

A PRELATE ON PATRIOTISM. — Archbishop Hughes, of New York, wrote a letter to the great Union meeting in New York, in which he said: "Still desirous of peace, when the providence of God shall have brought it, I may say that since the period of my naturalization I have but one country. In reference to my duties as a citizen, no change has come over my mind since then. The Government of the United States was then, as it is now, symbolized by a national flag, popularly called the "Stars and Stripes." This has been my flag and shall be to the end. I trust it is still destined to display over the globe, and in the gales that sweep every ocean, and amid the gentle breezes of many a distant shore, as I have seen it in foreign lands, its own peculiar waving lines of beauty. May it live and continue to display these same waving lines of beauty, whether at home or abroad, for a thousand years and after, as long as Heaven permits, without limit or duration."

LATHAM ON THE WAR.—The Marysville Appeal says that in his speech in Marysville and Nevada, Senator Latham declared in the most unequivocal language that it is the duty of every loyal citizen to sustain Lincoln's Administration, and that it was his intention to work with his colleagues in the Senate to aid the Government in all in his power to enforce the laws and preserve the Union. He fully recognized the existence of war, and avowed himself, if we can understand tolerably vigorous English, in favor of waging it to the extermination of rebellion.

THE VOICE OF DANIEL WEBSTER.—The following patriotic words by the "Defender of the Constitution" seem to be specially adapted to the present hour: "If the Constitution cannot be maintained without meeting these scenes of commotion and contest, however unwelcome, they must come. We cannot, we must not, omit to do that which, in our judgment, the safety of the Union requires. Not regardless of consequences, we must yet meet consequences; seeing the hazards which surround the discharge of public duty, it must yet be discharged."

MISTAKE.—The report that the remains of Washington had been removed from Mount Vernon, turns out to be unfounded. Three officers of the Federal army at Washington made a visit in disguise to the resting place of the Patriot, to satisfy themselves of the truth of the rumor, and found that the tomb had not been molested.

THE FLAGS IN THIS CITY were all raised at half mast on Thursday afternoon, when the news of the death of Senator Douglas was received.

TRACY & CO'S EXPRESS.—Messrs. Chairman & Warner have been appointed agents for Tracy & Co. in this city, and the office is now at their store.

CAMP-MEETING ON ROCK CREEK. —En route: I have just returned from the Methodist camp-meeting on Rock Creek, and will give you a sketch of the meeting. Thrats had been made of retaliation on this meeting for the treatment of the South Church on Howell Prairie. On Friday morning the Stars and Stripes were raised over the stand, and on Sabbath at 11 o'clock Rev. T. H. Pearce preached from part of the 5th verse of the 20th Psalm: "In the name of our God we will set up our banners." He alluded to the banners of different nations, and then referred to the glorious old flag that proudly floated in the breeze above us as the emblem of our country's greatness—that it was a beacon-light for the oppressed of every land, and that if it was torn under by traitorous hands, their last hope was gone, and gone forever. He then went on to describe the Christian warfare under the banner of the Cross. When Mr. Pearce referred to the flag of our country, a few individuals "recoiled" from the camp ground, looking more like sheep-killing dogs than anything else.

There were about 600 persons present, and the best of order prevailed, except on Saturday night, when a very weak attempt was made to pull down the flag, but getting caught at it, the scoundrels ran to their horses, and went off howling like fiends. Some of our patriotic young men volunteered to guard the flag till morning. w. n. o.

A Good IDEA.—We learn that the City Council at its last meeting had under consideration the propriety of passing an ordinance prohibiting the throwing of stones in the streets by the boys.—This kind of sport, latterly, has become quite a nuisance here, and should be suppressed by some means.

NADA'S SARSAPARILLA.—This purely vegetable remedy combines in itself the properties of an Anodyne, a mild cathartic, and a tonic. It quickly removes from the blood, and other fluids of the body, the impurities of unhealthy secretions which engender and feed disease, thus striking at the root of the malady. Although proved to be efficacious, it may be taken at all times with perfect safety, as it contains no powerful drastic drug to debilitate the system, or mineral poison to ruin the constitution. Prepared and sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, 100 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.

Read the advertisement in another column. Sold by Dr. STEELE, Oregon City, and by Druggists generally.

Moffat's Life Pills.—The high and envied celebrity which this pre-eminent medicine has acquired for its invariable efficacy in all the diseases which it professes to cure, has rendered the usual practice of ostentatious puffing not only unnecessary but unworthy of them. They are known by their fruits; their good works testify for them, and they thrive not by the faith of the credulous. In all cases of costiveness, dyspepsia, bilious and liver affections, piles, rheumatism, fever and ague, obstinate head aches, and all general derangements of health, these Pills have invariably proved a certain and speedy remedy. A single trial will place the Life Pills beyond the reach of competition in the estimation of every patient.

Dr. Moffat's Phoenix Bitters will be found equally efficacious in all cases of nervous debility, dyspepsia, headache, the sickness incident to females of delicate health, and every kind of weakness of the digestive organs.
