

Model Resolutions.
Previous to the recent election in Maine, the anti-coercion Democrats, who are called Disunionists there and elsewhere, held a free conference at Bangor, on the same day appointed for a Union mass meeting. A bit of a row was anticipated, but happily did not occur. The Republicans and Union Democrats, who, like sensible men, are not ashamed to call one another brethren, as they are in other quarters, held a big meeting, and among other resolutions passed the following:
Resolved, That we will stand by the Union, and maintain the Union, and not a grain of sand belonging to the Union shall ever be surrendered to foes abroad or rebels at home, and the union of Union and Democrats for the sake of the Union is the changeable will of the Democrats and Republicans of Penobscot.
Resolved, That the Republicans and Democrats of Penobscot are a band of brothers in this terrible crisis of the country's history, and politicians of every hue and dye are requested to dry up until the Stars and Stripes float again in security over every portion of the Union.

What Illinois Has Done.—We learn from the Adjutant General's office that Illinois has now in the field twenty-nine regiments of infantry, two of cavalry and eleven companies of artillery. There are now organized twenty more regiments, some of which will be in the field in a few days. Since Gov. Yates issued his last proclamation, over one hundred and seventy companies have been tendered. This is doing about as well as any State in the Union.

New York Canals.—The tolls of the New York canals for the financial year ending with this month, have been $3,285,892, an increase of $985,521 over 1860, and of $1,552,460, or an aggregate of $2,537,981 for the two years—equal to the proceeds of a tax of one and three-fourths mills. The Albany Journal says that there will not at present, be any occasion for the imposition of taxes to meet the interest on the public debt, or to reimburse any principal that may fall due this year or next.

Kentucky.—Gov. Magoffin, of Kentucky, vetoed the bill passed by the Legislature calling on Gen. Anderson to take command, at once, of the Kentucky volunteers and expel the Confederate troops from the State. The veto did no harm, however, for the House instantly re-passed the bill by a two-thirds vote, and the Senate did likewise. It is unfortunate for Kentucky that she has a Disunion Governor, it is doubly fortunate that she has a staunch Union Legislature.

He Gave All.—Gen. Lyon's will gives all his property, some $30,000, to the Government. His labor, his possessions and his life have all been laid upon the altar of the country which he loved. No man can do more; and his name and memory are henceforth embalm among the most precious of the nation's treasures.

India Rubber as a Medical Remedy.—Pure India rubber, dissolved in oil of turpentine and made into an electuary with syrup of elder and a few drops of essential oil of almonds, proposed as a remedy for consumption. A French physician professes to have greatly benefited, if not permanently cured, several cases by its continued use.

Oregon City Market.—Wheat, 60a 65c; Flour, $3.50a$5; Oats 25a30c; Butter, 18a20c; Eggs, 15c.

Notice.
The members of the Executive Committee of the Clackamas County Agricultural Society are requested to meet at the Court House in Oregon City on Saturday, Nov. 2, 1861, at 1 o'clock P. M.
WM. BARLOW, Ch'n.

Ed. Anous.—Dear Sir: Please permit me through your paper to express the thanks of my family and self to Mr. Joseph Parrott and wife for the kindness they showed in administering to the wants of the late Dr. James A. Smith, of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, through his last sickness at their residence, and the very decent burial which they gave him. Also to those who rendered valuable assistance in the last testimonials of respect to the dead, and many thanks to those who took the pains to let us know of our beloved brother's death. He came to Oregon with the intention of making it his permanent home, and died on the threshold, leaving two orphan children to the tender mercies of mankind.
WM. H. SMITH.

DIED:
In Oregon City, Oct. 21, after an illness of two weeks, of typhoid fever, SIMSEY J. CORREY, of Lane county, aged 16 years and 9 months.
Oregon papers please copy.
Away from home and friends most dear,
My brother thought to roam,
And little thought that death was near,
Calling him to the tomb.
On a stranger's bed my brother lay,
With a fever raging high,
When a brother came to soothe his pain,
Alas! I never him die.
No mother near, with gentle words,
To soothe her dying son,
Oh, hear him call, yet call in vain,
"Why, mother, don't you come!"
No father dear to smooth his brow,
Or hear his dying cries,
No sister near, with falling tears,
To close his dying eyes.
My brother's form, Oh, it is gone,
Cut down in all its bloom;
The course but yesterday begun,
Now finished in the tomb. G. K. C.

Roman Eye Balsam,
FOR WEAK & INFLAMED EYES.
THIS BALSAM was used for many years in the private practice of a celebrated Oculist, with remarkable success, for diseases of the Eye and Eyelids.
There are many persons who would rather suffer from pain and disease through life, than credit or try the efficacy of any new discovery; all such had better not read this, but to all reasonable persons this preparation is recommended as a most safe and effectual cure for inflammation of the Eye and Eyelids, caused either by too close application to minute objects, acrofulous habit, exposure to cold, blows, contusions, or irritation from any extraneous body under the eyelids. It is remarkably soothing in its effect, and has cured thousands who would otherwise have lost their sight.
In cases the Eyelids are inflamed, or the ball of the Eye thickly covered with blood, it acts almost like magic and removes all appearances of inflammation after two or three applications. There is a numerous class of persons that are peculiarly exposed to accidents or diseases that weaken and inflame the Eyes, and perhaps destroy the sight, who, from the nature of their employments, are compelled to work in a cloud of dust and grit. Such should never be without this BALSAM. Remember, "Seeing is Believing."
Price 25 cents per jar.
Prepared and sold by A. B. & D. SANDS, Druggists, 100 Fulton-street, New York.

under its influence is surprising. Each new case in which it is applied furnishes in the result a new certificate of its efficacy and excellence; and we have only to point to the accumulated testimony of multitudes who have experienced its beneficial effects, to convince the most incredulous of its value.
