

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday night last, as Mr. Chas. Murray, painter, of this place, was on his way down from Canemah, he fell from the railroad embankment, injuring himself somewhat severely. We regret to say that Mr. Murray was in a condition to make an effective text for Col. Vinton, "or any other man" who might wish to give a temperance lecture.

While this is so, and while a man in his sober everyday sense need not fall off the bank, if he will only keep the middle of the road; when the wagon way is muddy, few can resist the temptation to follow the railroad, which can only be done after dark by running considerable risk to life and limb. We think the railroad company should have made arrangements for a commodious side-walk on one side of the track, for the safety no less than the convenience of the many foot passengers who are compelled to travel the road. This the Company could have afforded to do, as the road will pay a handsome dividend, and particularly as their track occupies the very ground most of the way where a side-walk must necessarily stand. As it is, if a single wide plank were laid down next to the inside rail, it would make a great and comparatively cheap improvement, and with a suitable rail outside, might save somebody's life before next spring.

BILL. Amounts headed to F. Charman, Esq., this week, for the Sanitary Commission, as follows:

Clackamas County Association,	$24.75
Canemah Association,	23.75
Amount this week	$18.50
" previously acknowledged,	$174.29
Total,	$179.79

To PRESERVE OYSTERS.—On receiving a sack of oysters last winter, a friend told us to pack them down in the cedar with the bows or hollow side down, so as to prevent the liquid from running out, and they would keep a month. We tried it and they kept alive and fresh five weeks. An occasional wetting with weak brine is an advantage to them.

Oregon City, Nov. 27, 1863.
En Route: The proceeds of last evening's fare in aid of the Sanitary Commission, are as follows:
Sales from ladies' tables, $8.60
Entrance fees, 13.80
Enclosed etc., 10.75
Total, $23.15
Expenses—Music $5, candles $1.20, cleaning room $1.25—total, 7.45
Amount of profits, $23.70
A. H. SHELTON.

DR. We are requested to state that a discourse will be delivered in the Methodist Church to-morrow evening, on the subject of Dancing. The public are invited.

Dr. Wm. Barlow, Esq., having moved to town, our rising attorney, and asks a share of the public patronage.

Reverend R. M. Francis, lately from the Eastern States, will preach in the Baptist meeting house in this city, to-morrow at 4 o'clock P.M.

MASSSES.—The members of Multnomah Lodge, No. 1, are specially requested to attend the regular meeting this evening, as the annual election of officers will then be held.

CONCERT.—The Ladies of the Sanitarium Society of this city are preparing a concert, and also having a Christmas Tree on the Tuesday evening before Christmas. The music will be vocal and instrumental. The following named ladies and gentlemen have been engaged to assist in the concert, and they are requested to meet to practice at the house of Mr. J. G. Campbell, on Tuesday evening just named: Miss Julia Johnson, Mrs. Charlotte Johnson, Mrs. Anna Johnson, Mrs. Harriet Pendleton, Mrs. Marion A. Rock, Mrs. W. W. Rock, Mrs. Theodore Wyant, Mrs. D. W. Craig and Mrs. Lydia Hollingshead, Grahame Richardson, E. M. White, German Beck, W. C. Johnson, Geo. A. Shepard, and H. L. Kelly.

MARRIED.—On the 5th of November, at the residence of the bridegroom, by Rev. C. C. Stratton, Mr. George Foster to Miss Mary Welch.

HEIMSTREETS
Imitable Hair Restorative.
IT IS NOT A DYE.

But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance, impaired by age or disease. All instantaneous dyes are composed of taracastie, destroying the vitality and beauty of the hair, and affording themselves no dressing. Heimstretts Imitable Coloring now only restores hair to its natural color by an easy process, but gives the hair a luxuriant beauty.

Luxuriant Beauty.
promotes its growth, prevents its falling off, eradicates dandruff, and imparts health and plumpness to the head. It has stood the test of time, being the original Hair Coloring, and is constantly increasing in favor. Used by both gentlemen and ladies. It is sold by all respectable druggists, or can be purchased by them of D. S. BROWN, Proprietor New York, SMITH & DAVIS, Portland, Oregon, Taxe 50 cents and $1. J. HOEL.

