

ROBERT J. BRECKINRIDGE ON REBELLION.—Rev. R. J. Breckinridge, of Kentucky, uncle of John C. Breckinridge, said in a late lecture: "The very first lesson we draw from the actual state of the country is, that the war in which we are engaged ought to be prosecuted, and prosecuted to the end, (tremendous applause) with the whole energy of the nation; ought to be pursued to the last extremity. (Repeated applause.) I may be called fanciful—perhaps I am; but I have often said, and I say it to you here, and God is my judge, I believe it would be better for this country, terrible as the calamity would be, and incalculable as the misery would be—I believe it would be better for God's purposes upon earth—I believe it would be incomparably better for the human race, for all that is gained by us, that we should go back to Plymouth Rock and Jamestown—to the infancy of our country—than to let this atrocious and abominable attempt to subvert the Government succeed."

A lady of Washington city, desiring to procure a "help", made application at the headquarters of the "contrabands" on Capitol Hill, when the following colloquy ensued between herself and a female contraband who had escaped from "service" in Virginia:
Lady. Well, Dinah, you say you want a place. What can you do? can you cook?
Contraband. No, m'm; mammy, she always cooked.
Lady. Are you a good chambermaid?
Contraband. Sister Sally she always did the chambers.
Lady. Can you wait in the dining room and attend the door?
Contraband. Lay 'n' m'm; Jim, that was her work!
Lady. Can you wash and iron?
Contraband. Well, you see, m'm, Aunt Betsy, she always washed!
Lady. Can you sew?
Contraband. Charity, she always sew'd!
Lady. Then what in the world do you do?
Contraband. Why, I always kep' the flies off mists!

THE ELECTION IN NASHVILLE.—Regarding the recent election in Nashville, the Nashville Union, of May 23d, says: The general return shows a most cheering increase of Union sentiment. In June, 1861, the vote against separation in the city was about 500. Now the Union vote is about 1,000, although more than one-third of the Union vote was not polled, because few regarded the election as valid, or believed it would amount to anything. In the Fourth Ward the vote stands—Union, 63; Foster, 66. Foster's majority is only 191 in the city, when he expected at least 1,000. The result shows clearly a decided advance in the Union strength.

Dr. WM. HALL'S BALSAM

Sick and Diseased
IN OREGON,
You can be cured!

CURES all diseases of the LUNGS and throat. For the cure of consumption, decline, asthma, bronchitis, wasting of flesh, night sweats, spitting of blood, whooping cough, difficulty of breathing, colds, coughs, influenza, phthisis, pain in the side, and all diseases of the lungs, it is unequalled!
Hall's Lung Balsam, in all cases, gives the best satisfaction.
Has wrought more cures since its introduction than any other cough medicine.
Is endorsed by our leading physicians as the safest and best remedy now before the public.
Is safe to use among children, yet powerful in cases of chronic pulmonary disease.
Being in certificates almost daily of its wonderful cures in all parts of the country.
There is no medicine within our knowledge that has acquired so great and wide-spread popularity, in so short a space of time, as DR. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS. Its balsamic and healing properties are magical. It is highly expectorant and tonic. It contains not a grain of opium or morphine, the narcotic and assuaging properties which have created so much prejudice against similar preparations.
We believe that a medicine possessing real merits will effect cures whenever it is used, at home or abroad. Dr. Hall's Balsam for the Lungs is no paregoric preparation, but one which, if used in season, will save the lives of thousands. The most distressing cough is frequently relieved by a single dose, and broken up in a few hours' time. The afflicted do not have to take bottles after bottles, before they find whether this remedy will afford relief or not.
Hear what Physicians say of Dr. Hall's Balsam. Says one: "I, with confidence, recommend the Balsam as superior to any preparation." Another says: "I have used it with uniform success, and can confidently recommend it for all these complaints for which it is offered as a remedy." Still another writes: "I have no hesitation in saying that it is a safe, convenient, and efficacious medicine."
Sold by all Druggists.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—The only pure and genuine Balsam is, and for the last twenty years has been, prepared by SERRA W. WISTAR & Co., of Boston; and their printed name, as well as the written signature of L. BATES, appear on the outer wrapper. As you would avoid the spurious and save the genuine, take no other!
WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—This is valuable remedy in the best one extant for the safe, sure, speedy, and permanent cure of coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, asthma, pleurisy, pneumonia, croup, whooping cough, bleeding of the lungs, pain in the breast or side, and in fact every form of throat, chest, and lung complaint, as well as Consumption itself.
This household remedy should be in the hands of every family and individual, as a timely application of it to a slight cold, will cause immediate relief; while cases of long standing, violent, and apparently incurable character, will surely yield to its wonderful curative power; and its great adaptation to the wants of man when afflicted.

