

CONGRESSIONAL.—Washington special dispatches state that Senator Wilson will soon introduce a bill giving aid to Missouri for emancipation purposes. It will offer ten millions as a first installment.

In the House, Wickliffe of Kentucky, introduced a bill for the protection and relief of loyal citizens whose property and slaves have been taken by the officers of the United States Army. Referred to the Committee on Judiciary.

Stevens of Pennsylvania introduced a bill indemnifying President Lincoln and other persons for suspending the writ of habeas corpus. The bill is the same as was introduced last week.

Valdigham of Ohio objected to reading the bill, and under the rule the question was, shall the bill be rejected. The House refused to reject—thirty-four ayes against ninety noes. The bill was then passed by forty five majority.

In the Senate, several petitions were presented in favor of a General Bankrupt law.

Latham of California introduced a bill to provide for the development of the mineral resources of the United States. Referred.

The Bankrupt Bill was taken up and made the special order for Thursday, 18th. In the House, Morrill of Vermont offered the following:

Resolved, That no time since the existence of the rebellion have the forces and material in the hands of the Government been more ample and abundant for the speedy termination of the war than at the present moment, and that it is the duty of loyal Americans, regardless of minor differences of opinion, and especially is it the duty of every officer and soldier, and those in every branch of the Government, including the legislative, cordially to strike the assassins at once who have conspired to destroy our experiment of prosperity and freedom, of which we are justly proud at home and abroad, and for which we stand pledged to perpetuate forever.

Agreed to—ayes, 145—Wm. J. Allen of Illinois alone voting in the negative.

In the Senate, Harding of Oregon, offered a resolution requesting the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to inquire into the expediency of negotiating a treaty with the Indians of Southern Oregon and Northern California. The resolution was adopted.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—In the House, yesterday, the Senate bill for the admission of Western Virginia into the Union, was passed by 96 to 55. It provides for submitting a constitution to the people for ratification.

"Honesty" Versus "Greenbacks" Error: A writer in the Salem Statesman of the 8th, styling himself "Honesty," commends very highly Mr. Ramsy for paying Mr. Williams in legal tender at a discount. The writer's effort would not be noticeable were it not for the strong presumption that he is one of a few Salem speculators, or a tool for them, trying to establish a sentiment against using legal tender at par. It is not the first attempt made "to steal the livery of Heaven to serve the Devil in."

As I heard it, that remarkable case of honesty has connecting circumstances something like these: Mr. Ramsy mortgaged his premises to get "legal tender" promising to pay gold coin in return with 12 per cent interest, for the purpose of paying off another mortgage held by Mr. Williams, bearing interest two or three per cent per month. Mr. R. paid the legal tender at par, but to satisfy Mr. W. gave him some forty dollars. Would Mr. W. have done so much to save a sacrifice of Mr. R.'s property? Perhaps he would. But Mr. Ramsy what did "a leading republican" propose to do with the "Green Backs?" I answer: he offered to exchange them at par for notes bearing two per cent per month payable in gold coin with only the little addition of ten per cent for collecting from a man whose word is good for the money without the paper. Come O! tears of joy to celebrate the glory of paying legal tender at .90 cts. to be sold again at $1.10!

Mr. "Honesty" if you and your kind of honest men were to labor as zealously to sustain the credit of your Government in writing articles commending those who take legal tender at par; in calling meetings of the people to condemn those bankers and money shavers who damage the credit of our country, as you did in getting up "Union meetings" before the election, making loud professions of patriotism, and as you now do to favor speculation in government paper, legal tender would be at par in less than one month all over the loyal States. In your case, love of the "almighty dollar" seems to rise above your love of country. Perhaps however, you love your country more the less, but the dollar more.

Again, you endeavor to impose upon the people of the Pacific a double speculation, by requiring them to pay for goods in gold or legal tender at a discount, which are bought east with legal tender at par or gold at a premium. Some of our newspapers tell their patrons that paper has advanced; that a half or whole dollar must be added to the subscription price and of course they must pay in gold, actually adding 10 to 15 cents to the 30 or 40 cents speculation east. Honesty this with a vengeance!

You substantially hold that paying legal tender to individuals at par is stealing—taking something for nothing—ten cents on the dollar; but (as a consequence,) that stealing from the government is a legitimate business; or do you know that while the speculator makes thirty per cent, the government must as certainly lose? We the people made the legal tender notes and we pay our soldiers with them. When those soldiers return to us with legs and arms shot off, Jeff Davis like you repudiate your own paper—you tell them it is "honest" that they should lose ten to thirty cents on the dollar in favor of money sharks after fighting your battles for ten or fifteen dollars per month, while you and I stay quietly at home following the usual rounds of pleasure and speculation. The true hearted American blushes for shame at such a view!

HOSON. SALEM, Dec. 10 '62. P. S. If "Honesty" wishes to show those other qualities courage and patriotism, would it be well to write over his real name? Or getting Hon. Mr. Moore, Mr. Williams, the Treasurer of State, or any others of consequence to endorse his views, would it not be well to discuss more fully and carefully the moral and patriotic bearings of this subject? "Honor" will endeavor to give an appreciative audience to "Honesty." H.

APPROPRIATE.—An extract from one of the Salem Statesman's articles abusing the administration, is now posted up in one of the whisky saloons in Astoria. No more appropriate place could be found for one of these articles than being posted on a barrel of "rot gut."

At a late "democratic meeting in Brooklyn N. Y. the crowd dispersed hurrahing for Jeff Davis and Seymour. Hang to yer "hould," Pat, you are entitled to the "haste."

UNION MEN HUNG IN TEXAS.—The Texas Republican of Nov. 1, gives an account of the execution of forty-two men said to have belonged to a secret society in the northern part of the State, the object of the society being to surrender that portion of the State to the Federal authorities.

ANY ONE who professes to understand all the trades or sciences, assumes to impose an absurdity upon the public. On the same principle, any one medicine which professes to cure all diseases, is unworthy the slightest confidence, and should at once be denounced as a quack nostrum. The Griefenberg Family Medicines do not assume to cure all diseases with one remedy. They have eleven different medicines, each adapted to its peculiar disease, and time has proved beyond a question the efficacy and certainty of these preparations. Their list comprises the following medicines:
