

condemning the course of Hunter and clearly announcing the policy of the Administration on the conduct of the war. Gen. Benham will succeed Hunter. It is stated the former would long ago have recaptured Sumter, and re-established federal authority in Charleston, if Hunter had allowed him.

The Herald's dispatch says the President has decided to accept fifty thousand volunteers to fill the ranks which have been thinned out by wounds and sickness, and to form a reserve under drill for the future, which may be ready at a decisive moment.

Cairo, 22.—No additional news from the fleet. Deserters from the rebel camp, who left a week ago, have arrived here. They report that Beauregard had a hundred and thirty thousand men. They were suffering greatly from sickness.

Deserters also state that Farragut's fleet left Vicksburg on Saturday last, destined for Memphis.

Accounts from McClellan's army state that Gen. Sumner has been relieved from active service in consequence of his refusal to reinforce Heintzelman at the battle of Williamsburg.

An Incident.—A worthy son of Erin is approached by a noble scion of one of the F. V.'s, when the following conversation ensued:

NOBLEMAN.—"You've always been a democrat, Mike?"

MIKE.—"Never a word did ye speak truer than that!"

N.—"You will vote, then, for Miller and Wait, and the balance of our ticket?"

M.—"Ye're wrong there, shore! Miller is a secession rebel. I'm told, and old Wait is a doughface, if yer own party don't lie on him."

N.—[Surprised].—"Secession, Mike? Miller a secession rebel! Why, Mike, there are no secessionists in this country, at least I never met one. I want you to point out to me a secessionist if you can; I want to see him."

M.—[Looking Nobly in the eye until he quails].—"Bollax, yet a square man, any how. I'm blest if I know what to make of ye, at all. Hav'n't ye seen yerself in the glass for the last year? [Again copying the noble chin for a moment, he exclaims] Holy mother forgive me for asking ye!—Och! misther, look at him just! Shure, he never has seen himself this many a long month gone! Out on ye, for a dirty blaggard! Would ye be after seducing an honest demarcat to vote for yer murdering secession rebels? Yer a party man, now, aren't ye? Hanging is too good for all ye ye!"

The chief became very much enraged, but finally withdrew without shooting Mike's head off or cutting his throat. He has since said that no d—d Irishman shall ever talk to him in the like manner again—that he was once a know-nothing—that his principles were know-nothing yet, and so were most of the South. He called on his Creator to d—n his heart if he ever did light up until the d—d foreigners were put in their proper place; the most of them, he said, were not as good or as useful as the negroes, and d—n them, they should find their proper level; they would learn some day not to take airs upon themselves among gentlemen.—Statenman.

ITCH.—The Times says the work of constructing a railway portage on the Washington side of the river, at the Cascade has been commenced. The road is to be four miles in length, and to be finished in August.

Another locomotive, made in San Francisco, for the O. S. N. Company, to be used on one of their Columbia portages, was brought up last week by the Jonathan.

The Jonathan last trip made the run to Portland in 69 hours and 10 minutes—quickest time yet.

Maj. Alvord, Paymaster U. S. Army, for the last seven years stationed at Vancouver, has been appointed Brigadier-General of Volunteers.

Six copies of President Lincoln's likeness, woven in silk, in Switzerland, were received in San Francisco lately.

Judge Terry, the murderer of Broderick, is said to be on Powder River.

Three more convicts escaped from the Penitentiary this week.

A convict from Coos county was taken to Portland on Wednesday, sentenced to three years in the penitentiary for an assault with intent to kill.

B. F. Harding sends the following letter to the Statesman, under date, Salem, May 23, 1862:

"I have just learned that Hon. W. W. Page, in a public speech lately made at Dallas, said in substance that the administrators of the estate of Col. Baker had forwarded to Mr. Rector, and Mr. Rector had placed in my hands for collection, a note against Hon. Jno. R. McBride, given about the time of the Senatorial election. It is but just that I should say that I have no knowledge whatever of any note to which Mr. McBride is, or ever was, a party. The whole charge is false; and he who has or may utter that part of it relating to myself, is no less than a malicious liar. B. F. HARDING."

Judge Wait publicly declared that he does not know of a secessionist in the State, nor does he believe there are any! Wait, the arrant old humbug, has got up an impracticable and exploded compromising scheme, which he thinks may elect him. From the solemn and sanctimonious countenance that he takes to the rostrum, he no doubt expects credit for sincerity and honesty of purpose; but Satan has as much sincerity and more honesty (for he is not in disguise) than the man who declares that he believes there are no secessionists in Oregon.—Sentinel.

It is said that Judge Deady, long a distinguished member of the old democratic party, has expressed the opinion that the democratic party was disbanded at Charleston in April, 1860; and that it is downright humbuggery to talk of a democratic party being in existence now, and worse than humbuggery to attempt its organization in Oregon at this time; that it is death to any man or party to array himself or itself against the Government in the prosecution of this war.