Estate of C. S. Tustin, dec'd.
Yamhill County Court—November Term, 1862.
AT this day comes David Smith, administrator of the estate of C. S. Tustin, deceased, and upon affidavit filed according to law, makes petition to the court for a license to sell the real estate of said estate, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that there is no sufficient personal property to pay the debts of said estate, the necessary allowance to the family, and the costs of administration, whereupon it is ordered that the 6th day of January, 1863, be set apart for the hearing of said petition, directing all persons interested to appear before said court, at the courthouse in Lafayette, at the time above specified, to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administrator to sell so much of the real estate of said deceased as shall be requisite to pay such allowances, charges, and debts, and that a copy of the above order be published in the Oregon Argus for four successive weeks.

Every housekeeper experiences how difficult it is to make good bread, and we therefore take pleasure in calling attention to the fact that to insure uniformly light, sweet, and nutritious bread, it is only necessary to use REDINGTON & CO'S YEAST POWDER.

In every respect it excels all similar preparations ever offered to the public.

See the advertisement in another column of this paper.

J. W. COWLS,
County Judge.

Nov. 15, 1862.

Final Settlement and Distribution.

County Court, 1862.
Clackamas County.

NOTICE. It is hereby given that Joseph Young, administrator of the estate of Richard P. Young, deceased, has filed his account for final settlement of said estate in the office of the county clerk of Clackamas county, Oregon, on the fourth day of November, 1862, and the first day of December, 1862, or said day being the 1st day of December, 1862, has been appointed to such final settlement of said administrator's accounts. Notice is hereby further given to all persons in any way interested or concerned in the distribution and partition of the assets of said estate in said administrator's hands, to appear in said court at the time above named, to show cause, if any, why a settlement should not be made to said administrator to sell so much of the real estate of said deceased as shall be requisite to pay such allowances, charges, and debts, and that a copy of the above order be published in the Oregon Argus for four successive weeks.

J. W. COWLS,
County Judge.

Nov. 6, 1862.

Multnomah Lodge No. 1,

F. & A. M. hold stated communications in Masonic Hall, on the Sabbath evening of each week. Brethren in good standing are invited to attend.

J. H. SCHIRM, W. M.

T. P. THOMPSON, W. M.

The next regular meeting will be held on Saturday evening, Nov. 23.

SEPTIMUS HUELAT,
County Judge.

Office No. 19 Nagle's Building, corner of Montgomery and Harvey streets, San Francisco. [3m2]

$1000 To Loan.—Good security required. Apply to W. C. JENKINS, Oregon City.

Lines on the Death of Mrs. Mary Savannah Crow,
Inscribed to Dr. Z. D. Davis and wife.
Although we now are forced to part
From them, we rest one of our hearts,
And bid them, and here we part.
To consummate our earthly course,
Yet our fond hearts must pass to steal
A moment's thought which few can feel,
To take a loving sweet embrace.

Whilom time nor fortune can't suffice,
And speak its love in stranger parts,
Than Cupid great of Venus feels,
It was hard, 'twas hard, it grieved us too,

To strike with them a long adieu,
But I am we much the love will feel
The world and ours deeply feel,
And fit our hearts less' guidell well,

With sweetest thoughts than tongue can tell,
Fit about the golden pillars less,
In nests howe we see our eyes.

And Photo's kept our hearts

With all his coming noble arts,

Though we should reach to Ophir's strand,

As minute to the golden sand,

Though we should reach to lands afar

Where learned men and erudite,

Though early late our souls enhance

And fame should favor our advance,

We'll elate thy name through accents sweet,

And off us losing sound repeat.

But though disease and rocking pain

Shall rend our hearts and toss our brain,

And there's no rest for our lonely hearts to find

While gloomy thoughtless steal our mind,

Well all around is drear and dark,

And storms in winter drive our bark,

While earth's abominations rudestrown,

And blast our pine trees all around,

One thought of them will soothe our hearts

And give relief to us in part,

For yon's no doubt of all who care

Could to our hearts sweet comfort give;

And it we chance to meet once more

With those, dearest, ones whom we adore,

We'll with such manners mock

Careless eyes and lively cheek,

And fill thy sweet delight that all

Where but mingled sorrow now do dwell.

