

REBEL IMPARTIALITY.—The Nashville Union says: Daniel S. Donelson, Brigadier-General in the Confederate service, while ordering his troops to burn other people's cotton and rice, in the Southern States, recently sold his own in Sumpter county, Tenn., for Yankee gold and "green backs."

UNION TRIUMPH.—On Monday, May 12th, Dr. Charles H. Ohr (Union) was elected Mayor of Cumberland, Maryland, receiving 437 votes against 84 for C. M. Thurston (Secession). The Union council ticket was also elected.

Tacitus says:—"In the early ages men lived a life of innocence and simplicity." On this a critic remarks: "When was this period of innocence? The first woman went astray. The very first man that was born in the world killed the second. When did the time of simplicity begin?"

Governor Sprague, of Rhode Island, was prominent in the advance from Yorktown to Williamsburg, "riding impatiently and imbibing his Rhode Islanders with his own energy and vigor."

TWO FACTS.—It is a fact, well attested, that the bitterest pro-slavery men at the South are non-slaveholders. It is also a fact, that those who burn up the cotton and tobacco do not own a pound of either.

If the rebels should get up a new uniform, it would be wise in them to adopt invisible green as its color, as it would so help them in their retreats.

THE CONVOCATION OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH, IN OREGON AND WASHINGTON TERRITORY, will be held in St. Paul's Chapel in this city, commencing on Friday evening, July 11th, 1862.

The Fourth passed off pleasantly in this city and vicinity. We will endeavor to give an extended notice of the proceedings in our next issue.

The President has offered, by proclamation, nearly 400,000 acres of land in Oregon for public sale in October.

MARRIED:

At Canemah, on the evening of July 9th, 1862, at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. G. H. Atkinson, Mr. JAMES H. GIER to Miss SUSAN C. HATCH.

Miss Susan is a blooming Oregonian, having as many friends as acquaintances, and Mr. Gier, since his arrival in this State from California, about a year ago, has shown himself of the right material to carry out success in affairs of love, as we hope is may do in every other department of laudable exertion. They may live a thousand years, and their shadow never grow less—and if any more of us friends, or any other man, conclude to obey Scripture by going and doing likewise, may they be comely invited the printer to rejoice with them in discussing just such another wedding-tale. After the ceremony had passed, and the half dozen friends had parted, a number of Mr. G.'s intimate acquaintances favored the happy couple with an oral serenade of an exuberantly harrowing character, being extremely novel and entertaining. The joke was taken good-naturedly, and after a taste of bride's cake round, the boys played a parting strain, and retired to dream of the time when wedding-bells should ring for them, and well-beck should crown the prize of life with the poetry of love. So mote it be.

In Clatsop County, June 29, by Rev. S. Wood, Charles A. McGuire to Miss Ellen West.

DIED:

In Portland, July 1, Edward Henry, son of Peter and Mary Burk, aged 3 years, 4 months, and 3 days.

In Portland, July 1, Anna, daughter of Richard and Ellen Fitzgerald, aged 2 years, 8 months, and 8 days.

An old Indian named Judas lost two pack-horses near Dayton on Saturday, June 28. The horses were loaded with flour, cans, and some other small traps, constituting a large part of the old fellow's substance. If any one can give information to the Argus Office so that he can recover property of the horse, he will confer a favor on the Indian and do a charitable act. One of the horses was a black, the other a sandy or claybank.

I take pleasure in informing you that I have been using your excellent Yeast Powders for some time, and unhesitatingly pronounce them unequalled by any similar preparation that I have ever used. Every housekeeper may rely upon it, that when used according to directions they never fail to produce that most desirable of all articles of food, good, sweet, and nutritious bread.—Having once proved how superior they are to all others, I could on no account be without them.
