Can deeper joy impart,
Than hosts of words which reach the head
But never touch the heart. A voice that wins its sunny way, A lonely home to cheer, Hath oft the fewest words to say But, O, those few, how dear!

Expressions of Dress .- Women are more like flowers than we think. In their dress and adornment they express their na tures, as the flowers in their petals and colors. Some women are like the modest daisies and violets; they never look or feel better than when dressed in a morning wrapper. Others are not themselves, unless they can flame out in gorgeous dyes, like the tulip or blush rose. Who has not seen women just like white lilies? We know several double marigolds and poppies. There are women fit only for velvets, like the azeleas. Now and then, you see hollyhocks and sunflowers. When women are free to dress as they like, uncontrolled by others, and not limited by their circumstances, they do not fail to express their true characters, and dress becomes a form of expression very genuine and useful.

-Some one has beautifully said: "The water that flows from a spring does not congeal in winter, and those sentiments of friendship which flow from the heart cannot be frozen by adversity."

-The French sailing frigate Isis has just completed a voyage of circumnavigation with more than ordinary rapidity, having sailed around the globe in two hundred and ten days.

-A contemporary, noticing a Postmaster, says: "If he attends to the mails as well as he does to the females, he will make a very attentive and efficient officer."

-Prentice defines what man wants-all he can get. What woman wants-all she can't get.

Roman Eye Balsam,

FOR WEAK & INFLAMED EYES

THIS BALSAM was used for many years in the private practice of a celebrated Oculist, with remarkable success, for discuses of the Eye and Evelids.

There are many persons who would rather suffer from pain and disease through life, than credit or try the efficacy of any new discovery; all such had better not read this, but to all reasona-ble persons this preparation is recommended as a most safe and effectual cure for inflammation of the Kye and Eyelids, caused either by too close application to minute objects, scrofulous habit, exposure to cold, blows, contusions, or irritation from any extraneous body under the cyclids.
It is remarkably soothing in its effect, and has cured thousands who would otherwise have lost their sight

In cases the Eyelids are inflamed, or the ball of the Eye thickly covered with blood, it acts almost like magic and removes all appearances of inflammation after two or three applications. There is a numerous class of persons that are peculiarly exposed to accidents or diseases that weaken and inflame the Eyes, and perhaps destroy the sight, who, from the nature of their employments, are compelled to work in a cloud of dust and grit. Such should never be without this BALSAM.

BROAD - CAST SEED - SOWER. Patented, March 29, 1859. THIS machine is well adapted to sowing all kinds of grain and grass seed, hemp seed, It sows more regularly than can possibly be a by hand, or any other machine ever introduced. It is perfectly simple in its construction, and not liable to get out of order; it is easily an derstood, and does away with the hard manual labor of sowing grain—doing the same amount of labor in two hours that could be done in one day by the ordinary method of sowing. The machine can be carried while being used, as it we'ghs but five pounds, or, by a simple frame, it can be attached to a wagon. When it is carried, it is strapped on the body of the operator, a strap to go across the right shoulder and under the left arm, also astrap buckled around the body, and a strap from the two these strap from the two these strap. strap from the top of the sack, around the neek.