Mill Seat and Land.

I HAVE an excellent MILL SEAT, surrounded with excellent TIMBER, which I would like to have improved. I will give some millright who wishes to invest in a saw mill or grist mill, or both, a good chance. The location is one of the very best for selling lumber—a level way to the mill seat, no hills to pull over, and handy to the heavy settlements.
I wish also to sell a half section of LAND nearby. The place is six miles west of Lafayette, Yamhill county.

It has long been a most important desideratum in the practice of medicine, to obtain a remedy which would purify the blood, and destroy the source of almost all diseases in all those tormenting diseases of the skin as trying to the patients, and injurious to the health. It is a tonic, stimulant, and disinfectant. It acts simultaneously upon the stomach, the circulation, and the bowels, and thus three processes, which are ordinarily the result of various different kinds of medicine, are effected on at the same time through the instantaneous action of this one remedial agent. Its great merit is that it meets and neutralizes the active principle of disease itself, and when that goes, the symptoms necessarily disappear. The rapidity with which the patient recovers health and strength under this triple influence is surprising.

REMARKABLE CURE.

LINA COONEY, Oregon City, 7
March 11, 1859.

Months A. B. & D. SANDS, New York Gentlemen.—In the spring of 1853, while on my way from Indiana to this place, one of my legs was seized with a swelling and severe pain in the leg which day by day grew worse, until his legs contracted, and became so painful that he could not walk, and he had to carry him about like an infant. We reached Albany on the 2d of October, completely worn out by fatigue. By this time, he was reduced to a perfect skeleton. Here we were enabled to consult a physician (Dr. Hill), who honestly confessed he could not cure him, although he could give him medicines that would relieve the pain. In this emergency something must be done, or death was inevitable. Being recommended to use your Sarsaparilla, I procured a bottle, and after taking some, he appeared better, and persevering with it, I obtained a second bottle, which seemed to operate with the disease, and caused a marked improvement: the swelling and pain in the legs were reduced, his appetite improved, and his color began to return. Thus encouraged, I purchased a third bottle, which taking off the swellings in his legs, broke, and some pieces of bone one eighth of an inch long came out, after which his legs straightened and healed up. He is now perfectly recovered, has no appearance of being a cripple, and can perform most kinds of common labor, as all our neighbors can testify. Yours, respectfully,
CALDER DAVIS,

CINCINNATI, Feb. 25, 1859.
Dear Sirs—I feel it my duty to write you, and let you know what your Blood and Liver Syrup has done for my daughter, and that by publishing it others who suffer with the same disease may know of it, and by its use derive great benefit. My daughter Eliza has been sorely afflicted with SCROFULA, attended with great pain, for more than two years. She had some five or six running Ulcers on one of her feet, one on her hip, and one on her back. This caused contractions of the limbs so that she could not walk. At this time, from the high recommendation of your Blood and Liver Syrup in curing such cases, I was induced to try it. She commenced using it, and as the medicine acted on the blood, the sores straightened—she is now gaining strength. I have only used three bottles of the medicine, and she can now walk quite well. Your Blood and Liver Syrup has done wonders in restoring her health. With the greatest respect, I remain yours,
