A resident of Nashville recently on a visit to this city tells an amusing anecdote of how a violent Secessionist at the Tennessee Capital got a merited rebuke from Gen. Dumont. A famous physician's fe-male household deported themselves so rudely to our soldiers, once or twice actual ly spitting in their faces, that the General ordered the house to be put under guard. with orders to let no one pass in or out. The Doctor, who was in the country at the time, was greatly incensed on finding his access to his own home debarred by a guard of soldiery on his return, and forthwith went to headquarters, boiling over with rage. On stating the facts, the General calmly replied that he was not aware of giving any order to put the complainant's house under guard. Insisting that the fact was so he pointed to his residence, which was in sight and near at hand, as evidence, for the guard could be plainly seen. "Is that your residence?" inquired the General blandly. "To be sure it is." "Why, I took it for granted, from the conduct of its female occupants, that it was an abode of shameless courtesans, and I ordered a guard to be placed about it to prevent the visitations of our soldiery."

THE UNION MOVEMENT IS STILL MARCH ING on .- We hear the most cheering news from all parts of the State. The loval people, irrespective of former party names and ties, regardless of the actions old party committees, are moving on masse, organ izing themselves as old Tuolumne has done into one grand Union party, for the support of the patriot who stands at the head of our Government, in his vigorous efforts to crush this hell-born rebellion. Oregon, God bless her! has elected the entire Union ticket by an overwhelming vote, over two to one. California, her sister, will follow her in the coming election, by rolling up another overwhelming majority for our glorious and heaven-born cause As our God-blessed flag goes marching on, we see in the distance, retiring and crawling before it, the poisonous reptile rebellion, dying, squirming, twisting and writh ing in the last agonies of death, -American

HOW NEW YORK STANDS THE WAR-The great Empire State has furnished 106, 000 men to the Union army; yet despite the withdrawal of so many from active industrial pursuits, the State tax for 1862 is less by nearly one-fourth than it was in 1861, and the public debt is steadily decreasing. The tax for State purposes is only three mills on the dollar; saided to Dry-Goods. which the tax for national purposes—to meet the Federal War tax—is two mills.

A NARROW ESCAPE .- On Safarday last two boys, named Beck and Price, having obtained a piece of a rifle barrel, londed the same with powder and ball, and, while in the vicinity of the public school house, discharged the same. The ball passed through the wall and into the house of Mr. Class. Goodnough, struck a gutta percha comb in the head of Mrs. Goodnough, without injuring the lady herself, and fell to the floor without doing further damage. The escape of the ludy from instant death may be considered providential - Portland Tomes.

Goth SHIPMENT -Two steamers this week from Portland for San Francisco carried away over six hundred thousand dollars in gold.

page The P. M. at Belpassi has very properly declined to collect debts for secession papers.

PROSPEROUS, -Our State Treasury has now over $35,000 on hand, and no outstanding orders to meet.

DROWNED - A little girl, aged six years, named Ellen Fletcher, daughter of Mrs. Anderson, was drowned in the Walla Walla river on last Sunday morning. -The watchman of the steamer Tenino was killed by the Captain of the bout while lying at Lewiston. The Captain was examined before the proper authorities and discharged - Times. HANGING THEM .- An Eastern paper states that two guerillas were hanged at Chester, in Western Virginia, recently, by order of Gen Fremont. All such fellows should be served in the same way when Eo. Amous: Among the different exercises of the day and evening, the grand ball at Canemah, is perhaps not the least worthy of notice. Canemali, on the occasion, turned out " her beauty and her chivalry en masse, and, notwithstanding the fatigue occasioned by the numerous and lengthy exercises of the day, not a few came from different parts of the neighborhood, to participate in the innocent and healthy exercise of dancing. The attendance was numerous beyond the expectation of the most sanguine; not less than sixty of the fairest and loveliest of the sex gracing the occation with their presence, and adding a still more potent charm to that possessed by the profusely, though tastefully ornamented half. The music was of such a variety and excellent character, as to hardly fail to satisfy even habitual grumblers; while the supper may be safely said to have never been excelled, if ever equaled by anything, of the same extent, in the country. Be it said, also, to the honor of all present that not a single instance of drunkenness, ill behavior, occured during the evening, to lessen the general satisfaction which seemed to prevail; but everything was conducted in such an efficient and satisfactory manner, as to reader it highly creditable to the managers, and oblige all to pronounce themselves satisfied.
