The Bishop of Gloucester's Story.

From Robert Owen's "Footfalls on the Boundary of Another World." Having lately had the honor to hear the relation of an apparition from the Lord Bishop of Gloucester, and it being too late for me to insert it in the proper place in the book, I give it to you here by way of postscript as follows:—

SUMMARY ARTICLES.

We have received the first number of the Washington Standard, published at Olympia, Washington Territory, by JONAS M. MURPHY, Esq. It is a large paper, printed on new type, and looks well.

ITEMS.—The N. Y. Herald's Washington dispatch states that intelligence from a reliable source says a residence for the Pope is to be prepared at Brussels.

Sheridan Knowles, lost in the steamer Arctic, was not the author, but the Philadelphia agent of the American Bank Note Co., charged with the performance of work by the Emperor of Russia.

At Baltimore, on the evening of Nov. 1, 250 Wide Awakes paraded the streets, protected by 300 police. A fight was expected, but nothing of consequence took place.

There is some talk of a duel between Jeff Davis and ex-Gov. Henry S. Foote.

Gen. Harney has been granted leave of absence for a year to visit Europe. The loss of his wife, and the difficulties growing out of the San Juan affair, have deeply affected this gallant soldier.

The Nebraska election for Delegate to Congress, is finally decided. J. S. Morton (Dem.) has received the certificate, he having 14 maj.

SQUATTER SOVEREIGNTY EXPLAINED.—A Douglas speaker at Syracuse was asked to define Douglas's position upon the slavery question. He said:

"Mr. Douglas believes that if slavery ain't a mind to go where she is a mind to, she may stay where she is, if she doesn't want to, subject to the decision of the Supreme Court, and of the people of the Territories when they are agreed on that point."

His explanation was taken as satisfactory by his audience.

Since arrangements have been made for the publication of a republican paper at Olympia, the disunion sheet of that place has lost a portion of its asperity and speaks with some independence of some of the imbecile and wasteful acts of government.

It condemns in unmeasured terms the mockery of protection pretended to be given to emigrants through the Italian country; and denounces the wasteful extravagance of expending $200,000 to build a fort at Colville—an amount of money that would have built a string of forts the whole length of Snake river.

HIBERNIAN.—The Stockton Argus tells of a Frenchman and an Irishman who recently left that city on a hunting excursion, to the latter having been assigned the duty of providing the powder and shot. After traveling some twenty-five miles, the anticipated game being in view, it was discovered that the Irishman's flask contained nothing but whiskey.

The citizens of Seattle petitioned Col. Wright to open the route from that place, via Snoqualmie pass, to the gold mines on Wenatchee river. Col. Wright admits the work to be necessary; but the government has provided no money for that purpose.

The Portland Times now frankly admits that the election of Col. Baker as Senator carried 300 democratic votes to the republican party.

Whenever you find a great deal of gratitude in a poor man, you may take it for granted there would be as much generosity if he were a rich man.

An indiscreet man is more hurtful than an ill-natured one; the latter attacks only his enemies—the other injures friends and foes alike.

The population of New Orleans is about 200,000.

How to construct Cider Filters.

Cider will one day be a staple of Oregon. If it can be made to take the place of strychnine whiskey, it will effect an improvement in morals as it will certainly exhibit an improvement in taste. Our fruit is perfect and the best article can be made of it.

Vegetable Oyster or Musty.

This excellent vegetable is rarely cultivated by our farmers. It is very easily grown. It can be cultivated as parsnips, and like them can remain in the ground all winter, and you can take them up as you want to use them.

Commence cooking the vegetable oyster in October. Scrape them and split them into thin slips; boil them tender in milk and water, season them well with pepper, butter and salt; make a nice toast, moistened in the gravy laid in the bottom of the dish, and pour the whole over it.

There should be but a suitable quantity of gravy. Too much lessens the flavor.—Cooked thus, you scarcely detect the difference from true oysters. Some prefer the following mode of cooking them: Cut up the roots, chop them fine, parboil and fry in butter. Others prefer to boil the roots tender, and fry them whole in butter. In either way they make a capital dish.

THE FEELING IN ALABAMA AND SOUTH CAROLINA.

The Central Bank of Alabama, in a card published in the Montgomery papers, says that in view of the revolutionary aspect of the country, she will decline discounting any paper until after the election.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

A letter of Oct. 25th, to the New York Herald says: The distinguished Southern Statesman I alluded to as about to accept the Department of State under Lincoln, is understood to be William C. Rives of Virginia, and rumor adds that John M. Reed of Philadelphia, and Mr. Pettigrew of South Carolina, will become members of the Cabinet.

Senator Irverson of Georgia has published a letter declaring that any Southern man who would accept office from a Republican President ought to be condemned and ostracized by universal public sentiment, and that he would vote against the confirmation of every Southern nominee.

South Carolina's position is defined, and so is Alabama's, by resolves of their respective Legislatures adopted last winter.—The Convention to be called by the Governors will probably decide that Lincoln's election is a casus belli.

From Europe.—We have dates to Oct. 20th. Victor Emanuel had not reached Naples. The movement of French troops upon Ciserna and other places within fifty miles of Rome, caused great dissatisfaction among the inhabitants.

It is reiterated that Austrian troops were largely concentrated on the frontier, and that 40,000 had crossed the Po at Mantua.

The French bishops and clergy continued to boldly and vigorously defend the Papal cause. It was believed that the Pope's Nuncio at Paris would not return.

A Gotha newspaper states that the youngest daughter of the Duke of Leiningen is the destined bride of the Prince of Wales.

THE MONSTER GUN.—The Board appointed to test Capt. Rodman's fifteen-inch gun, have made a favorable report, but advise further experiments. The Secretary of War has ordered the trial to be continued until the gun shall have been fired five hundred times.

The longest range acquired was 5,730 yards, with 40 pounds of powder, and a shell weighing 321 pounds,—the elevation being 28 deg. The shell was in the air 27 seconds. At an elevation of five deg., the shell struck at 2,000 yards; on a level, 1,785 yards. A shell, with seventeen pounds of powder, exploded in the sand, opening a crater three feet deep, twelve feet long, and ten feet wide. After the sixty-fourth shot, the gun was examined with a star-gauge, and no enlargement was found.

FROM CHINA.—Letters from our Minister in China state that the Allies had struck the Tartar camp, and that the Chinese fled in disorder. The grand attack on the Tartar forces would take place on the 15th August.

Maj. Donaldson, of the Army, now stationed in New Mexico, has sent to Baltimore a very novel prize. It consists of a whole herd of four-horned rams, which was captured from the Navajo Indians in 1858, and condemned as a military prize.

It has been ascertained, by experiment, that good fresh yeast, taken internally, is a sovereign remedy for putrid sore throat. It gives almost instant relief.
