

Henry Clay on Rebellion. "If any one State, or any portion of the people of any State, choose to place themselves in array against the Government of the Union, I am for trying the strength of this Government, I am for ascertaining whether we have a Government or not—practicable, efficient, capable of maintaining its authority and upholding the powers and interests which belong to a Government.—Nor, sir, am I to be alarmed or dissuaded from any such course by intimations of the spilling of blood. If blood is to be spilled, by whose fault is it to be spilled? Upon the supposition, I maintain, it will be the fault of those who choose to raise the standard of disunion, and endeavor to prostrate the Government. And, sir, when that is done, so long as it pleases God to give me a voice to express my sentiments, or an arm, weak and feeble as it may be, to give that voice and that arm will be on the side of my country, for the support of the general authority, and for the support of the Powers of the Union.—[Speech of Henry Clay, August 1st, 1850.]

Ed. Anon: I send you a little piece written by a young girl who was deranged on almost every subject. I think it a little gem.

Dew Drops.
I see a beautiful dew
Upon the willow tree,
The pretty dew-drops bright;
Mother, come and see!
My very heart did leap,
Their beauties to espouse—
Mother, 'tis said they weep!
I wonder why?
Mother, when you are sad
I'll carry all the while;
These dew-drops make me glad:
I think they smile! —"MELBA."

(Communicated.)
To the memory of Mrs. L. Caruthers Miley, deceased March 20, 1862, Mickey Farms, Pa.

She is no more
That friend so dearly loved,
So long revered,
Silent and cold she sleeps the sleep
That in time will not know waking.
Her spirit soeak
Unselfish, ever kind,
Keenly alive
With bliss or woe to sympathize,
The vale of shadows safe has passed.
Forever gone!
Thus passeth human life;
And be it so!
Yet men's ears and will cluster round
The home her presence cheered so long.

No days of pain,
No restless, weary nights,
Await her now;
Fast closed the eye and mute the voice,
With life and hope all joyous once.
O, that on me
Again she might have looked—
Her blessing gave—
But such was not my Father's will,
And to that will I weep bow.

Her warfare's o'er,
And she the triumph's won;
Her end was peace;
Jesus to her His presence gave,
And Death without our terror came.
Let it suffice,
The mourning friends to cheer,
That she is best;
From sorrow and from sin released,
Would we her spirit hence recall!

Dr. W. M. HALL'S BALSAM
CURES all diseases of the LUNGS and throat. For the cure of consumption, decline, asthma, bronchitis, wasting of flesh, night sweats, spitting of blood, whooping cough, difficulty of breathing, colds, coughs, influenza, phthisis, pain in the side, and all diseases of the lungs, it

Is Unequaled!
Hall's Lung Balsam, in all cases, gives the best satisfaction.
Has wrought more cures since its introduction than any other cough medicine.
Is endorsed by our leading physicians as the safest and best remedy now before the public.
Is safe to use among children, yet powerful in cases of chronic pulmonary disease.
Brings in certificates almost daily of its wonderful cures in all parts of the country.
There is no medicine within our knowledge that has acquired so great and widespread popularity, in so short a space of time, as DR. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. Its balsamic and healing properties are magical. It is highly expectorant and tonic. It contains not a grain of opium or morphia, the narcotic and anstringent properties which have created so much prejudice against similar preparations.
We believe that a medicine possessing real merits will effect cures whenever it is used, at home or abroad. Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs is no pauper's preparation, but one which, if used in season, will save the lives of thousands. The most distressing cough is frequently relieved by a single dose, and broken up in a few hours' time. It is alleged to not have to take bottles after it before they find whether this remedy will afford relief or not.
Hear what Physicians say of Dr. Hall's Balsam. Says one: "I, with confidence, recommend the Balsam as superior to any preparation." Another says: "I have used it with uniform success, and can confidently recommend it for all those complaints for which it is offered as a remedy." Still another writes: "I have no hesitation in saying that it is a safe, convenient, and efficacious medicine."

Sick and Diseased
IN OREGON,
You can be cured!

An Honest Appeal to All with Bad or Failing Health.

ARE you languid, inanimate, restless, appetite poor, digestion bad, and PAINS IN THE LIMBS, BODY, BACK, and HEAD? Reader, much of this is caused from COLD caught unwittingly, or, in seven cases out of ten, sluggishness of the liver and blood, and want of natural perspiration, indigestion in the use of food and drink, or from a dizziness in the atmosphere—which is a very unhealthy part of the climate—many of the awful, violent, and SUDDEN DEATHS that occur here must be attributed to this. Now, reader, I have made this my study for many years, and do assure you that my DR. WEBBER'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL will cure those cases—it will insure animation of the LIVER, BLOOD, and BRAINS—it strengthens the nerves, and gives to the sufferer a lightness of spirit, a mental and bodily feeling of strength, that is delightful. The many respectable persons who have been benefited by and certified to its extraordinary qualities in curing any of the following diseases, must satisfy all but the self-will and general sceptic—

Dyspepsia, or indigestion; loss of muscular or bodily strength and mental energy; Fever, Ague, or chills; rheumatic, neuralgic or other pains; depletion and weakness of the natural functions, debility from disease, dissipation, too much doctoring, debauchery, and OTHER CAUSES.