An Iowa regiment has a rule that any man who utters an oath shall read a chapter in the Bible. Several have got nearly through the Old Testament.

Postscript.

The stage arrived last afternoon, but brought no news of importance. The following is an abstract:

MAY 23, 1862.

The opinion is gaining ground that the rebels will not fight at Richmond, but will evacuate.

There has been considerable skirmishing at Corinth. Our troops victorious in every instance.

There is great distress in Southern Virginia. Every house is in mourning at the prospect of approaching famine.

The distress in Richmond is beyond description.

Fort Wright is not abandoned by the rebels, as previously reported.

It has been ascertained from an authentic source that the expenditures of the Government are less than one million of dollars a day.

The news from Europe is gratifying.—It is ascertained that the rumors of intervention were the creation of secessionists, and are without foundation.

THE LOSS AT PITTSBURG LANDING.—The following are the official figures of our loss at the bloody battle at Pittsburg Landing on the 6th and 7th April: Killed, 1,735; wounded, 7,882; missing, 3,958. About 400 of the wounded have since died.—Gen. Sherman's division suffered most in killed, the number being 437. Harlbut's comes next, with 315 killed. Of Prentiss' division, 1,800 are missing; of Wallace's division, 1,163 are missing. Harlbut's division had 1,450 wounded; Prentiss' 1,400; McClelland's 1,450; Wallace's 1,602.—Our burial parties report 2,500 to 3,000 dead rebels found on the field.

Judge Hardy was impeached by the Senate of California on the 14th inst., after a trial of two weeks, and was removed from the office of District Judge, for having, "in violation of his oath of office and duty as a Judge, publicly used seditious and treasonable language against the National Government, thereby aiding and abetting and giving comfort to the enemies of the Constitution and Government."

THANKSGIVING.—The President's Proclamation, recommending the American people to observe a day of Thanksgiving for the brightening appearance of our National affairs, has been received, and many a man unused to expressions of devotion will whisper in his heart: Thank God for the Union victories which give us prospect of an honorable and enduring peace. Mr. Atkinson will conduct service on Sabbath with some reference to the subject.

J. O. F.—The R. W. Grand Lodge of Oregon was held in Albany on May 21, 1862. The following named were elected officers for the ensuing year: A. G. Hovey, of Corvallis, Grand Master; S. Ellsworth, of Eugene City, Deputy Grand Master; J. H. Douthett, of Albany, Grand Warden; C. N. Terry, of Salem, Grand Secretary; Thomas Churman, of Oregon City, Grand Treasurer; H. A. Cunningham, of Albany, Grand Representative.

IRON CLAD VESSELS OF WAR.—The United States Government is now building forty-eight iron-clad frigates, rams, batteries and gunboats, at a total cost of over $20,000,000. When they are all finished, the United States will possess the most formidable naval force in the world.

The military district of Utah will be under command of Col. Connor, 3d Regiment California Volunteers—headquarters Salt Lake City.

Smith, who acts as attorney for Wait in this canvass, says that any one who talks of "compromise" now is a fool.

Rev. Mr. Pearson will preach in the M. E. Church in this city on to-morrow (Sabbath) at 10 1/2 o'clock, a. m., and also in the evening.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8th, 1862.

I take pleasure in informing you that I have been using your excellent Yeast Powders for some time, and unhesitatingly pronounce them unexcelled by any similar preparation that I have ever used. Every house-keeper may rely upon it, that when used according to directions they never fail to produce that most desirable of all articles of food, good, sweet, and nutritious bread.—Having once proved how superior they are to all others, I could on no account be without them. MRS. N. MILLS.

Non-Resident Notice.

JOHNATHAN L. STOUT. Buckeye Mower.

Farmers, buy the best machine!

THE BUCKEYE

Has proved itself to be the

BEST MOWER & REAPER COMBINED,

Yet brought into use.

IT has the following advantages over other Machines: It has two driving wheels which support the whole weight of the frame, gearing, driver and Reaper. It has a double-linged finger bar being exclusively to the Buckeye Mower, which conforms to all varieties of surface and can be easily raised to pass obstructions. It has no cog gearing in the driving wheels; it is entirely free from side draft—the draught is lighter than ordinary mowing.

As a REAPER, it has all the advantages of the Mower. The Reel is attached with a flexible joint, which allows it to follow all the movements of the Platform on uneven ground. The Platform is readily adjusted to any required height of cut. The weight of Reel is directly over the axle of the machine, instead of being carried on the platform where it adds greatly to the side draft. It has many other improvements over the old style Mowers and Reapers. We have also the
