

For the Argus.

Dear Homer, Vauxwell, (Written at Los Gatos, Almaden Valley, May 18, 1842, en route for Oregon.)
Your flowers are sweet, your fields are green,
Your bright sun has golden splendor;
Sweet is your sleep, and soft the barks.
Where friends now rest their weary heads.

Though all seems fair, I cannot stay;
Sad fate says have, you must go away;
My home, henceforth, the tent must be,
The prairie vast or forest tree.

The wolf may wake my poor repose,
Sail through the fields my eyes to close,
The savage will avail me naught,
And thence all I hold must dear.

Should war, or death, or hunger press,
My pathway through the wilderness,
May it be with peace and power well
In your arms a field of fame that well

Dr. W. M. HALL'S BALSAM.

CURES all diseases of the LUNGS and THROAT. For the cure of consumption, diaphrosis, asthma, bronchitis, whooping cough, diphtheria, croup, whooping cough, bleeding at the lungs, pain in the breast or side, and in fact every form of throat, chest, and lung complaint, as well as consumption.

Is Unequalled!

Hall's Living Balsam, in all cases, gives the best satisfaction.

Has wrought more cures since its introduction than any other cough medicine.

Testimony by our leading physicians as to the safest and best remedy now before the public.

Look to no among claimants, set powerful in cases of chronic pulmonary disease.

Bring in certificates attested of its wonderful cures in all parts of the country.

There is no doctor who within our knowledge has had equal success and wide-spread popularity in so short a space of time, as DR. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. Its healing and healing properties are magical. It is highly expectorant and tonic. It contains not a grain of opium or morphine, the narcotic and irritant properties which have created much prejudice against similar preparations.

We believe that a medicine possessing real merit will effect cures whenever it is used, at home or abroad. Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs is no preparation, but one which,
used in season, will save the lives of thousands.
The most distressing cough is frequently relieved by a single dose, and broken up in a few hours time. The affliction need not have taken place after battle before they find whether the cure will effect relief nor how long.

Hear what Physicians say of Dr. Hall's Balsam. Says one: "I, with confidence, recommend the Balsam as superior to any preparation." Another says: "I have used it with uniformly success, and can confidently recommend it to all these complaints, & whatever is required, as a cure." Still another writes: "I have no hesitation in saying that it is a safe, convenient, and efficacious medicine."

Sold by all Druggists.

Roman Eye Balsam,

FOR WEAK & INFLAMED EYES.

THIS BALSAM was used for many years in the private practice of a well-known Doctor, who remained a success, for diseases of the Eye and Eyes.

There are many persons who would prefer safety from violent disease through life, than to risk the evils of my new discovery, and would prefer to read my book, but to my recommend the preparation to my patients, & as a safe and gentle cure for inflammation of the Eye and Eyes, caused either by the excess of aqueous humor, cataract, or irritation from cold, heat, motion, or friction, from any external source, who would otherwise have lost sight.

In case of the above inflamed, or the half of the Eye thickly covered with blood, it acts upon the eye and removes all appearance of inflammation, after two or three applications.
There is not a class of persons that are generally exposed to violent diseases that weaken and injure the Eyes, and perhaps destroy the sight, who, from the natural heat and exposure are compelled to work in a field of dust and grit.
Such should never be without this BALSAM.
