a boy-having been one of our pupils while he was growing up into manhood; and we have never known him to do an act, except the rash one which got him into this difficulty, that would detract from the character of a very respectable citizen. We have always thought that the sentence of Judge Wait in Jamison's case was an excessively hard one, and we are glad to see that Gov. Whitaker has had the magnanimity to interfere in a case where executive elemency could be so wisely exhibited.

FOR ASTORIA. The steamer Jennie Clark, so long a favorite packet between this city and Portland, is now making regplar weekly trips between the latter place and Astoria, under the command of Capt. James Strang, (who has long been known as one of the most popular of our river commanders,) and under his management the "Jennie" maintains her old coputation, as well as that of being the swiftest boat on the river. Those who would like to visit Astoria and ramble over Clatsop ants of the Townships herewith designated Plains, for either pleasure or health, can rest assured of being well taken care of whilst traveling on the Jennie Clark .-Capt. Strang, as also the steward (John reasonable time will be allowed within McKichan, who understands how to minister to the wants of passengers,) spare no pains in endeavoring to render their guests comfortable and the trip agree- in our district. able, and no fears will be entertained of being "blown up" when it is known that is on duty. The pleasures of such a trip time to administer oaths. we will not recapitulate here, as we caumerated them in detail a few weeks since.

Persons living in Clackamas county, who are entitled to Diplomas for exhibits at the last Fair of the State Agricultural society, will find them at the office of W. C. Johnson, the Secretary of our County Society.
