HIGHER LIFE .- Men are so inclined to content themselves with what is commonest; the spirit and the sense so easily grow dead to the impression of the beautiful and the perfect—that every one should study, by all methods, to nourish in his mind the faculty of feeling these things. For no man can bear to be entirely deprived of such enjoyments; it is only because they are not used to taste of what is excellent. that the generality of people take delight in silly and insipid things, provided they are new. For this reason, one ought, every day at least, to read a good poem, see a fine picture, and if it were possible, to speak a few reasonable words. - Goethe.

DEPENDENCY .- The race of markind would perish, did they cease to aid each other. From the time the mother binds the child's head till the moment that some kind assistant wipes the death damp from the brow of the dying, we can not exist without mutual help. All, therefore, that need aid, have a right to ask it of their fellow mortals. No one who has the power of granting it can refuse it without guilt.

Since the exciting times of the reformation in the sixteenth century, the city of Edinburgh has seen nothing like the scenes of religious interest which are occurring in that venerable capital of North Britain within the last few weeks. The persons who have conducted the religious exercises belong to the highest ranks.

Great events may be traced back to great thoughts, which stand to them in the same relation as obscure progenitors to illustrious descendants.

Roman Eye Balsam,

FOR WEAK & INFLAMED EYES.

THIS BALSAM was used for many tears in the private practice of a celebrated Oculist, with remarkable success, for diseases of the Eye

There are many persons who would rather suffer from pain and disease through ice, than credit or try the efficacy of any n.w discovery; all such had better not read this, but to all reasonable persons this preparation is recommended as a most safe and effectual cure for inflammation of the Eye and Eyelds, caused either by too close application to minute objects, serofulous habit ex-posure to cold, blows, contusions, or irritation from any extraneous body under the cyclids. It is remarkablely soothing in its effect, and has cured thousands who would otherwise have lost

In cases the Eyelida are inflamed, or the ball of the Eye thickly covered with blood, it acts almost ike magic and removes all appearances of inflammation after two or three applications. There is a numerous class of persons that are peculiarly exposed to accidents or diseases that weaken and inflame the Eyes, and perhaps destroy the sight, who, from the nature of the remp syments,

THAT most diseases prove fatal; that early deaths occur, that people I ve tor years a by on the disease itself, but from an inability in nature, and nature's strength to withstand or maintain life through the ravages of disease.— Give them strength, and nature will relieve here self, if stimulated. She has given us herbs and plants to effect all this. Purify the blood, reader the intestines, the liver, the heart, and all the matural functions of man or woman active, and you have half conquered disease. Dr. JACOB WEBBER does conscientiously assure all who read the, that his Sunguifier or Invigorating Cordial produces all the effect above described. He has seen the old, the tottering, the palsied, the nervous, the dysp ptic, the inebriate, the debaucher, and the invalid revive under its influence, as if new life were given them.

If he has a foul atomach, this acts as an aperient, not otherwise. Again, it immediately relieves belching, and prevents an accumulation of wind in the stomach.
