal; that early deaths occur, that people live toryears a living death, weak, manimule, and exhausted - not from the disease itself, but from an mab nature, and nature's strength to withstand or maintain life through the ravages of disease. Give them strongth, and nature will relieve her-self, if stimulated. She has given us herbs and plants to effect all this. Purify the blood, render the intestines, the liver, the heart, and all the natural functions of man or woman active, and con have half compared disease. Dr. JACOB WEBBER dies conscientionally assure all who read this, that his Sanguiffer or Invigorating Cordial produces all the eff of above described. He has seen the old, the totter ug, the pulsed, the nervous, the dysp pile, the inebriate, the debau-

"OH HORRIBLE! OH HORRIBLE! Most Horrible!!!"

When worn-out nature succum'ss to DEATH, When worn out nature succum's to DEATH, because she has not strength to resist. Now, Dr. Jacob Webber's Invagorating Cordial causes strength—that wits main quanty. The first operation, Tanic; the paraker feels then that andution a caused—his skin is damp, his limbs supple and active, he feels a wish for excress, and knows he has atrength to endure it; he is light-paritied, his skin becomes clear; his even ton, he spirited: haskin becomes clear; his eyes, too, be-cause his liver is made active, the bile neutral-ized or ejected, and his blood thinned and pari-fied. If he has a foul stomach, this acts as an aperient, not otherwise. Again, it immediately relieves beaching, and prevents an accumulation of wind in the stomach. The stomach, the great receiver of disease and its cure. I will now enumerate a few of those diseases where I have seen Dr. Webber's Invigorating Cordial act most beau-

Horors may tell you that you have such and such a disease, but until medical practice becomes a science (and it is not yet), disease cannot be described to a certanty. This singular mediciae gradually strengthens the system, enters at once the blood, which from sluggishness is rapid, courses through the vens and the heart. Many I have seen who assured me that, three days after using it, they have feet a thrill of an matton, mentally and bod-ily; their chest and breast was before heavy; all they are see ned to settle there; their rest was unquiet; their appet to poor; and that this really bessel cordial removed all such symptoms; that strength of limbs, body, appetite, and spirits was given them by it, and an entire revolution in their worn-out system occurred.

The Rev. Robert Schnyler, of Petalama, says: " For years both myself and brother have suffered so from despeps a weakness of and sour stomach. in igostion and flatalence, that life at times was a b.rde..
