

Unexampled Rescued.

The following affecting incident was related by the Rev. W. A. TENNEY, in his sermon at the Congregational Church in this city last Sabbath, to illustrate some point in his discourse:

John Maynard was well known in the lake district as a God-fearing, honest, intelligent pilot. He was a pilot on a steamer from Detroit to Buffalo one summer afternoon. At that time those steamers seldom carried boats. Smoke was seen ascending from below, and the captain called out 'Simpson, go down and see what that smoke is.' Simpson came up, with his face pale as ashes, and said, 'Captain, the ship is on fire!' Then 'Fire! fire! fire! fire!' on ship-board. All hands were called up. Buckets of water were dashed upon the fire, but in vain. There were large quantities of resin and tar on board, and it was useless to attempt to save the ship. The passengers rushed forward and inquired of the pilot, 'How far are we from Buffalo?' 'Seven miles.' 'How long before we reach it?' 'Three-quarters of an hour, at our present rate of steam.' 'Is there any danger?' 'Danger here—see the smoke bursting out! go forward, if you would save your lives!' Passengers and crew, men, women and children, crowded the forward part of the ship. John Maynard burst at the helm.

The flames burst forth in a sheet of fire; clouds of smoke arose; the captain cried out through his trumpet, 'John Maynard! Aye, aye, sir!' 'Are you at the helm?' 'Aye, aye, sir!' 'How does she head?' 'Southeast-by-east, sir.' 'Head her southeast, and run her on shore.' Nearer, nearer, yet nearer she approached the shore. Again the captain cried out, 'John Maynard!' The response came feebly, 'Aye, aye, sir!' 'Can you hold on five minutes longer?' 'By God's help, I will!' The old man's hair was searched from the scalp; one hand disabled, his knee upon the stanchion, and his teeth set, with his other hand upon the wheel, he stood firm as a rock. He beached the ship—every man, woman, and child, was saved, as John Maynard dropped, and his spirit took its flight to his God!

PAY OF SOLDIERS INCREASED.—By an Act of Congress recently passed, the soldier's pay is increased from eleven to fifteen dollars per month, and the pay of non-commissioned officers is increased in proportion. To the late three months troops a bounty of thirty dollars per man is offered if they re-enlist for the war individually; forty dollars if they re-enlist by regiments. This liberality will no doubt be attended with good effect, and in these hard times the Government will probably obtain all the men it wants.

—Good manners make a good impression oftener than personal beauty.

—A woman who wants a charitable heart should have a pure mind.

Roman Eye Balsam, FOR WEAK & INFLAMED EYES. THIS BALSAM was used for many years in the private practice of a celebrated Oculist, with remarkable success, for diseases of the Eye and Eyelids. There are many persons who would rather suffer from pain and disease through life, than credit or try the efficacy of any new discovery; all such had better read this, but to all reasonable persons this preparation is recommended as a most safe and effective cure for inflammation of the Eye and Eyelids, caused either by too close application to minute objects, or by exposure to cold, blows, contusions, or irritation from any extraneous body under the eyelids. It is remarkably soothing in itself, and has cured thousands who would otherwise have lost their sight.