Say here again, well dear old dear,

We now begin our sail, career,

New, old peers of mind, give us rest,

And hash the anguish in our breast,

Old gravity guide to guide our feet

To Mary Savannah's angel seat,

Where we may meet to part no more,

On Canaan's fair and happy shore.

33W. J. SHELTON.

Dancing Academy.

MR. BIRNBAUM takes pleasure in announcing to the citizens of Oregon City and Canemah that he will open a Dancing Academy at commencing Tuesday, Nov. 18, where he will give lessons every Tuesday and Friday evening during the winter.

WASHINGTON HALL,

Tutor of tuition—$5 for a gentleman and lady.

A class for ladies will be opened every Tuesday and Friday afternoon. G. BIRNBAUM, Nov. 10, 1862.

PROSPECTUS

of the

HERALD OF REFORM.

This is the title of a new monthly paper to be commenced on the first of January, 1863.—

The attention of the public is called to the fact.

The Herald of Reform will be devoted to the diffusion of knowledge, the elevation and refinement of the masses, the restoration of the spring; the increase of human happiness, and the fearless exposure of plots or imposture, slanderers, traitors of God and owners of themselves with mankind.

The Herald of Reform will be made a welcome visitor in every family circle.

The Herald of Reform will be devoted to the TRUTH, and especially the truth of Universalism, which is independent of creeds, or the opinions of men.

The EXTELLMENT of every opinion—believe and unbelief—are invited to contribute to columns.

As editor, we have all confidence in the TRUTH, and especially the truth of Universalism.

Our faith in this doctrine is never shaken, it must be an appeal to reason and a "common sense"

view of the whole; and not by reckless fabrications, holding fast to reason, and securing a lively moral and man in our country is necessarily educated to act as Axeman, and becomes as names in this—of December, that we may know the new edition to print.

TERMS.

One copy, one year, $1

Twenty-five copies, one year, $20

For further particulars, address

MARY A. or A. C. EDMUNDSON,

Lengore City, Oregon

GILBERT REYNOLDS.

Oyster Dealer,

ASTORIA

MY families of transportation enable me to go out regularly with the steamers plying between Portland and Astoria.

Terms, cash with orders.

Orders delivered on the steamer at Portland, at $6 per sack, so long as the present price rules in Astoria.

In event of advance before arrival, the advances will be added to the above figure.

Agents—John Rose, at Portland; G.

L. PARKER, P. M., at Astoria.

All orders promptly attended to.

Nov. 15, 1862.

Flax-Seed Wanted!

It is proposed to erect an OIL MILL at or near Salem or Oregon City, if farmers will contribute to grow for next season five hundred barrels of FLAX. Price per bushel, $1 to $1.50.

Yield 15 to 20 bushels per acre.

It may be raised in lots of 3 or 5 acres, and to advantage anywhere between Oregon City and Eugene City.

For particulars, address me soon at Salem.

Oct. 25, 1862.

C. HOEL.

State of C. S. Tustin, dec'd.

Yamhill County Court—November Term, 1862.

AT this day comes David Smith, administrator of the estate of C. S. Tustin, deceased, and upon affidavit filed according to law, makes petition to the court for a license to sell the real estate of said estate, and it appearing to the satisfaction of the court that there is no sufficient personal property to pay the debts of said estate, the necessary allowance to the family, and the costs of administration, whereupon it is ordered that the 6th day of January, 1863, be set apart for the hearing of said petition, directing all persons interested to appear before said court, at the courthouse in Lafayette, at the time above specified, to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administrator to sell so much of the real estate of said deceased as shall be requisite to pay such allowances, charges, and debts, and that a copy of the above order be published in the Oregon Argus for four successive weeks.

GEORGE T. TUSTIN.

IT IS NOT A DYE.

But restores gray hair to its original color, by supplying the capillary tubes with natural sustenance,

</